FFA Member Gives Address on Soil

Soil Erosion Problem Is Discussed by Dickman at Silverton

SILVERTON—While it takes 400 years to build one inch of top soil, the fertility of this has been wasted in less than one-fourth of that time, said Paul Dickman, guest speaker at the Silverton chamber of commerce luncheon Monday noon. Dickman represented the Future Farmers of America Silverton chapter, in the recent public speaking contest.

Of the two billion acres in rural areas in the United States 75 per cent has already been affected by soil erosion, Dickman continued. Every effort should be made to educate the public to conserve the soil. He suggested the planting of grasses, the returning of straw and other

Silverton School Schedule Altered

SILVERTON—A new spring time schedule is being tried in Silverton schools. The purpose, instructors and school board members say, is to give the students more time for outdoor recreation.

Classes take up in all departments at 8:45 a. m. The noon hour is from 11:15 a. m. to 12:30 for the primary people, and from 11:25 to 12:30 for the others. The primary division goes home at 2 o'clock, while the others go at 3:30.

Riverdale Clubs Give 4H Program

RIVERDALE—The three 4H clubs in the Riverdale school gave their achievement day program last week at the schoolhouse. The two art and crafts clubs had a display of painted glass silhouette pictures, woven purses, memorandum pads, magazine racks, letter holders, tie holders, book racks and other articles.

The health club displayed large health posters, some of which will be sent to the county 4H fair. The teachers, Clara Jones and Elsie Carpenter, were the leaders. The following program was given: Presentation of each club and its officers, Betty Willard; history of the clubs, Gene Klein, Delbert Kurts and Dorothy Kennell; club creed, Constance Newton; talk, Bertha Kins; music selections, Theronia Collin and Wendell Macklin; health demonstration, artificial respiration, Doris Jane Nichols, Melvin Gosser and Gilbert Klein; presentation of 4H
