The Salem central WCTU will meet at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at 20'clock, Mrs. Edna Waterman will talk. Dr. Eugene Tupper will be the speaker and will discuss "The Relation of Nervous Diseases." There will be a review of a speech on narcotics given by the Surgeon general. Mrs. A. E. Tuttle will sing.

Miss Marybeth Rumsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rumsey of Portland became the bride of Mr. Harvey Quistad, son of Mr. Louise Quistad and Mr. Carl M. Quistad of Salem yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Portland. The bride wore a frock of light gray velveteen with matching turban and accessories for her wedding costume. There were no attendants. Following the ceremony the couple left by motor for a honeymoon in Canada. For traveling the bride wore a dress of wine jersey with a turban. Miss Rumsey attended the University of Oregon where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Mr. Quistad attended the San Mateo Junior college and is now connected with the Beutler-Quistad Lumber company. The couple will be "at home" at the Elaine apartments upon their return.

IN NEWS—Miss Helen Benner, former Salem girl, who is singing professionally in Chicago.

Don't Look Now

but . . . Only a mother and a society editor know what it means to be a mother. This writer shudders every time she types a notice about a mother's club serving refreshments, sewing for the chapter house, giving a rummage sale or having a canned food shower. It doesn't seem quite fair on the surface, with dad's weekends, father-and-son banquets and the like . . . but on second thought while mama serves dad eats down town, his best hunting shirt goes to the rummage and his favorite jar of preserves ends up on the framily table. Tall tale . . . perhaps you'll think that the story about the 30,000 children is just another, but it isn't. Apollo's step-children . . . What to do! There are 80 players in the high school band and only 54 uniforms. But they paraded in the streets Thursday, giving good music and looking half like orphans. Not a bad stunt though, because many a lukewarm citizen is now vowing there will be uniforms for our band. To the last drop . . . Governors have cut President's Birthday cakes before, but none ever did a better job than on Wednesday during the dance at Crystal gardens. Not just one cut, but every piece did Governor Sprague carve. Unsung hero . . . of the Salem Philharmonic concert was William DePrez, tympanist, who wielded a husky and efficient pair of sticks during "Finlandia" on Tuesday night. Welcome to Salem . . . Miss Doreen Kirschner is making her home in Salem where she was transferred a short time ago from Baltimore. Miss Kirschner, who is with the social security board, was formerly from Seattle and has several friends here. Down in front . . . These teeny weeny hats that perch high on a dashing coiffure may not be what Lillian Russell wore, but they are no more transparent. It's the tallest and the widest, it seems to me, who wear their hats in concerts. Let's make this national "take off your hat week," so us shortsies can see. Don't look now . . . is short but wait until next Sunday after a tea, garden club, hobby show, Frantz concert, two amateur play nights, band concert, republican banquet and Arbor day . . . whoopee girls, hold your hats 'cause I'll be ararin' . . . Maxine Buren.

Jackie Van Cleave may not be a Clarke Gable and he may not even be a hero, but he's a pretty important actor in the play "Her Step-Husband" which the community playhouse is presenting on Tuesday and Wednesday nights at Bush school for the benefit of the Young Republican club. Jackie is Hard Boiled Willie, the champion wrestler in the play and after he's misplaced in a basket of laundry a time or two, and walls as hard as his 15-month-old lungs will let him, he's the bit of the show. Jackie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Van Cleave of West Salem. Betty Allen plays the part of Mary Marshall, Leon Spaulding is Harvey Marshall, Morrell Cray is the step-husband and others in the cast are Dorothy Kingway, Mrs. Val Cleve, Sue Sanderson, Leonard Steinbock, Larry Boulder and Carol Young. Larry Boulder is director and Charles Domagolla is stage manager. This is the fourth presentation of the play which was enthusiastically received in Lebanon, Silverton and Hazel Green in the past few weeks.

Those present were: Mrs. Arthur Bares, Mrs. Verne Douglas, Mrs. Chester Downs, Mrs. Robert Elstrom, Mrs. Thelma Gilbert, Mrs. Lloyd C. Hockett, Mrs. Michael G. Panek, Mrs. George Rhoten, Mrs. Harry Scott, Mrs. Kenneth Waters, Mrs. Waldo Zeller, Mrs. Roy Harland, Mrs. Joseph Felton, Mrs. William C. Jones, Mrs. Edward Brown, Mrs. Richard Liebes and Mrs. Clinton Stan-dish. . . .

Contract Club at Elliot Home. Mrs. A. J. Elliott entertained the members of her contract club Friday afternoon at her home on North Winter street. A 1 o'clock luncheon was served followed by several hours of bridge. High honors went to Mrs. Charles South and Mrs. J. A. Wiltsey. Mrs. Henry Gortmaker was an additional guest for the afternoon. The table was set with white linen and centered with a bouquet of red tulips and red tapers. At each place were red and white favors. Covers were placed for Mrs. Henry Gortmaker, Mrs. Charles South, Mrs. Victor Butler, Mrs. J. A. Fehler, Mrs. Cecil Kerner, Mrs. J. A. Wiltsey, Mrs. Arthur Cummins, Mrs. Walter Gardner and Mrs. A. J. Elliott.

There are two ways to look—backwards and forwards—and looking at the Junior symphony, which will play its first concert on February 17 at Leslie auditorium, we see an organization that had its beginning a long time ago. Music notes in the Oregon Statesman of January 22, 1935 announced the organizing of a preparatory orchestra under the direction of Vernon Wiscarson. Today's Oregon Statesman is telling about that organization's little brother, the Salem Junior symphony, which is also directed by Vernon Wiscarson. The new orchestra is composed of 60 players, drawn from all eight grade schools, two junior high schools and has two players from the senior high school. There are students from Liberty, Swegle, Hayesville, West Salem, Salem Heights and Middle Grove. This first concert given by the orchestra is one suited to the young players. There are favorite melodic numbers including "Gracful Movements," "Waltz," "Sweet and Low" and "Flow Gently Sweet Afton." Then Mr. Wiscarson has chosen other numbers, more difficult but familiar just the same. There will be "Intermezzo" from the L'Arlene suite by Bizet and "Ase's Death" from the Peer Gynt suite, both have been played by the Salem Philharmonic orchestra. "Festival Overture" by Taylor, on the national contest list for orchestras, is also on the program. As for the orchestra which was organized five years ago, and went out of existence when Vernon Wiscarson went away, it started many young players on a musical career, for several have gone to college to major in music, several are outstanding players in the Salem Philharmonic orchestra. Kathleen Broer, concertmaster of the Philharmonic, was concertmaster in the preparatory orchestra five years ago. The object of our Junior symphony is to develop musicians who will ultimately play in the Salem Philharmonic, it is to teach likely youngsters without previous training, free of charge, to play in an orchestra.

Miss Ruth Herbert, bride-elect of Mr. Roy Taylor, was honored with a miscellaneous shower when Mrs. Glen Hamilton of Brownville and Mrs. Everett Herbert of McMinville entertained at the home of Mrs. P. D. VanAusdell in Salem. St. Valentine decorations were used on the table. Those bidden to honor Miss Herbert were: Miss Margaret Clare, Miss Gladys Raetz, Miss Gladys Ross, Miss Ellen Morley, Miss Rosemary Herbert, Miss Wanda Gamble, Miss Virginia Gamble, Miss Nita Taylor, Miss Charlotte Koller, Miss Kay Sharpack, Miss Helen Cross, Miss Doris Benson, Miss Doris Krueger, Miss Mable Alsop, Mrs. Paul Brandon, Mrs. Floyd McClellen, Mrs. A. E. Brinkman, Mrs. Herbert Wolfe, Mrs. A. V. Richardson, Mrs. P. D. VanAusdell, Mrs. A. G. Hamilton and Mrs. I. E. Herbst. . . .

The American Legion auxiliary will meet Monday night for the regular session at 8 o'clock in the Fraternal temple. Mrs. Frank Marshall, Americanism chairman, is in charge of the program and has planned an informal Americanism quiz. The Legion Glee club will furnish music for the evening. Ladies of St. Vincent de Paul will entertain with a card party Tuesday night at 8:15 o'clock at the parish hall. This will be the last card party before the Lenten season. Bridge, pinochle and "500" will be in play.

Miss Liljeqvist Is Bride of Mr. Eyre. Miss Cynthia Liljeqvist, daughter of Mrs. Lawrence A. Liljeqvist became the bride of Mr. David Eyre, Jr., son of Mr. David W. Eyre at a quiet ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cate in Portland at 8:30 last night. Close friends and members of the immediate family were present. Bishop Benjamin D. Dagwell officiated. The mantel over the lighted fireplace was decorated with white candles, white anemones and ferns. The marches were played by Miss Marian Fouse, harpist. The bride wore a gown of white moire made with basque waist, flared skirt and trimmed with small moire bows. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book and a marker of lilacs-of-the-valley. Mr. Cate gave his niece in marriage. The honor attendant, Miss Ingrid Liljeqvist, wore a frock of pale blue tulle and carried pink camellias. Mr. Robert Adelsperger of Marshfield served as best man. The bride's cousins, Miss Judith Slack and Miss Sally Bonney, of Coquille, held white ribbons to form the bridal aisle. A large reception followed the wedding ceremony, presiding at the urns were Mrs. John Simpkin of Marshfield, Mrs. Luckey Bonney and Mrs. Harry Slack of Coquille, and Miss Hazel Johnson of Portland, and Miss Rovena Eyre cut the cake. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Robert Adelsperger and Mrs. Joseph McKeown of Marshfield. Miss Marjorie Neill of Grants Pass, Mrs. Samuel H. Martin, Mrs. Harlow Davis, Mrs. Harry Prudeaux and Miss Martha Cate. For going away the bride wore a refer coat of beige and brown, matching frock and hat, brown alligator accessories and a corsage of orchids. Upon their return from California the couple will be "at home" at 2909 SW Upper Drive in Portland Heights. Miss Liljeqvist is a graduate of the University of Oregon, where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She later took advanced work at LeLand Stanford. Mr. Eyre also attended the University of Oregon and is a member of Beta Theta Pi.

The Town club entertained with a formal dance last night at the Marion hotel. Bob Mendenhall and his band from Corvallis furnished the music. Dancing was between the hours of 10 and 1 o'clock. Many out-of-town guests were bidden and several informal affairs were given preceding the dance.

DAR Meeting For Guests Saturday. The Salem group of Daughters of the American Revolution met yesterday afternoon to hear a talk by Mrs. John Y. Richardson of Portland and to enjoy guest day. The meeting was held at the Women's clubhouse. Mrs. C. C. Clark talked about the history of the national DAR and its objects, lauding the organization which is now in its 50th year. Mrs. Seymour Jones introduced the program which included several solos by Miss Josephine Gross, accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Geer. Following Mrs. Richardson's talk, the "good citizen" was chosen from several candidates from high schools in this district. Miss Irma Hutton of Silverton was selected as first, Miss Eileen Paulsen of Salem second, and Miss Mary Margaret Livesay of Dallas third. Miss Hutton was chosen because of her qualifications as a good citizen, and because of an essay on good citizenship written by her. She will compete with other girls from the state to be a delegate on the "Good Citizenship Pilgrimage" to Washington, D.C., an annual project of the D.A.R. A large number of guests were present at the meeting. Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. H. C. Eakin and Mrs. Seymour Jones poured at a table centered with an arrangement of silver and red.

Miss Loe Reveals Her Wedding. Coming as a surprise to their friends was the marriage yesterday of Miss Evelyn Loe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Loe of Silverton, to Mr. John W. Wolfe. The marriage was performed at 5 o'clock in the parsonage of the American Lutheran church with Rev. P. W. Erickson reading the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hanson attended the couple. The bride was gowned in a street-length dress of aqua silk, made peasant style, with very full sleeves, an inset belt and full skirt. Yarn embroidery embellished the gown, which was buttoned down the front. Her accessories were of black, and she wore a corsage of gardenias. For going away, the bride wore a wool coat over her bridal dress. Mrs. Wolfe attended Silverton schools and is now employed at the office of Herman Laffay. Mr. Wolfe attended Gresham schools and is organist at the Mellow Moon. The Dakota club meets Wednesday at WCTU hall for a basket supper at 6:30. Pictures of Alaska, Mexico and Oregon will be shown by Mr. Barclay Newman, with intermission of violin music. All Dakotians are invited. Teachers PEP club will meet at the New Salem Hotel Monday night at 5:30 o'clock. They will entertain the members of the JUC club of Woodburn. All members are invited.

Hellen Benner Has Busy Days. Another Salem girl who made good is Hellen Benner, word from whom comes by way of the Music News Magazine of Chicago. The periodical says that Miss Benner opened a studio recently in Chicago. She sings regularly at the Fourth Presbyterian church and over station WGN. She fills numerous other singing engagements besides her studies, according to the "News." Miss Benner opened the season of the Deerfield Woman's club and appeared before the Woman's Division of the Retail Druggists, she gave a Christmas program for the Outdoor Arts society and was guest artist for the musicale given by the St. Cecilia choir of the Church of the Redeemer in Chicago. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Benner of Salem. . . .

Garden Club to Meet Wednesday. Those who like herbs for gardens and for kitchens, will find interest in the meeting of the Salem Garden club on Monday night at the chamber of commerce, when Mrs. Oliver Gunderson of Lebanon talks on "Herbs, Their Use in Garden and Kitchen." The committee for the evening is Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. Paul H. Hauser, Mrs. O. A. Whaley and Mrs. F. C. Lutz. All members of the club are invited to bring anything in bloom for exhibit. There will be a question and answer discussion. Non-members are welcome to attend the meeting but a small admission charge will be made.

Initiation at Sororities Yesterday

Formal initiation services were held Saturday afternoon for the pledges arranged by three sororities on the Willamette campus. The Alpha Phi Alpha sorority held its service at the chapter house on North Summer street. Those initiated were: Miss Mary Swisher, Miss Ruth Amussen, Miss Margaret Rankin, Miss Alice Stone and Miss Avis Pick. The Delta Phi sorority held services at 5 o'clock and initiated Miss Eleanor Bailey, Miss Sally Anderson, Miss Doris Harold, Miss Barbara Ferguson, Miss Helen Acheson, Miss Doris Riggs, Miss Dorothy Ann Laddock, Miss Lila Murray, Miss Georgia Cook, Miss Carol Clark, Miss Betty Ann Keller and Miss Florence Uphorn. At the Beta Chi sorority house on State street the following girls were initiated: Miss Irene Christie, Miss Patricia Comany, Miss Harriet Crawford, Miss Mary Jane Cutler, Miss Bernice Elgin, Miss Lois Gladden, Miss Patricia Hutchinson, Miss Mary Ellen Miles, Miss Jane Sisson, Miss Mildred Williams, Miss Shiraz Caulfield, Miss Jean Longley, Miss Florence Gallon and Miss Dorothea Greenwood. Dinners Follow. Saturday night, following the initiations each house entertained with a formal banquet. The Delta Phi sorority dined at the Argo hotel where the girls honored their mothers as well as the new members. Pink and silver carried out the decorative motif. An arrangement of pussy willows and pink paper centered the long table. Miss Elizabeth James acted as toastmistress and during dinner the following people gave informal talks: Miss Verna Vosper, Miss Sally Anderson, Mrs. Frank Liburn and Mrs. Frank James, Miss Helen Dean and Miss Betty Starr sang several songs. The Alpha Phi Alpha members dined at Schneider's Coffee shop. The Valentine motif was used in the decorations with large hearts in the shape of a heart and piece and red and white favors at each place. Miss Betty Williams was toastmistress and others taking part on the program were: Miss Laura Lee Tate, Miss Margaret Rankin, Mrs. Byron Goodenough, Miss Carolyn Brown and Miss Maxine Goodenough furnished the music. Covers were placed at the Golden Pheasant for the members of the Beta Chi sorority. The centerpiece of the long table was in the shape of a heart and made of red and white armations. Lighted tapers and red and white favors added to the decorative motif. Miss Irma Oehler was the toastmistress and others on the program were: Miss Julia Fogelson, Miss Marjorie Waters, Miss Jessie May Ruhndorf and Miss Patricia Comany. . . .
