Allowed to Stay

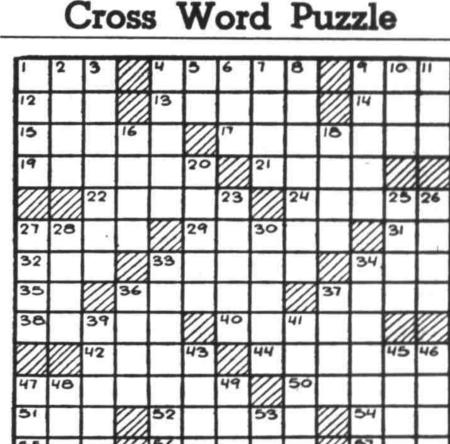

Chow Gum Sik, 22 year old Chinese beauty, held 10 months in San Francisco by immigration men because she was unable to identify a picture of her USborn father, won a year long battle recently to enjoy the freedom of the US. The attorney general's office in Washington ordered dismissal of the government's appeal after a federal court decision allowing her to remain over the protest of the immigration department. Hopes High

Harry M. Blosdale, jailed at Los Angeles after fingerprints taken for a civil service job revealed him to be a fugitive from a Florida chain gang, wore this smile of high hope after being informed Governor Culbert L. Olson had announced that he was convinced Bloodsle had been subjected to cruel and unusual punishment and showld not be extradited.
