Various Measures Talked to Force Settlement of Orient Strife By ANDRUE BERDING

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.-(AP)-Believing time is on its side, the administration is waiting for Japan to come through with a satisfactory settlement in the far east. On the shelf are a variety of Pandora's boxes from which administration leaders could release blasts against Japan. The abrogation of the 1911 commercial treaty with Japan placed them there, but there is no pres-
