Wedding Service Is Read

Miss Ruth Whitney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Whitney KGW, 8:30 a.m. — Music and ord for the 100-foot breast stroke. was married to Mr. Edwin Burton on Sunday. The wedding was read by Rev. Wiley Weathers at the home of the bride's parents on route 1. Pussywillows and greenery were used to decorate the rooms.

The bride wore her mother's wedding dress and a fingertip weil. She carried an arm bouquet of roses. Miss Irene Cutler attended the bride as maid-of-honor, and Mr. Tom Burton acted as best man for his brother.

Miss Genevieve Winslow played the wedding march. A reception followed the ceremony. The wedding cake served as a centerpiece for the table. Mrs. Barbara Focht, Mrs. Vivian Burton and Miss Genevieve Wins- Finale to the Concerto in G minor ... low assisted in serving.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS If you stay in bed until the last minute (and who doesn't!) here's the style for you! Anne Adams' Pattern 4171 is as becoming as it is convenient. Decorative buttoning goes clear down the front to let you in and out in a hurry. The princess seams that curve at the top, like flower stems, are quick to stitch and give you lithesome, slim lines. Even the neckline is gayly scallopedged. The illustrated Sewing Instructor will show you how simple-to-make this frock is. Why not use a smart linen or shantung . . or choose a flower-printed cotton. For extra charm, consider adding lovely leaf appliques in brilliant hues, as shown in the small sketch. Pattern 4171 is available in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and Sise 16 takes 81/2 yards 35

The thirteenth annual Fernhoppers' banquet given by the forestry department was held last Saturday night in the Memorial Union with 650 students and guests in attendance. The banquet hall decorations appropriately consisted of greenery and a 16foot Paul Bunyan with his legendary blue ox. Glimpsed among the enthusiastic participants were Gordon Black, Earl Warren, Kenneth Clark and George Huffman.

Yesterday's activities concluded the combined celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the school of home economics at Oregon State and the tenth annual home interest conference. Some 1200 persons from many parts of the country were on the campus for the affair.
