Winter term has begun. The holiday spirit is forgotten as students begin the new year's work. Jack Powell is to be congratulated for again making the top of Oregon's honor roll with straight A's. Alice Swift and Bill Rostron are also in line for congratulations with their names on the honor roll list.

Helen Angell, news editor of the Daily Emerald, was awarded a scholarship by the panhellenic association. She and five other girls were chosen out of a list of over fifty.

One of the highlights of the term will be the annual Dad's Weekend, January 26 to 28. Last year over 180 Dads were entertained on the campus and this year the number is expected to reach a new high. Eleanor Sederstrom will be in charge of registration and Elizabeth Steed of the annual Dads' banquet. As an added attraction the Dads will be able to see Oregon's basketball team play the University of Washington.

Last Friday "The Hobson Hobbles" dance was held in Gerlinger hall in honor of the basketball boys. Among those attending were: Frances Roth, Jeanne Kneass, Gladis and Jean Hurry, Jean Burt, Barbara Pierce, at Vandenberg, Eleanor Sederstrom, Marylee Fry, Barbara Crain, Bill Snell, Bob Baker, David Compton, Don Seely, Verdi Sederstrom, Earl Maynard, Jim Pickett and Bill Muller.

"Who will I ask and what if he turns me down?" is the question in coed minds. Next Saturday the freshmen are putting on their annual dance and this year it will be a leap year affair.
Seen around... Bob Prime and Pershing Holman having a coke in the College Side... A foursome at the Hobson Hobbles... Mary Anne Owens, Phil Barrett, Margaret Barrett and Amos Jahn... Frances Ann Mott, looking very charming at the Sigma Nu preference dinner Saturday... Blonde Dorothy Koshmider escorted by Gib Elliot at the basketball dance... Elizabeth Steed, new Gamma Phi pledge having a coke in the College Side with Bill Forge... Jean Burt, Dinny Cross, Stuart Nelson, Dave Compton, Dean Cadie at the dance at Wilamette park Saturday.

Mrs. Breyman Boise left on Saturday morning with her son, Evan and Eugene, for a stay of several months in San Diego, Calif.

Style-Smiles - - - by Gretchen

"This'll give you a line on his character. He wears a sport coat with three belts on the back!" Personally, we wouldn't be able to guess whether a man like that was a pessimist, or just showing off. The lady speaking is wearing a lovely, striped woolen suit of the dressmaker type. The longer jacket ends in a flaring pleat over the straight skirt. Chief claim to fame of the plaid suit is that clever use of bias material in the front, forming a waistcoat effect. The collarless jacket has two flap pockets.

Fruit Abundant In Markets

Here's good news or all salad fans. California avocado pears have been stepped up by Production Manager Nature in a mid-season bumper crop. A California sun, gone tropical for the last few months, has presented us with an unprecedented midwinter avocado harvest, practically all of it ready to eat right now.

Under these circumstances the fruit won't last long and there'll be no salads later on until the summer crop is ready again. The usual long season for the winter fruit, lasting at least until springtime will be lost to us. But right now we can enjoy avocado salads to our heart's content, so let's look into the simplest ways of getting them on the table.

The famous half-shell avocado is merely an unpeeled fruit cut into lengthwise halves. The seed is removed, and cut surfaces sprinkled with lemon juice and salt. This provides sufficient salad contrast for many who have learned to appreciate the subtle, mellow flavor. Many prefer the added accompaniment of a thin, tart French dressing, or a variation which increased the piquancy of its flavor, such as the addition of chopped green pepper and onion, minced stuffed green olives, or crumbled Roquefort cheese.

Serve the avocado half-shell with a spoon. It has the approval of the Emily Posts of the culinary world and happens to be the only way you can be sure of scooping up every bit of the mineral rich spring-green meat just underneath the almost transparent thin green skin.

Chicken Fritters On Menu

Chicken fritters begin with a boiled chicken and appears on the table with apple rings for attractiveness.

APPLE RINGS WITH CHICKEN FRITTERS
Core a large apple and cut in four even rings or slices. Salt slightly and dust with flour, saute until slices are a rich gold color. Slice evenly the breast and legs of a boiled chicken and dip slices in fritter batter; fry until brown. Make a not too heavy gravy from the broth and add boiled rice to this. Place apple rings in the center of a platter and pour over the gravy sauce, place chicken fritters on top, garnish and serve.

Best Cakes in Files Are Listed

We haven't had a bunch of good old favorite cake recipes for a long time so let's go through my files for several I know to be good.

AMY'S CHOCOLATE CAKE
1/2 cup butter
2 cups sugar
4 eggs
2 squares chocolate
1 cup milk
2 1/2 cups flour
4 teaspoons double acting baking powder
1 cup nut meats cut fine
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon salt

Work butter and flour together until like coarse cornmeal, add dry ingredients, half the milk then the melted chocolate. Stir well and drop in the unbeaten eggs, add remaining milk and

Lemons, Apple in Cake Filling

Lemon and apple makes the flavor in this old-fashioned cake filling.

ELSINORE'S LEMON APPLE FILLING
Mix in a sauce pan 1 whole egg, 3/4 cup sugar, juice of two lemons, rind of 1 lemon, 2 medium sized apples, grated. Cook until it jells, cool and spread.

flavoring. Beat well and bake in a loaf pan, 350 degrees for about 45 minutes.

Then there's this delicious cake that came from Mrs. Tribner from the middle west. Whoever Mrs. Tribner is, we don't know, but her cake still remains as a favored one among the white cakes—and long may she bake 'em.

And by the way, don't forget to "just throw in the eggs."

MRS. TRIBNER'S WHITE CAKE
3/4 cup butter
1 1/2 cups sugar
3 cups flour
4 1/2 teaspoon double acting baking powder
5 egg white
1 teaspoon lemon juice
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup milk

Work butter and flour together until like coarse cornmeal. Add sugar and remaining dry ingredients then half the milk. Stir well and add unbeaten egg whites, remaining milk and the flavoring. Beat well and bake in layers in a 375 degree oven for 20 to 25 minutes.

Then by way of variety from these more expensive and a bit more elegant cakes, let's try this lightning tea cake, one that is speedy, but turns out to a very fine one for everyday use.

LIGHTNING TEA CAKES (From Fruit and Flower Cook book)

Place flour sifter in a mixing bowl and put in 1 1/2 cups flour, 3/4 cup sugar, 3 teaspoons baking powder and a pinch of salt. Sift into a bowl. Put 1/4 cup melted fat in a measuring cup, add 2 eggs and fill up with milk. Combine and beat thoroughly and add 1 teaspoon lemon extract. Drop into well oiled muffin tins and bake 15 minutes.
