Dallas Pythians Have Homecoming

25-Year Jewel Presented van Orsdel; 70 Attend Roll Call Meeting

DALLAS — The annual roll call and homecoming meeting of the Marmon lodge, Knights of Pythias, was held here Tuesday night with more than 70 members and visitors present.

The principal speaker was Floyd D. Moore of Portland, member and past chancellor of Marmon lodge. Moore discussed the benefits of lodge affiliation.

A 25-year veteran jewel was presented R. Van Orsdel. The presentation was made by John R. Sibley.

Musical numbers on the program included two selections on the accordion by Clark Robb and numbers by the Dallas Junior high school girls' trio, Delores Krewson, Helen McFetridge and Alice Wall accompanied by Lloyd Domaschotaky.

Distinguished guests present included Elmer Patrick of Corvallis, vice-grand chancellor; Walter Gleason of Portland, grand keeper of the records and seals; Doc Patterson of Vancouver, Washington, member of the Marmon lodge and superintendent of the Oregon-Washington Pythian home.

The meeting Tuesday night marked the 35th anniversary of the founding of the local lodge. A brief history of the lodge was given by Al Lynch, charter member. Two other charter members were present: George L. Hawkins and Charles D. Porrette, sr.

Refreshments were served following the lodge meeting with Glenn Wick, Wilbur Morian and Ed Campbell in charge.

Linemen Race for Tiny Life

Mrs. Oscar Sullivan of Eaton, Colo., gazed happily at her son (lower photo) when a linemen crew (top) finished a top-speed job of stringing half a mile of power line to the Sullivan home so the baby, weighing 3 pounds, 12 ounces at birth, could have an electric incubator to aid his survival.

Last Minute Moos

Hear ye! Hear ye! If it's Borden's it's got to be good! This Borden "quality control" scarcely leaves us cows a bit of privacy. Inspections, baths, diet regulation, publicity—aah, see love it all. And we play up to it with good rich milk, which the Borden people evaporate, irradiate and place in cans.
