

Stayton High To Give Play

Seniors Choose Three-Act Farce for Thursday, Friday Nights

STAYTON—A three-act farce by John Hershey, entitled, "Cheese Cottage," will be presented by the seniors of the Stayton high school on the nights of April 25 and 26 in the high school auditorium.

The play is under the direction of Maxine Henrichs, who is also senior class advisor. Officers of the senior class are: president, Steven Proctor; vice-president, Velma Yeoman; and secretary-treasurer, Darel Lewis.

The following is the cast: Gus Hinkle, the head of the family, Dick Schuetz; Mrs. Mortimer, a wealthy widow, Erma Darby; two daughters, Evelyn Hinkle, Velma Yeoman, and Judith Hinkle, Genevieve Whelan; Aunt Lis, Margaret Lucas; J. Orville Spencer, real estate agent, Darel Lewis; Bart Renfalee, young plumber, Cloyd Harrell; Uncle Cooney, Gus' big brother, Wallace Humphrey, and Alma Carlay, bathing beauty, Rosella Bell.

Boy Chosen
STAYTON—Billy Fair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fair of Stayton, has been selected by the Stayton Lions club as the young man who will spend a week at the Beaver state boys' camp to be held at the Hill Military academy in Portland sometime in August. He is a freshman in high school and is one of the Boy Scouts who are up for Eagle Scout ratings in May. The Stayton post of the American Legion will also send a boy to the camp. Last year the Lions club sent Robert Bennett and the American Legion sponsored Raymond Rauscher of Sublimity.

The subject of a memorial building for Stayton was brought up by the president of the Lions club, V. R. Tuel, at the regular meeting. It was explained that there is $6000 available from county funds for such buildings.

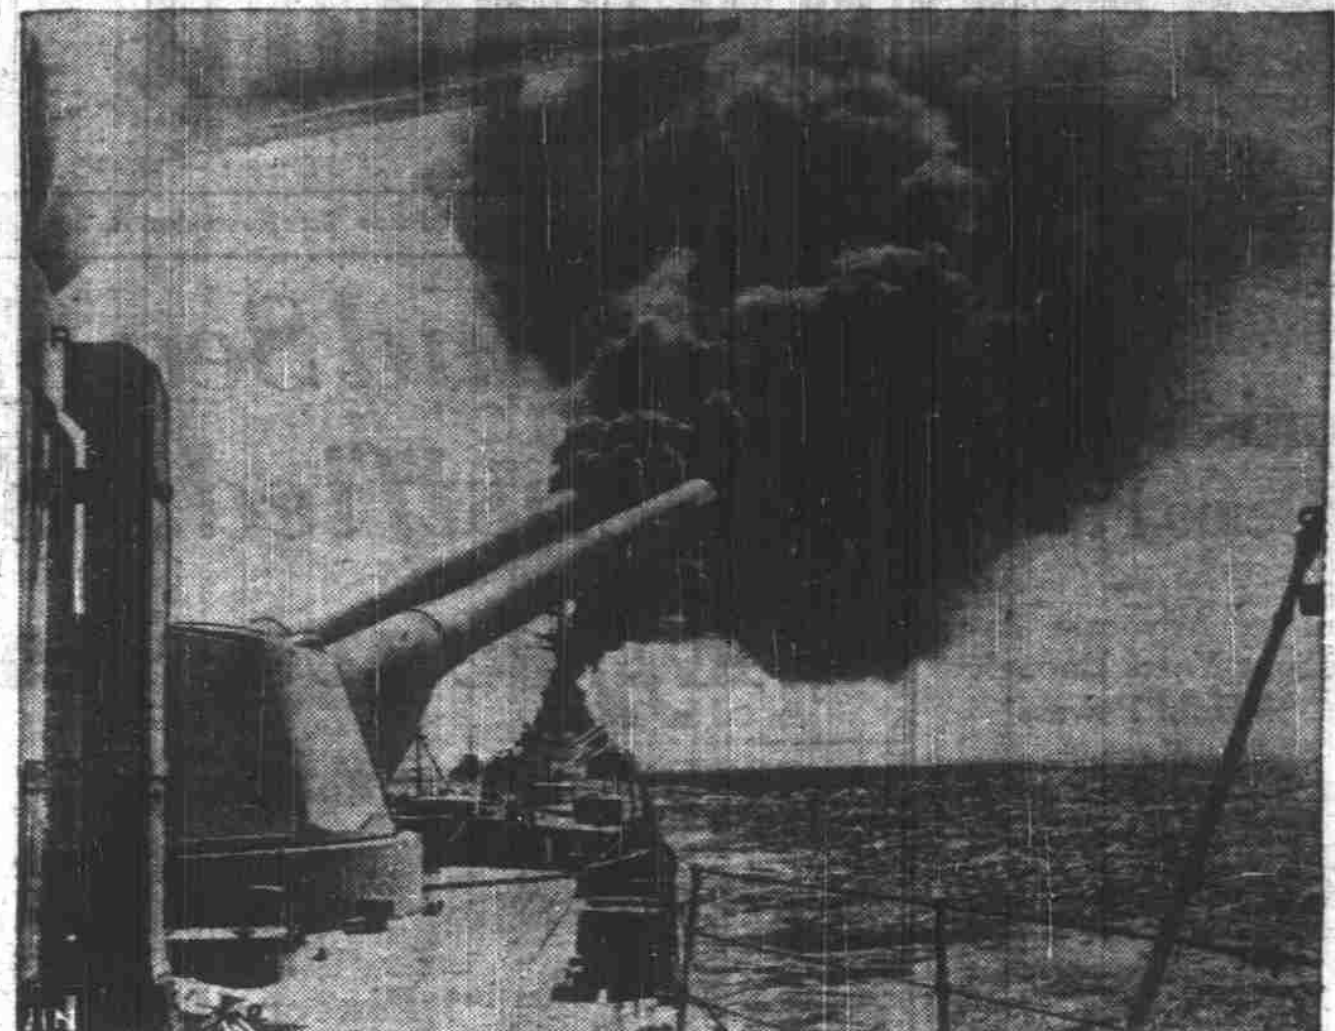

In discussing the project it was decided that the best method would be to get several clubs, together with the city council, to get the new building after the project was investigated. According to reports, that money is set aside every year by the county for such purposes.

Go to McMinnville From Dayton Farm

DAYTON—Mr. and Mrs. Guy Remme, who have had charge of the Stewart farm near Dayton the last four years, moved Monday to the Sunset dairy near McMinnville. Their two daughters will attend school here until the close of the term. Mr. and Mrs. Remme came to Dayton from Adrian, Minn., four years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. John Loefflein who came to Oregon City from Richardson, ND, six months ago are the new managers of the Stewart farm.

British Guns now Roaring off Norwegian Coast

These big British naval guns were firing during the Battle of Norway in 1940. It's a different story as the British navy pits its strength against the German men of war.

Music Week Plans Progressing

Committees Named At Independence Grangers' News Mill City Gets Rate Reduction

CHEMUNAWA—Candidates for political positions will be guests at the Chemunawa grange Wednesday night at the social night program. Each will be invited to speak briefly. Grange women will bring pie and cake for refreshments.

The HEC will meet all day at the grange hall Wednesday. Thursday night Paul Winslow's orchestra will play for the grangers' dance.

TALBOT—A social meeting was enjoyed at the Ankeny grange hall Saturday night. The grange voted to hold only one business meeting a month, the first Saturday of the month. The next meeting will be an open meeting. Several candidates were present and gave brief talks.

MACLEAY—A large crowd attended the grange social held Saturday night. During the program hour Mrs. H. E. Martin, sr., gave a group of comic readings.

Martin Loken, 81, Dies at Silverton

SILVERTON—Martin Loken, 81, died at the Silverton hospital Saturday night shortly before midnight. He had been taken to the hospital critically ill earlier in the week.

Survivors are one son, Guy Loken of Denver, Col.; two daughters, Aithlea Ingebrigtsen and Margaret Carlson of Portland. Funeral services are in charge of Larson and Son at Silverton.

Building Hatchery At Liberty

LIBERTY—Roy Farrand is building an 18 by 20 foot hatchery on his poultry farm. It will have cement floor and modern equipment including electric incubator. For the present he will work with an oil brooder, but plans to install all electric equipment later. He plans to hatch for his own use in his poultry business.

Dayton Methodists Have Luncheon

DAYTON—About 40 members and friends of the Dayton Methodist Sunday school attended covered dish luncheon served at the church Wednesday night. A moving picture of European scenery taken several years ago while he and his wife made trip was given by Hira Ellis of Salem.

Marion Group Gives Program, West Stayton

WEST STAYTON—The community club met Friday night at the school house with Marion Community club giving the program. A short talk was given by Harley Libby. Community singing was led by Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson of Marion and a varied program was presented.

Townsend Club to Meet

AUMSVILLE—The Townsend club will meet Thursday night at the Godlove hall. A discussion regarding electing a delegate to send to the national convention, to be held in June at St. Louis, will be a feature of the business meeting.

Auburn Club Has Election

Mrs. St. Clair Will Head Community Group; 4H Clubs Give Program

AUBURN—The Auburn Community club met at the school house Friday night. Officers were elected for the coming year as follows: Mrs. John St. Clair, president; Carl Krobbe, vice-president; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. John Olson. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Massey and Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Hawkins were in charge of the program and refreshments. Ben Hawkins in an Uncle Ezra costume announced the program.

Hubert Asplund of Hazel Green, sang several numbers. Several orchestra numbers were given by L. C. Priem, guitar; Lawrence Winkenwerder, guitar; E. J. Winkenwerder, banjo uke; W. T. Van Slyke, violin; George J. Veall, cello, and C. G. Lawrence, clarinet. E. J. Winkenwerder, Lawrence Winkenwerder, L. C. Priem and W. T. Van Slyke sang.

After the musical program the 4H clubs gave a program as follows: Cooking demonstration, Dorothy Herschfeld and June Stowell; mistress of ceremonies, Stella Tuson, flag salute, led by James Webb; club pledge, song by girls of 4H clubs; skit by Merry Mixers, Claralyn Lee, Mayetta Sutter, Betty Lou Dickenson and Jacqueline St. Clair; health song by health club; skit, Lorraine Parmenter, Robert Gismar, Pauline Miller and Betty Jean Klempel; talk, Virginia Payne, song; parody; demonstration of artificial respiration, Bobby Melvin, John Truitt and Allen Lambert.

Six 4H clubs have been active in the Auburn school the past year, their work was on exhibit.

Funeral Is Held For Lena Gatens

DALLAS—Mrs. Lena M. Gatens, Dallas resident for many years, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Lender, at Ocean Lake Friday night. Mrs. Gatens is the wife of the late James J. Gatens.

Funeral services were held here Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the Gatens' home on Ash street. The Ladies of the GAR were in charge of the service. Interment was at the Fernridge cemetery near Seal Rock, where her husband is also buried.

Surviving are two sons, Francis J. Gatens of South Bend, Wash., and Felix E. Gatens of Tillamook; two daughters, Mrs. Evelyn M. Brenner of Salem and Mrs. Eleana Linder of Ocean Lake. Ten grandchildren and two great-grandchildren survive.

Mt. Angel Farm Union Warehouse

In one of the largest transactions made at Mt. Angel in several years, the Schmalz Warehouse (above) was recently bought by the Farmers Union local and became the Mt. Angel Farmers Union Warehouse Cooperative.

Arrangements for Stayton, Vicinity Will Be Conducted by Mrs. J. F. Lau

STAYTON—Mrs. J. F. Lau of Stayton has been chosen chairman for Stayton and vicinity for National Music week which will be observed this year from May 5 to 11. She will cooperate with organizations or other groups planning musical programs for that week.

The national committee for American music has chosen as its keynote, "promote American music." In addition a special keynote is selected each year, which may be repeated for one year only, if there is a demand for its repetition. This has been done with the 1939 keynote, "support local group activities," in response to the wishes of local chairmen throughout the nation, and this keynote has been announced as the theme for the 1940 observance.

Dr. Edmund Spaeth, chairman of the national committee, is preparing a list of American contemporary music which is to be released soon. Copies will be available through the National Music week committee. Mrs. Lau will be notified when the list is completed. Dr. Spaeth suggests that music week programs include one or more American numbers.

Rickreall Boy Has Operation

RICKREALL—The 11-year-old son of F. S. Crowley underwent an operation for appendicitis Thursday afternoon at the Dallas hospital. His condition is as well as can be expected. His sister, Bertha, a teacher in the Knappa schools, came Thursday night to spend the weekend here. Leonard's classmates took him flowers Friday afternoon.

Fifteen children from the grade school with their teachers, Mrs. Pauline Jedy and Viola Brandt, were special guests at the grange's HEC dinner Thursday noon. Mrs. Jedy who is chairman of the birdhouse committee presented the five winners with 50 cents apiece. Other guests at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Palmer and Mrs. Harold Mitchell and children. During the afternoon meeting the women rehearsed their play, "The Old Maid's Convention," which they will present at the HEC program April 26.

C. L. Miller, H. A. Dempsey and L. D. Adams attended the associated meeting in Portland Wednesday night.

The Rickreall high school are having the second in the series of interschool dances Friday, April 26, in the high school.

Prominent Polk Resident Called

Funeral Services Today for Harriet Sibley, Once DAR Regent

DALLAS—Funeral services will be conducted from the Henkle-Bollman chapel this afternoon at 2 o'clock for Mrs. Harriet Bronson Sibley, prominent resident of Polk county for many years, who died in Portland Saturday. Burial will be in the Dallas IOOF cemetery.

She was born in Knoxville, Ill., February 17, 1873, the daughter of David O. and Mary J. Bronson. She moved with her family to the Lewisville community in Polk county and lived there until her marriage to Joseph E. Sibley of Dallas in 1895.

She was graduated from Oregon State college in 1893. She was a member of the Congregational church, was a charter member and first regent of the Polk county chapter of the Daughters of American Revolution, a member of the Huguenot society of Portland, a past noble grand of Almeta Rebekah lodge of Dallas and of Misticos circle.

Landscaping Talk Given at Ballston

DALLAS—A meeting of the Ballston Sew and Social club was held Thursday afternoon with Thelma McCulloch, presiding. Mrs. C. E. Gregg and Mrs. C. E. Yocum, who had attended the spring institute for Women's clubs in district three, gave a report of the meeting. Mrs. Yocum also gave an interesting talk on landscaping farm homes. Roll call of members was held with each member present answering with the name of her favorite flower or plant.

Mrs. S. O. Snow was a guest and members present were Mrs. D. Mellema, sr., Mrs. D. Mellema, jr., Mrs. Ed Miller, Mrs. X. J. Daunhauer, Mrs. G. A. McCulloch, Mrs. C. S. Gregg, Mrs. H. Van Gross, Mrs. E. F. Paites, Mrs. C. E. Yocum, Mrs. Norman Truford, Mrs. E. H. Brooks, Miss Thelma McCulloch, Mrs. E. E. Clark and Mrs. Nellie M. Baal.

Injured by Tree

SILVERTON—T. R. Wright, 35, was treated at the Silverton hospital for a fractured arm and ribs received when a tree fell on him while logging near Silverton.

Popular...

MASTER BREAD
because it's GOOD
At Your Grocers

Last chance to see
TWO WORLD'S FAIRS
and America, too
for only $90 roundtrip

Perhaps never again will you have this opportunity to see two great world's fairs, plus your own America, from border to border and coast to coast, for as little as $90 roundtrip. This is the year to go!

Starting from anywhere in the Northwest, you can go down to San Francisco on our Shasta Route and see the new San Francisco World's Fair on Treasure Island (May 25 to Sept. 29). Then on to Los Angeles and across the Southwest to romantic New Orleans. Then up to New York for the great World's Fair there (May 11 to Oct. 27), and back home on a northern line.

Southern Pacific
C. A. LARSON
Phone 4408

THE NEW BELMONT HOTEL
$1.50 Per Day with Bath
SAVE WITH COMFORT CENTRALLY LOCATED • 200 ROOMS Every Convenience
LOS ANGELES, CALIF
HILL at 3rd.

Bring the whole family—find out for yourself—Yes, the

NEW DE LUXE FORD V-8

is bigger

Longer springbase • more leg and knee room, front and back!

You don't know Ford until you've had a ride in the Ford for '40

VALLEY MOTOR CO.

375 Center St. Phone 3158