

Legion Women Honor Couple

Lewis Given Going-Away Gift by Silverton Unit Monday

MT. ANGEL—The Mt. Angel Legion auxiliary will celebrate the Legion's birthday with a party and program at the next meeting Tuesday, March 19. Mrs. Cecil Lucht is in charge of the program. The birthday cake will be baked and decorated by Mrs. Anna Leonard. Plans were completed at the meeting Tuesday night.

Another food sale has been arranged for the Saturday before Easter. Mrs. Frank Durshmidt, who has offered to bake roses for the occasion, is asking the assistance of some members in the work.

An Easter egg hunt is again planned for Saturday afternoon for Legion children 10 years and younger. If the weather is nice the hunt will be conducted on the Fred Prosser lawn, otherwise in the Memorial building. Mrs. Cletus Butsch, junior chairman, reported on the flag presentation made by the Juniors to the Harmony school. The presentation was made by June Ann Lucht, secretary of the junior auxiliary. A talk on Americanization and the flag code was made by Mrs. Butsch.

Auxiliary members were requested to write letters to congressmen asking for legislation against war. Miss Georgia Webb announced that she had completed assembling the auxiliary quilt and that members would gather at the Memorial hall Wednesday and Thursday afternoons to do the quilting.

The Legion stated Tuesday night that the $100 for the post colors had been raised. The prize of $25 was won by Bill Birchett.

The post received a request for the loan of the Legion hall for boxing matches. Most of the members frowned on the matter but a committee consisting of Dr. E. J. Corcoran, Joe Faulhaber, and Walter Cain, was asked to inquire further and report at the next meeting.
