Submit Briefs—Attorneys for each side in the case of Union Pacific and other railroads vs. Ormond R. Bean as public utility commissioner will submit arguments in briefs rather than state them orally in court as a result of a decision by Circuit Judge L. G. Lewelling. The number of interested parties, which includes representatives of more than 150 intervening truck lines, water transport companies, and the teamsters' union, appeared to the court to make oral arguments an unwieldy means of trying the case.

In Jail Again—Without Shoes

Once more the private life of Movie Comedian Stan Laurel and his estranged wife, Illeana, comes before the public as Illeana is virtually dragged into a Los Angeles jail on suspicion of drunk charges after a merry chase—and without her shoes. She was taken into custody after an irate cab driver claimed she would not pay a $12.50 bill.

$250,000 Paid on 1940 Income Tax

More than $240,000 of 1940 state income taxes were collected during the first 12 days of February, members of the state tax commission reported here yesterday. The 1940 income taxes are based on 1939 incomes.

January collections aggregated $113,000. The deadline for filing 1940 income tax returns is April 1. After that date both interest and penalty accrue. Second installment collections are due October 1.

Tax department officials said the collections so far this year were nearly double those for the corresponding period in 1939. This year's income tax collections were expected to total $5,400,000, or more than $1,000,000 in excess of the amount collected last year.

Centennial Group to Check Reports

The executive committee of the Salem Centennial commission will meet at the chamber of commerce at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon to consider committee appointments, hear reports from program and finance committees and interview an applicant for the job of directing the celebration pageant, Mayor W. W. Chadwick, president, announced yesterday.

Officers of the commission met yesterday and drafted a list of committee recommendations. Miss Doris Smith, professional pageant director, is the applicant for the commission's opening here. She has handled such presentations as the pageant given in connection with Eugene's Trail-to-Rail celebration.

Professor Thompson also led round table discussions for professional religious workers, addressed a mass meeting of Hi-Y club leaders, and spoke to several service clubs.

RED EARTH

spoke, "but you didn't know how really versatile I am. The making of masks, for example, has long been a hobby of mine, and I rather flatter myself that this one, inspired by Alison Neole's fat cook, has earned a fame of its own along the border."
Admirably Bodine turned his hideous mask until Douglas could see that it was hollow and so fashioned of papier-mache that its wearer could look out through the wide, grinning mouth while the great head itself towered fully a foot higher.
"So you were looking for me, eh?" Bodine asked.
"I was looking for the Yellow Killer—and I find you."
"I am delighted to accommodate you so handsly. But step back into my studio here. I have still another surprise."

758 Enrolled at Willamette now

Registration at Willamette university had reached 758 students yesterday, according to the figures released by Walter Erickson, registrar. This figure compared with last year's registration of 746 at a similar time is very high and registration is expected to set an all-time high for second semester records.

Among this total are 230 freshmen, 210 sophomores, 132 juniors, 108 seniors, 36 law students, 27 graduate students, and 15 special students. Among the new students that had not been registered in the previous semester were 10 new freshmen, four new transfers, eight students that had been registered previously, five special students, three graduate students and one law student.

The registrar's office at present is making out the grade slips and soon the students will be receiving the official result of their last semester's work.

Moderator to Speak Tonight

Head of Presbyterians to Be Honored, Talk at Night Meeting

Tonight at 7 o'clock, Dr. Samuel Higginbottom, moderator of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, will be the speaker at the popular meeting at the First Presbyterian church here. This service is open to the public.

Preceding the moderator's talk, a banquet will be held at 6 o'clock and a reception at 4 in the afternoon, with Dr. and Mrs. Higginbottom, Governor and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Dr. M. A. Chappel of New York, Rev. Robert Prentiss, moderator of the Willamette assembly and Mrs. Prentiss in the receiving line.

Mrs. Higginbottom has been a co-worker with her husband in Allahabad, India, and was connected with the Naini leper asylum for 34 years. She has been decorated by the British government several times.
The meeting will begin promptly at 7 o'clock, because Dr. Higginbottom must make railroad connections immediately following the address. The senior choir of the Presbyterian church will sing "Gloria in Excelsis" as part of the service tonight.

R. H. C. Bennett Runs, Legislature

R. H. C. Bennett of Newberg, who was one of the leaders in the republican minority of the 1937 house of representatives, filed on Tuesday for republican nomination as a Yamhill county representative. He ran for the senate two years ago but was defeated by veteran Senator Burke.

Two other candidates filed here yesterday: R. C. Frisbie, republican, for representative from 27th district, Baker county.

J. M. Blank, Canyon City, incumbent, for republican nomination for district attorney of Grant county.
