Sodalities Hear Talk on Parole

Mason, Keene, Speakers at Joint Meeting of Mt. Angel Club

MT. ANGEL—Gerry Mason, member of the parole board, and R. S. Keene, Willamette coach, were speakers at a joint meeting of the Young Men's and Young Ladies' sodalities here Monday night.

Keene spoke briefly on the advantages enjoyed by the group as compared with most of the boys and girls who find themselves in the prisons and reform schools. Mason's talk was a lengthy but interesting one based on parole and probation and the reasons that bring young people into the house of correction. His accounts of various cases were alive with human interest.

After the program the sodalities held a short business session in which it was agreed to send five delegates to the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine convention being held in Portland, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, March 9, 10 and 11. All members are invited to attend the rally slated for Sunday afternoon.

The suggestion of Rev. Michael Fleming of Canby to hold joint meetings of the young people's clubs of Woodburn, Salem and Mt. Angel was accepted by the Mt. Angel sodalities and the first such meeting will be held sometime after Easter. A 20-minute entertainment featuring dramatics, elocution or public speaking must be given by each town. Mt. Angel selected dramatics as its choice. A social hour will wind up these meetings.
