Faces Fight

In 1936 Carlton Chilton (above) of Cleveland, O., won a fight against removal to Oklahoma to expiate a boyhood bank robbery-but now a similar battle confronts him. Oklahoma's Gov. Leon C. Phillips has refused a pardon and signed extradition papers for Chilton, who escaped 25 years ago while serving a two year sentence. Former Gov. Martin L. Davey of Ohio refused extradition in 1936, but what action Ohlo's present governor, John W. Bricker, will take, Chilton doesn't know.
