Benedictine Nun Dies, Mt. Angel

MT. ANGEL—Funeral services for Sister M. Eugene Heas, O.S.B., were held from the convent chapel Tuesday morning at 9 a.m., with interment in the private convent cemetery. Rev. Bede Rose, chaplain, officiated. Sister Eugene, one of the oldest members of the community of Benedictine Sisters at Mt. Angel, passed away at the convent on January 6. The 51st anniversary of her religious profession occurred on the same day. Sister Eugene was 81 years old. She was born at Engelberg, Switzerland, on August 23, 1859, and came to America in 1887. Three of her sisters were also members of Convent Queen of Angels. They were the late Sister M. Mechtild, Sister M. Gertrude, and Sister M. Agatha, who was prioress of the community for 21 years. A nephew, Carl Heas of Silverton, survives them. With three companions, Sister Eugene celebrated the golden jubilee of her profession on January 6, 1939. Besides her work at the convent here Sister Eugene during her long career served on missions at Grande Ronde, Oregon City and Portland.

Silverton's Fire Department Makes 51 Calls in Year

SILVERTON — Earl Hartman was reelected fire chief at the Monday night meeting of the Silverton Volunteer Fire department. Election of other officers was deferred until a later meeting as only a few members of the department could be present Monday night. The annual report of the firemen's department, made to the city council Monday night showed 51 calls during the year, two of these false alarms, besides eight country calls. Fire loss at Silverton during the year was $1651. The firemen showed 34 hours and 27 minutes of service. It was pointed out that every possible means of reducing the fire insurance rates at Silverton had been complied with except appointing a paid fireman. This will be considered at a later meeting of the city council, Mayor Zetta Schlador said. The regular meeting of the PTA was held at the schoolhouse Friday night. Dr. J. F. Santee of the OCE at Monmouth was the guest speaker. Fred Branstad displayed his collection of Indian relics and curios.
