'Blacks' Invade Bay of Monterey

Peninsula recently, their landing covered by guns of Uncle Sam's Pacific fleet and squadrons of the navy's lethal birds as 8,000 men disembark and successfully raided the mid-California area. Photo shows army troops landing at Monterey from navy launches. Skirmishes with "Blue" defending army patrols followed. No real shells were used, but the local populace described "the next thing to war" the US army's current mancuvers, greatest in peacetime.
