Woman's Club at Dallas Observes Federation's Golden Jubilee With Patriotic Program; B. Bell Talks

DALLAS—At the February meeting of the Dallas Woman's club held at Library hall Tuesday afternoon a special program in observance of the golden jubilee of the General Federation of Women's clubs and also a patriotic program was presented.

Various women's patriotic groups of Dallas had been invited to the meeting with members from the D.A.R., auxiliary of the American Legion, auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Ladies of the G.A.R. Also present were members of the Monmouth Civic club and the local junior woman's club.

Especially honored at the meeting was Mrs. J. G. Van Orsdel, charter member of the Dallas Woman's club, who was chosen as the pioneer club woman of the local club in connection with the golden jubilee of the General Federation. She was escorted to a place of honor at the beginning of the meeting.

The program consisted of the following numbers announced by Mrs. J. Paul Bollman, president of the club: two piano solos by Miss Elizabeth Boylan of Salem; vocal solos by Raymond Van Dyke accompanied by Clara K. Robb; minuet by Sharon Hall and Teddy Swensen and tap dance by Flora Gay De Forest of Monmouth, students of Mrs. Dorothy Craven, Mrs. Harold Holm acted as accompanist.

Mrs. Charles Bilyeu, chairman of the Golden Jubilee observance for the Dallas club and past president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, was introduced and had charge of the remainder of the program. This included the presentation of a corsage and gift to Mrs. T. G. Van Orsdel; response by Mrs. Van Orsdel; talk by Mrs. George T. Gerlinger of Portland, former president of the Dallas club; brief talk by Mrs. Bilyeu on the progress of women in the past 50 years and of chan-
