

Four in Linn Sheriff Race

Two File as Candidates for Treasurer of County

ALBANY—Mike Southard, former deputy sheriff of Linn county, has filed his intentions of being a candidate at the May primaries for the office of sheriff. Southard has served as deputy sheriff for several years.

Herbert Shelton, present Linn county sheriff, is also a candidate for reelection. He has held the office for the past four terms. Jess Moss, Lebanon, is also a candidate for the office, as is Albert Julian, Lyons. The latter is a republican. Another republican to file for this office is E. C. McClain.

Two candidates so far have filed for treasurer. They are Gladys McKnight, republican, and Grover C. Nance, democrat and present holder of the office. Miss McKnight, a daughter of former County Judge D. B. McKnight, is a former Albany school teacher.

Ed Bilyeu, democrat, and Claude Smith, republican, have filed for the office of county commissioner to succeed H. W. Cooley. The latter has not declared his intention to be a candidate to succeed himself.

Two offices so far are uncontested. That of county coroner, for which E. J. Fisher, incumbent, is the only one to have filed, and county recorder for which Stella Hoover, also present holder, is the only candidate so far. Miss Hoover and Fisher are both republicans.

Veto Threatened, Flood Bill Boost

WASHINGTON, March 14—(AP)—On the eve of a meeting of the National Rivers and Harbors congress, a private organization which devotes its energies to getting government money for waterway projects, President Roosevelt informed three senators Wednesday that congress should not authorize any more such undertakings at this session.

Chairman Bailey (D-NC) of the senate commerce committee, and Senators Sheppard (D-Tex) and McNary (R-Ore), committee members, discussed the matter with Mr. Roosevelt at a White House conference. Bailey said the president believed enough authorizations for flood control and river and harbor projects had been piled up for the next two or three years.

The house had approved a bill authorizing projects estimated to cost $83,848,100, and a senate commerce subcommittee raised to total $407,855,600. Bailey informed the committee that congress was in no mood to accept such a bill, and the president would veto it even if it passed.

Neutral Mail at Bermuda Passed

HAMILTON, Bermuda, March 14—(AP)—Only mail addressed to Germany was removed for censoring from the Yankee clipper yesterday upon arrival of the last eastbound Pan-American plane to stop in Bermuda.

The chief censor explained that mail addressed to neutrals was not removed, as heretofore, because of lack of time.

The German mail amounted to six bags containing 300 pounds.

Makes Fishing Kit

INDEPENDENCE — Maurice Beal of Portland, son of Dr. H. W. Beal of Independence, has invented a kit which will be known as a "Kreel-Kit" for fishing baskets and has received his first order to manufacture them from a mail order house. The kit is light weight and has compartments for all fishing accessories. Beal is a former Independence resident.

Brain Truster and His Bride

One of the New Deal's "brain trusters," Thomas G. Corcoran, 39, is pictured in Washington with his bride, the former Margaret J. Dowd, who has been his secretary for seven years. Corcoran's official post in the Roosevelt administration is that of special counsel of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

FDR Held Joining Stop Dewey Drive

NEW YORK, March 14—(AP)—J. Russell Sprague, manager of Thomas E. Dewey's presidential campaign, issued a statement tonight asserting that President Roosevelt had "joined the stop-Dewey movement."

He referred to the fact that Sprague's statement, issued in Washington after lunching with the president that Mr. Roosevelt had agreed with him that Dewey could expect no better than the republican vice-presidential nomination.

"It is becoming clear who it is that the president is most afraid of. He has joined the stop-Dewey movement. And it is a curious coincidence that Mr. Roosevelt should join the stop-Dewey movement the day after nationwide publication of a poll of delegates to the 1936 republican national convention which showed Mr. Dewey leading all other candidates for the presidential nomination and having almost a clear majority."

NLRB Defenders Buck Amendments

WASHINGTON, March 14—(AP)—Defenders of the Wagner labor act began an attack in force on the proposed Smith committee amendments but they simultaneously indicated willingness to accept less drastic changes.

Senator Wagner (D-NY), author of the labor relations statute, took the senate floor to declare that the Smith amendments would make the act a "concrete weapon for the oppression of labor."

While opposing the plan of the special house investigating committee to abolish the present labor board and replace it with a new one, Wagner said he would gladly vote to add two members to the present three-man body because of its heavy duties.

At the same time Chairman Norton (D-NH) indicated that the house labor committee would probably recommend some changes in the labor law. The labor committee, to which the Smith proposals have been referred, decided to begin considering them and other proposed amendments next Tuesday.

A Promise kept for 3 Generations

Why you can be sure of fresh-tasting foods in Stokely's Finest

Years ago, on a farm in Tennessee, Mrs. Anna Stokely and her sons grew prize-crop vegetables that were the envy of folks for miles around.

Then they started to put up these vegetables and developed a "fresh-tasting" process which gave the vegetables such a true garden-freshness, they couldn't supply the demand.

Urged to buy and can other vegetables, Mrs. Stokely stubbornly refused. "Promise me now," she said to her sons, "that only prize-quality vegetables will be put up under Stokely's name."

That promise has been kept faithfully through the years. Today, because of this woman's stubbornness about quality, you can enjoy the country's prize quality vegetables and fruits put up the home-style Stokely way.

Ask for Stokely's Finest. The Stokely label is your guarantee of highest quality canned foods.

Tokyo Attributes Finn Peace to US

TOKYO, March 14—(Thursday)—(AP)—The newspaper Asahi indicated today its belief that the United States ambassador to Moscow, Laurence Steinhardt, had arranged the Russo-Finnish peace because the United States hoped, thereby, to free the USSR for continued pressure on Japan.

"Despite Secretary Hull's den-al, there are signs that the American ambassador mediated between Finland and the soviets," said Asahi. "Why did the United States find it undesirable for the red army to continue its hard struggle in Finland? Perhaps because it was thus incapable of turning its attention in other directions."

Vernacular newspapers agreed Russia's far-eastern policy was an important element in the peace, and predicted the soviet union now would increase its opposition to the Japanese-sponsored regime in China of Wang Ching-Wei.

Has to Convince Authorities His Rites Untimely

SEATTLE, March 14—(AP)—Seventy-year-old Peter Pickert visited the morgue here and convinced authorities that the funeral they were arranging wasn't his.

After an aged man was killed by an automobile Sunday, acquaintances said it was Pickert.

At his home address, coroner's deputies found Pickert had been missing several days. Friends were notified and preliminary funeral arrangements made for Pickert. His name was on the death certificate.

Pickert returned today. To astounded friends he explained that he had just left home for a few days after receiving his March pension check.

West Gets Contract
WASHINGTON, March 14—(AP)—

9000 Swedes Fight

STOCKHOLM, March 14—(AP)—The Swedish committee for Finnish aid disclosed for the first time last night that 9,000 Swedish volunteers were in Finland when the war closed. Five thousand more volunteered in recent days.

The navy awarded a contract today to Morrill and Sturgeon Lumber company, Portland, Ore., for white pine, $21,322.
