A recent survey of students at Hunter college revealed that the undergraduate woman is a smart, well rounded person, with wholesome and good cultural ideas. She listens to a symphony music, prefers such actors as Helen Hayes and Katharine Cornell, enjoys watching Paul Muni and Bette Davis on the screen.

She chooses as the greatest living man and woman, "Wuthering Heights" as the best film and "Grapes of Wrath" as the favorite book.

Contrary to general opinion, life, politics, arts and philosophy are favorite topics of conversation, rather than clothes and men.

Most girls report hearty appetites, with steak their favorite food and a majority express an interest in food. The girl selected as the prettiest senior received a high B average through her college course, though she was socially active through the four years.

The girl chosen as most popular senior, besides being that, plans to be married in May and will receive a master's degree in speech in June.

At one of the New York libraries it was reported that of the almost ten thousand books taken out by college students for home use, non-fiction led four to one. Use of the library increased 40 per cent in the past year according to the librarian's report for 1939.

The Spring Valley home missionary society will meet on Thursday with Mrs. Charles McChatter, Mrs. C. L. Gibson and Mrs. Al Pinton will assist the hostess.

Choir Guests at Marks Home

Assisting the hostess in serving will be Mary Hughes, Anabel Moon and Vivian Benner.

Nebraskans Have Spelling Bee

An old-fashioned spelling bee will be a feature of the next meeting of the Nebraska club of Salem at the Knights of Pythias hall, 248 North Commercial street, Friday night at 8 o'clock. There will be a short program.

All former Nebraska residents and their friends are invited.

Style-Smiles --- by Gretchen

"You don't lose friends by lending money. It's only when you expect it back!"

The girl who learned about lending has also learned the joys of a basic black dress. She can alternate those lingerie touches, if she likes, with costume jewelry. Shiny black buttons run down the bodice, curving away to outline the pockets of her flared skirt. Buttons play a major role on the grey tweed suit at right. They skip down the front closing in couples and accent the twin pockets on each side.
