

Musicians To Give Concert

Many musical programs have been scheduled for Salem during the winter, but none will offer more interest than the one given at Waller hall on Monday night by Mary Schultz Duncan, violinist, and Clara Eness, pianist.

This is the first in the series of faculty recitals to be given this winter at Willamette university. The program will begin at 8:15 o'clock.

Their program will include numbers by Brahms, Chopin, Bach, Schubert and Estey. Probably the most interesting will be the sonata for piano and violin Opus 78 No. 1 by Brahms. The sonata includes three movements.

Neither Mrs. Duncan nor Miss Eness needs introduction to Salem audiences and their too infrequent public appearances are always looked forward to with eagerness by those who know their talents.

Mrs. Ramey Is Hostess

Mrs. H. C. Ramey entertained the members of the Pringle Women's club Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. L. Kottek and Mrs. R. Kottek assisted during the luncheon.

Those present were: Mesdames E. Klinger, R. Mohler, J. Robertson, P. O. Bowman, G. Adams, F. Wilsey, T. Wells, C. Fairley, F. Ramey, W. Schenkel, W. McCarrall, E. Webster, O. T. Sealey, O. Davis, C. Style-Smiles - - - by Gretchen

"Bill's a good-hearted soul but as far as he's concerned Emily Post's a branch of the American legion!"

If Bill is military-minded, aren't we all these days? Take the blouse worn by the lady pouring tea, for example. It's heavy white crepe, with severe little stand-up collar and with flap pockets marching down the front. Finely pleated bands occur at the neck and curved pockets of her guest's trim suit. The jacket buttons in a scalloped closing while the skirt flares slightly.

Wesleyan Guild At Church

The Wesleyan Service guild of Jason Lee church met Monday at the home of Mrs. Raynor Smith for dinner and party. Committee in charge of refreshments were Miss Josephine Frum, Esterlee McCabe, Gernele Lorenz and Mrs. Smith. Miss Jewel Brinkley furnished games for the group and Miss Mildred Yunker accompanied by Yvonne Gardner sang several solos. Others present were Miss Genevieve Morgan, Miss Bernice Brewster, Miss Wanda Kennedy, Miss Helen Hunter, Mrs. Gail Jones, Mrs. Roy Whitman, Mrs. Marie Putman, Miss Edythe J. Medley, Miss Wanda Gamble, Mrs. Nick Brinkley, Mrs. Loretta Kinney, Mrs. Louis Lorenz, Mrs. Junior Eckley, Miss Arlene Cummings, Mrs. Fred Klaus, Mrs. Clarence Collins, Mrs. Saul Janz, Mrs. A. E. Ullman, Mrs. E. L. Miller, Lella Butler, Viva Kitzmiller, Mrs. Dwight Lear, Miss Dorothy Klemple, Miss Naomi Rehfus, Miss Lulu Marshot, Miss Blanche Baumgartner, Miss Vida Miller, Miss Louise Erb, Mrs. Virginia Bradford, Miss Avis White, Miss June Lockwood, Miss Ethel Woolsey, Miss Marion Wilbur and Mrs. Raynor Smith.

Bridge Club at Collins Home

Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Collins were hosts Wednesday night at their studio apartment complimenting the members of their bridge club.

Those bidden were: Miss Marian Scott of Berkeley, California, and Dr. Ralph Purvine were special guests, Mr. and Mrs. A. Terrence King, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Needham, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goodfellow, Mr. and Mrs. James Hauge, Dr. and Mrs. Kimball Page and Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Collins.

Pattern

4379

At your home, at your desk, at work or at play, here's a trimly tailored dress you'll find ever so useful and becoming. Anne Adams has designed Pattern 4379, and she's given it unusual appeal in curving side bodice panels that are striking outlined with bright ric-rac. Another gay idea would be to make the bodice panels, the entire back bodice and the sleeves all in vivid contrast, giving a bolero effect. Bright buttons might match the ric-rac or contrast. And the collar is military-trim and very young—have it in contrast too if you like. See the flattering front and back skirt panels. All in all, a dress you really need!

Pattern 4379 is available in misses' and women's sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Size 16 takes 3 3/4 yards 35 inch fabric and 2 3/4 yards ric-rac.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly: SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

Now IS THE TIME to prepare for Spring, says Anne Adams about her NEW SPRING PATTERN BOOK which is now ready for you to order. It's alive with attractive styles including youth corner for tots, teens and twenties, evening-belle frocks, spring bridal finery, carnival costumes and gay prints. You will even find balanced styles for active-living matrons and charm-ship suggestions for forty-plusers. The look is fifteen cents but when ordered with a pattern, which is also fifteen cents, THE TWO TOGETHER ARE TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. Send your order to The Oregon Statesman, Pattern department.

Harrisons Will Be Honored

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Harrison of the First Methodist church, are being especially honored at an OSC banquet tonight in Portland. The affair is being given in recognition of Dr. George W. Peavey's service as president of the school.

Dr. Harrison as first president of organization will be seated with Mrs. Harrison at the head table. The Dad's club was organized by half a dozen men some years ago and had a membership of 300 at the end of its third year. At the first banquet, held in Corvallis, were seated 600 members and guests. The Harrisons have three daughters, all former students at Oregon State college.

Players Will Be Guests Monday

All regular Salem players at the Elks tournament on Tuesday night have been invited to an evening of play at the Elks club in McMinnville on Monday night. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Max Gunter at 9484, may leave from the Elks club here at 7 o'clock.

Winning in north and south on Tuesday night were Mrs. Hollis Huntington and Mrs. Erceel Kay, R. E. Pratt and Elmer Berg, Max Gunter and E. H. Jones. In east and west positions were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stump, Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Holton and Mrs. Bryan Goodenough and Mr. George Henderson.

De Molay Mothers At Steinbock's

Mrs. Mike Steinbock entertained the De Molay Mother's club yesterday at her home on Jervis avenue. A no-host luncheon was served. An arrangement of yellow and white daisies centered the table.

Those present were: Mrs. Glenn Sealey, Mrs. Max Schlessinger, Mrs. Frank Morgan, Mrs. George Huker, Mrs. Herman Lafkey, Mrs. L. M. Roach, Mrs. Robert Phillips, Mrs. C. L. Blodgett, Mrs. J. E. Van Wingen, Mrs. A. E. Utley and Mrs. Steinbock.

The members of the senior and junior classes of Willamette university will dance tonight at the Chamber of Commerce. The affair will be a no-date dance. Miss Ruth Briggs is in charge of arrangements.

Combination Is Found Good

A certain combination of foods takes on momentary interest and receives a good deal of publicity from home economic writers. Here's such a combination, mighty good even if you had discovered it for yourself. Try one or both, list them under "favorites" in your files.

First we find a baking powder bread, excellent to serve for afternoon tea or evening refreshment.

- #### BANANA BRAN BREAD
- 1/2 cup shortening
 - 1/2 cup sugar
 - 1 egg, well beaten
 - 1 cup bran cereal
 - 1 1/2 cup sifted flour
 - 2 teaspoons of baking powder
 - 1/4 teaspoon salt
 - 1/4 teaspoon soda
 - 1/2 cup chopped nuts
 - 1 1/2 cups mashed bananas
 - 2 tablespoons water
 - 1/2 teaspoon vanilla

Cream the shortening thoroughly, add the sugar gradually and continue creaming until the mixture is light. Add the beaten egg and beat well. Add the bran. Measure the sifted flour and sift again with the baking powder, salt and soda. Combine with the chopped nuts. Add to the first mixture alternately with the mashed bananas which have been mixed with the water. Stir in the vanilla and turn the mixture into a greased loaf tin. Allow to stand for one-half hour, then bake in a moderate oven 375 degrees for one hour. Cool and serve in slices, plain or lightly buttered.

Again the combination of bananas and bran appears, this time to top beef cakes to make them dressier. Ground round steak is no longer a meat to appear only between two buns as this recipe will prove.

BRANBURGER BANANA GRILL

- 1 pound ground beef
- 1 egg
- 2 tablespoons grated onion
- 1 tablespoon chopped parsley
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 cup milk
- 3/4 cup shredded bran
- 8 strips bacon
- 4 peeled firm bananas
- Melted butter

Mix beef, salt, egg and seasonings. Add milk to bran and soak five minutes. Combine two mixtures and form into eight patties about an inch thick, wrapping each with strip of bacon. Arrange on a hot grill.
