Recruiting Case

Sixteen persons were rounded up by federal men in Detroit February 7, charged with recruiting 400 Americans, mostly mid-west unemployed, to fight in the communist-supported Spanish republican army during the 1936-38 civil war. Pictured is Mary Paige, alleged communist, the one woman in the group which included three doctors and a Michigan communist leader. Similar investigations were under way in Milwaukee and Chicago.—IIN photo.

Interest Topic For Civic Club

Women Not Admitted in Organization at Mt. Angel

MT. ANGEL—The question of whether women would be admitted to the Mt. Angel Civic club was brought up at the meeting of the organization in the city hall Tuesday night and passed on negatively for the time being. The matter will be voted on again at a later date. It was agreed, however, that women would be free to come to the meetings as guests.

All future meetings will be held in the city hall. The club is constantly growing, each meeting bringing in new applications for membership.

The discussion of PUD was discontinued pending information from the Bonneville administration.

Memorial Service Given by Rebekahs

DALLAS—A meeting of the Al-mira Rebekah lodge was held Tuesday night.

An impressive memorial service was held for Mrs. Emma Koser, Mrs. I. G. McBoe and Glenn Butler, departed members. Those taking part in the ceremony were Mrs. Elmer Schulson, Mrs. Henry Friesen, Mrs. Florence Hunter and Mrs. Roy Alderson.

Miss Violet Larson, who was unable to be present at the regular installation service, was installed as treasurer Tuesday night.

The program included two numbers by the girls trio from the junior high school, Delores Krewson, Helen McPetridge and Alice Wall under the direction of Raymond Van Dyke; two guitar numbers by Delores Byrns; vocal solo, Delores Krewson; piano solo, Lloyd Domaschofsky and vocal solo, Leocanna Severson. A supper hour followed. Refreshments were served to 72 members and guests. The committee in charge included Mrs. Mary Starr, Mrs. Carl E. Graves, Frank Coad and Albert Burelbach.

Special School Meeting Called

MIDDLE GROVE—A special school meeting is called for Tuesday night, February 13, at the schoolhouse to decide as to the disposal of the old school building.

The Amitle club scheduled to meet with Mrs. George Plane on Tuesday night, February 13, will meet on Thursday night, February 15, instead.
