

Local News Briefs

Bankers Hear Williams—Rev. W. Irvin Williams was the speaker at a dinner meeting of Salem members of the American Institute of Banking at the Golden Pheasant Friday night.

Coming Events

Jan. 25—Burns' anniversary Scotch program, Cherry City Bakery auditorium, 8 p. m.

Two Join Army—Two Turner young men have enlisted in the army through the Salem recruiting sub-station according to information received from Lieutenant-Colonel H. D. Bagnall, Portland recruiting officer.

M & F Grocery, 1073 S. Com'l. Open Sundays and evenings. We give S&H Green Stamps.

Files Boiler Report—Report of an inspection of the firebox boiler and hot water supply tank at the county court house made by James H. Mason, district supervisor for the Fidelity and Casualty Insurance company of New York, indicated both to be in operating order with no defects noted.

O. G. Coffey now at Joe & Ray's Lunch. Open 6 a. m. until 1 a. m.

Teutsch at Chamber—William L. Teutsch, assistant county agent leader for Oregon, will be the speaker at the Salem chamber of commerce luncheon Monday noon.

Starting Monday all Silverton Beauty Shops will operate under one standard price.

On Blotter—Dee Herrick, route three, was arrested by city police yesterday on a charge of having no driver's license.

M&F Grocery, 1073 S. Com'l. Open Sundays and evenings. We give S&H Green Stamps.

Boy Takes Fall—Kenneth Purcell, 12, Keizer, was treated by Salem first aid men yesterday for injuries received when he fell while roller-skating on the high walk three-fourths of a mile north of Keizer school.

Special January prices on Wamsutta Supercare sheets and cases. Better Bedding Store, 115 N. High.

Curry Woman Appeals—Myrtle A. Garner, Curry county, under four years penitentiary sentence for cattle stealing, Saturday filed transcript of appeal in the state supreme court.

At Silverton—Sergeant William M. Cheney, local marine recruiter, spent Saturday at Silverton reviewing applicants for the marine corps.

We're Confident, You're Confident... Because...

EVERY PRESCRIPTION We Fill Is Given Exact Attention! SCHAEFER'S DRUG STORE 1899-1940 185 N. Commercial Club to Install—Townsend club No. 2 will install new officers Monday night at 8 o'clock at the Leslie church, Judge Miller B. Hayden will act as installing officer.

Members Added—New members of the Salem chamber of commerce listed in the weekly bulletin include Lloyd G. Rogers and George H. Flanagan of Bearings & Motor Parts, Inc.; F. I. Bressler of Capitol Lumber company; Dr. G. A. Stieberg, chiropractic physician; Henry P. Toevs, fuel oil distributor.

Day and night school, Capital Business College, Nelson Bldg.

For watch and clock repairing—H. T. Love, 141 S. Liberty.

Building Permits Listed—State of Oregon to repair a dwelling at 970 South Commercial street, $260; Frank and Donald Shepard to build a one-story dwelling and garage at 835 Pine street, 1000; G. M. Slutz to repair a feed mill at 2700 Portland road, $35.

W. Salem Florist open daily, 8 to 8 P. M. 4439. Flowers and sprays.

At Orchard Heights—Members of Salem high school's Future Farmers of America will entertain at a musical jamboree Friday night at Orchard Heights.

Burns Program, Thursday, Jan. 25, 8 p. m., Cherry City Bakery hall. Admission 35 cents.

Cooperate in Census—A special committee to cooperate with the census enumerators in Salem will be appointed soon by E. H. Bingelheimer, president of the Salem chamber of commerce, following a conference with Byron G. Carney, regional census director.

Condition Improving—Mr. B. E. Edwards, who underwent major operation at the Salem Deaconess hospital Thursday morning, is recovering satisfactorily.

Girl Injured—Marlyn Williams, Salem Linen Mills employe, was taken to the Salem Deaconess hospital yesterday after receiving an accidental knife wound while working at the mill.

Aid Art Classes—The mill and cabinet classes at Salem high school are engaged in converting 1000 feet of white pine into drawing boards and drawing tables for the art departments of Salem schools.

Odell Justice Named—E. W. Dunne of Crescent was appointed justice of the peace for the Odell district in Klamath county by Gov. Charles A. Sprague here Saturday.

Pinballs Taboo TILLAMOOK, Jan. 20.—District Attorney Warren A. McMinnis ruled pinball machines out today, charging they conflicted with the state's anti-gambling act.

FLOWERS OLSON, Florist Court & High Ph. 7166

Naumcheff Is Found Guilty

Forger Is Given Sentence of Year in Prison, 50 Days Credit

Mike Naumcheff, found guilty Friday of forging a $50 promissory note on the Mt. Angel bank, was sentenced yesterday to serve a year in the state penitentiary by Judge L. H. McMahan.

— Circuit Court — Agnes Seal vs. Dr. H. K. Stockwell; transcript of judgment from Salem justice court.

— Probate Court — Minnie Stevens estate; Ralph I. Stevens named guardian of $4900 estate and Frank Way, H. W. Dunnigan and Roy McKibbin, appraisers.

— Justice Court — Leonard J. Rowell; no license plates, fined $1 and costs.

— Marriage Licenses — Homer Lyle Thacker, 24, clerk, and Nancy Jane Faust, 20, secretary, both Mill City.

Gullivers of Citrus Family—Huge Lemons, Are Exhibited Here

Gullivers of the citrus family, three genuine lemons more than eight inches in diameter, are on display in the windows of Montgomery Ward & Co. this weekend.

Obituary

Obituary of Volney Boyd Volney Boyd was born in Wisconsin August 18, 1889, at his home in Clear Lake, Oregon, after a brief illness, on January 16, 1940; aged 78 yrs., 5 mos., and 13 days.

Mr. Boyd was converted to God 50 years ago, and faithfully walked in the steps of His Saviour to the end. During his last brief illness he gave repeated testimony of his readiness to go to be with the Lord.

A precious one from us has gone. A voice we loved is stilled; A place is vacant in our home Which never can be filled.

Rites Are Said For Mrs. Laatz Funeral services were held last week at Pendleton for Mrs. Fred Laatz, 72, Pendleton pioneer and mother of Mrs. James D. Plamondon, wife of the assistant superintendent of the state hospital here.

Boatwright Emma Ann Boatwright, late resident of 855 Third avenue, at a local hospital, January 19, at the age of 77 years. Survived by husband, V. Boatwright; sons, M. J., O. E., and R. E. Boatwright, all of Salem; sister, Mrs. Letta Gatchell of Des Moines, Iowa; brother, John H. Herr, Humansville, Mo., and 16 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Memorial services from the Walker-Howell funeral home, Monday, January 22, at 2 p. m.

Webb Harry Webb, late resident of Cornelius, at a local hospital, January 19, at the age of 51 years. Survived by sister, Mrs. Sherman Glenn of Emmet, Idaho. The body has been forwarded to Emmet, Idaho, for services and interment by the Walker & Howell Funeral home.

Lehr Charles Lehr, late resident of Portland, at a local hospital January 20, at the age of 69 years. Survived by one son, William Lehr of Portland. Funeral arrangements later by Walker-Howell Funeral home.

Schmidt Rudolph Schmidt, 80, late of Pratum, in Portland, January 19. Uncle of Mrs. Margaret Warnitz, Timm. Funeral services Monday at 10:30 a. m. from the Pearson Funeral home in Portland. Interment at the Portland crematorium.

Charges Lynch Bill "Buy"

In the midst of a quiet session, Representative Arthur W. Mitchell (D.) of Illinois, only Negro member of the house, hurls a charge that the Republican party is "trying to buy back the Negro vote" with the pending anti-lynching bill.

New for Air Travelers

Something new for air travelers is being inaugurated by a transport company. Radio sets, individual ones in which passengers are seated by the pilots on the progress and unusual scenic views of their trips, are being installed on T. W. A. transports.

Home Planting Is Discussion Topic

"Planning and Planting the Home Grounds," is to be the topic for discussion Monday at 8 p. m. in the Salem grange hall on East D street, according to J. F. Smith, Smith-Hughes agriculture instructor at the Salem high school.

Rites Are Said For Mrs. Laatz

Funeral services were held last week at Pendleton for Mrs. Fred Laatz, 72, Pendleton pioneer and mother of Mrs. James D. Plamondon, wife of the assistant superintendent of the state hospital here.

Spring! Pelicans Back KLAMATH FALLS, Jan. 20.—(P)—Klamath county's harbingers of spring, the big-beaked pelicans, showed up this week.

Walker & Howell Funeral Home 346 NORTH CAPITOL PHONE 3673

Roosevelt Speech Is Forum Subject

Panel Discussion Planned for new Session of Group at YMCA

Panel discussion to be followed by an open forum on the subject of President Roosevelt's message to congress at the opening of the present session will be held tomorrow at 8 p. m. at the Salem YMCA.

The discussion and forum will continue the series of forum meetings held at the YMCA during the fall, in the course of which various aspects of the European war were presented by Dr. Ivan Lovell of Willamette university and afterwards discussed by members of the audience.

Members of the panel participating tomorrow night will be Carle Abrams, William E. Hanson, Avery Thompson and Frank Judd.

Those participating in the panel discussion will express their views on various aspects of the president's message which they consider important, after which the audience will be invited to offer general comment on issues presented by the members of the panel.

Chairman for the meeting will be Wallace Sprague, member of the editorial staff of The Statesman.

Acton to Direct YMCA Enrollment

Paul Acton will direct the annual YMCA enrollment campaign this week, with 200 new members as the goal. The program was deferred from October to avoid interference with the community chest.

Representing various groups in the drive are Clair Miller and Norman Winslow, breakfast club; Rev. Charles Weston, Lloyd Gregg and Lawrence Lister, sports; Walter Miller, board of directors; Miss Alice Young, women; Art Boesch and Roy Mink, badminton, and Dr. Kinley K. Adams, ex-breakfast club.

Thief Mounted On Bike Takes Crate of Eggs

A thief who carried off a case of eggs on the handlebars of a bicycle raided the plant of the Hazel Dell dairy, 155 South 12th street, Friday night, according to police, after prying a screen off a rear window.

Bicycle tracks were found by the window used to enter. The 34 dozen eggs and a number of account records were the only things taken. The account records were in the cash drawer.

Oregon Sad Over Borah's Passing

Governor Charles A. Sprague telegraphed Mrs. William E. Borah today expressing Oregon's sorrow at the death of Senator Borah, her husband.

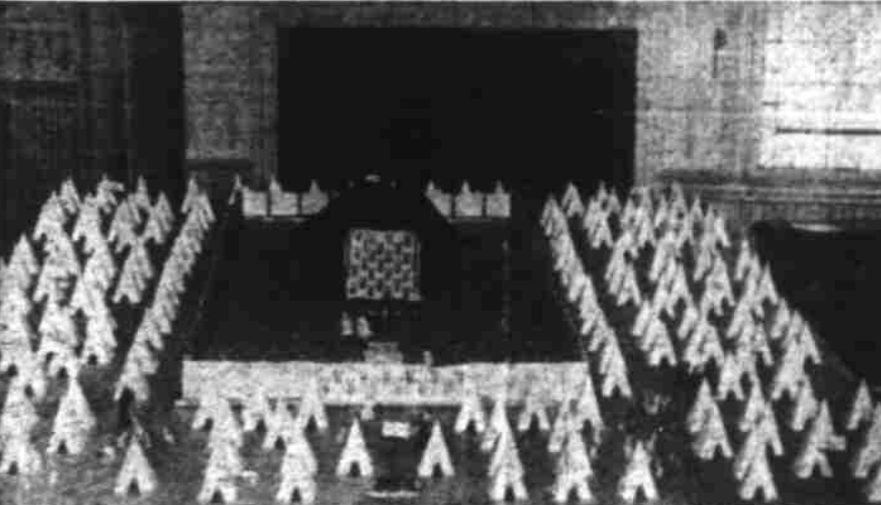

"Oregon mourns the death of Senator Borah," the message read. "His public career won him high admiration here culminating in his endorsement for president in 1934. I extend the sincere sympathies of the people of this state."

The Young Farmers' school will meet Tuesday night at 7:30 in the agriculture room of the Salem high school. "Use of Protein Supplements for Swine Feeding" was decided upon at the last meeting as the subject for discussion this week.

"Chemical Content of Fertilizers" will be discussed by a representative of the state department of agriculture at the Farmers' Union night school Thursday 8 p. m. in the Clear Lake school house.

These three night schools are held for the benefit of farmers in the Salem community, and sponsored by the Smith-Hughes agriculture department of the Salem high school. There is no charge for anyone that wishes to attend any of these meetings.

Churchman Builds Biblical Model

Model of ancient tabernacle of children of Israel, constructed by Dr. Irving A. Fox, pastor of First Baptist church, to illustrate series of Sunday night services.

Minute Detail Noted in Workmanship Displayed in Replica of Tabernacle

Unusual in its conception and workmanship is the tiny model of the ancient tabernacle of the children of Israel, constructed by Dr. Irving A. Fox and being used at the First Baptist church to illustrate a series of Sunday night services.

Californian Here To Hold Services

Rev. C. W. Monzingo, pastor of the Free Methodist church in Santa Monica, Calif., will be in Salem this week to assist with a special campaign conducted by the Free Methodist church.

The evangelist was reared in a minister's home and was graduated from Greenville college. He is a singer of ability, as well as a popular preacher.

Starting Tuesday, January 23, the campaign will continue through February 4. Rev. D. A. Cohan, church pastor, has announced.

Baxter to Speak At FFA Banquet

Dr. Bruce R. Baxter, president of Willamette university, will be the main speaker at the sixth annual parent and son banquet of the Salem chapter of the Future Farmers of America at Salem high school Wednesday. Over 150 guests are expected to attend.

Toastmaster will be Carl Fitts, vice-president of the Salem chapter. Invocation will be given by Rev. George H. Swift, Tom Fisher, chapter president, will speak briefly.

Music will be furnished by the Future Farmer band under the direction of Wendell Halseth. Leonard Zielke will give the address of welcome for the Future Farmers, and the response is to be given by Mr. Dodge. The high school girls' double trio will sing.

The answer to the question, "What Is the Future Farmers of America?" will be given by Monte Christofferson.

Vernon Johnson will introduce the guests. Gilbert Kelley will give a reading. Talks on "Our Future Farmer Farm" and "County and State Fair Activities" will be given by Seth Dodge and John Roth, respectively.

Truck Lines Given Intervention Okeh

Petitions of Intervention in the case of Union Pacific and other railroads vs. Ormond R. Bean, state utilities commissioner, presented by a number of trucking interests and by the AFL Teamsters union were granted yesterday by Judge L. G. Lovelling.

The case involves the right of the utilities commissioner to suspend rates for hauling petroleum set by the railroads, and the private truckers and teamsters union have indicated that they see themselves directly concerned in its issue.

Petitions were filed by the Teamsters union, local 162, the Inland Empire Waterways association and a number of private truck operators; and by the Pacific Inland Tariff bureau, representing 90 truck lines in the northwest.

Charters to Assume Job As Y Boys Leader Today

Clyde Charters, newly chosen boys' work secretary for the Salem YMCA, will begin his duties today. Gus Moore for the past 2 1/2 years in that position, will leave today with Mrs. Moore for similar work at Long Beach, Calif.

Charters will continue his student work at Oregon State college until the end of the winter term.

Little Stories about GREAT HYMNS. W.T. RIGDON CO. 299 N. COTTAGE ST. SALEM - TELEPHONE 9173

Walker & Howell Funeral Home 346 NORTH CAPITOL PHONE 3673

IT'S A BIGGER, BETTER CAR! ANY WAY YOU MEASURE. OLDSMOBILE. PRICED FOR EVERYBODY. BIGGER AND BETTER IN EVERYTHING! 445 Center St. LODER BROS. Salem, Ore.