Sport Sparks Vikings, McMinnville Clash Tonight

By RON GEMMELL

A lot of lads, in Salem proper and the Willamette valley, are going to miss "Gus," for "Gus" has been a-troopin' with 'em for 10 years, on and off now, and "Gus" has been a companion. leader and example for 'em, and Salem Team Girds for No. the fellow who takes "Gus" place, no matter how good he is, is going to have a hard row to hoe, as the farmer once said.

Don't reckon it's necessary to relate the rest of "Gus" name, for practically every one knows "Gus" is the fellow who does things in a nice, big way for boys around the YMCA. For the purpose of the records, maybe we'd better get his whole name down, it being Marion E. "Gus" Moore, who has recently accepted a position with the Long Beach, Calif., YMCA similar to the one he has held with the Salem Y since 1937.

"Gus" began doing things for kids through the Y back in 1930, while still a student at Willamette. After a year's study at floor-fanning local preppers isn't Sjringfield, he became physical known, but it is known he has one director in 1935, and his inter- piece of finely mechanized court est in providing wholesome recre- machinery in Allen Metzler, a ation and sports for youngsters guard who last season was named at doing things for boys that in district 11 tournament, and a sixand he got so good at that as to who has the ability and experience in the northwest, and Long night. Beach reached out and took him. In two weeks "Gus," who has done so much for Salem and Willamette valley boys through his untiring efforts to promote softball, swimming, Hi-Y clubs, boys' camps, etc., will be heading south to his new job. Long after he's gone, we'll betcha, kids'll come boomin' in the Y screechin' "where's 'Gus'?," and will be a-missin' the guy no end. And "Gus," who'll be answering similar yelps from California kids, will have his thanks for a job extra well

For USC, despite the inroads made by Sir Sheepskin, will have enough fellows to form a football team. There will be on hand such fellows, and you may have heard of them, as Fullbacks Jack Banta and Bob Peoples, Center Dempsey, Halfand Ends Antelope Al Krueger and John Stonebreaker, plus a quarterback by the name of Mickey Anderson, whom you may remember as quite some shucks as a sprinter, plus a couple of other reserve teams, plus a freshman squad considered one of the best Troy ever had, plus the usual galaxy of transfers who are rated the best in the junior college field.

None, we wouldn't advise the loss of any tears over the Trojan situation for 1940. The Jones' boys may not win their third consecutive Rose Bowl game, but, then again, they might. In fact, it'll be a difficult task for the Huskies, Beavers, Bears, Indians, out of that Pasadena affair that gives 'em $100,000 each time they're "in" with which to go out and get more talent to go "in" again. But, maybe, Czar Atherton will stop that.

If Ed Atherton doesn't stop it, or if Troy doesn't stop it by withdrawing from the conference, it looks very much to this corner like the conference would have to stop it by declaring a division of the Rose Bowl spoils among all members of the conference a la the world

175 Points Scored in two Chemawa Tilts; Foxes, Molalla Victors

CHEMAWA-Only 175 points were scored in two basketball games here Tuesday night, and Frank Backbone got 25 of them as he led his varsity Brave mates to their third consecutive WVI loop victory, a 61 to 42 trouncing of Lebanon's Berrypickers.

The 25 counters ran Backbone's loop record to 73 points in three games. His forward partner, Scalpcane, netted 20, while Bob Medley, Lebanon center, connected for 18 in the wild, rapid and net-swishing game.

Lebanon, fading away from the baskets and letting go with long ones, held a 11-10 first-quarter lead, but the Braves came storming back to forge to the front at halftime, 30-19. The third quarter ended 43-32, and the Braves had all the better of it in the final quarter dash.

The other 72 points came in the preliminary, with Two Crows getting 16 and Goodluck 15 as Chemawa's Bees bored out a 53 to 19

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 9.-(AP)-Oregon, defending champion all the way from the northern division of the Pacific coast confernece to the national collegiate basketball association, emerged from its second 1940 game victorious tonight, 46-36, over Idaho.

For the second consecutive evening, the visiting Vandals gave the Webfoots great cause for anxiety until another late second half rally thrust the champions safely ahead. Oregon led by a scant three points, 19-16, at half-

Idaho was in constant revolt against the Oregon rule in the first half. Led by Ramey and Hilton the Vandals matched the Oregonians shot for shot, held the lead three times, and were never more than five points behind. Dick, Sarpola and Townsend contributed the points that erased a 14-13 Idaho lead and put the Oregons ahead at halftime.

Ron Harris, injured in the Idaho-Oregon State game last Saturday, returned to the court in the second half and scored four field goals in five minutes as Idaho worked into a 24-22 ad-

Matt Pavalunas "canned" a ong one for Oregon to tie the score and Dick, who led the scorers with 16 points, restored the Duck lead with a lay-in shot. From then on the Webfoots were not to be denied. Dick scored 10 points in rapid succession as Oregon ran the advantage to 39-28. The Ducks "coasted" in.

Oregon abandoned its shifting zone defense style for an outright man-to-man to check Harris during his spell of high fever. Dick, giant Oregon center, finally halted the Idaho star's scoring
