LeGarie to Make Try for Council

Will Oppose Dr. Laughlin, Who Beat Him in '38; Tells Platform

Lloyd F. LeGarie, former councilman who lost out to Dr. S. B. Laughlin for the post, announced yesterday he would again seek a second ward council job in opposition to Laughlin.

LeGarie, first council candidate who has issued a statement with his declaration of candidacy, said "various groups have contacted me personally and by telephone requesting that I enter my name as alderman from the second ward."

LeGarie's statement said the reason for the requests "appears to be the desire of many taxpayers and businessmen that a representative taxpayer and business man be in a position to assist in solving the many problems involving the expenditure of taxpayers' money, which are constantly before the council."

Referring to the mayor's committee to study changes in Salem's governmental system, LeGarie said he would be largely influenced by the committee's decisions, but will "reserve judgment... keeping in mind at all times that this is a problem which the voters must ultimately decide for themselves."

$100-a-Month Pension Asked

State Bank Would Supply Funds Under Measure Filed at Capitol

One hundred dollar a month pensions for persons over 50 years old would be provided through establishment of a state-owned bank, under provisions of a preliminary petition for an initiative measure filed in the state department here yesterday by the Oregon Retirement Payments league. The league's headquarters are in Portland.

The measure provides for the creation of the "peoples state bank of Oregon," which would receive a $100,000,000 credit and a $1,000,000 appropriation from the general fund.

Persons earning $100 a month or more would not be eligible for pension. Persons earning less than that amount would receive security retirement pensions sufficient to increase their monthly income to $100.

Persons receiving the pension would return 5 per cent of it to the bank. Payments would have to be spent within 60 days and recipients would not have to deed their property to the state.

The governor, secretary of state and state treasurer would serve as directors of the bank, and would select an administrator who would receive a salary of $7000 a year. The directors also would appoint an economic production of Oregon commodities and establish a radio station.

All public funds would be deposited in the bank and private depositors would receive 2 per cent interest. Interest on commercial loans would be at the rate of 3 per cent.

The bank would pay consumers 3 per cent and retailers 1 per cent on every dollar's worth of Oregon-produced goods purchased with bank credit.

In case a sufficient number of signatures are obtained the measure will go on the ballot at the November election.

Petitions for two other pension measures are in circulation.

Brown Upheld In UCC Ruling

Kubins Lose Claim; $125 Damages Are Granted Waller by Court

Judge L. G. Lewelling yesterday upheld Lawrence Brown, referee in a suit instituted against the state unemployment compensation commissioner by Ernest F. and Edwin L. Kubin in a decision in favor of the commission.

Plaintiffs had asked benefits from employment in logging operations by Fred E. Rittner, and Brown's judgment was that the claimants were independent contractors and not employees.

Judge L. H. Mahan gave judgment for $125 to T. B. Waller as against Robert M. Parkinson for damages arising out of an automobile accident on Pringle road September 23, 1939.
