Tentative Flax Dates Selected

Mt. Angel Festival Group Names August 9, 10, 11; Marching Plans Made

MT, ANGEL-August 9, 10 and 11, were announced as tentative dates for this year's flax festival by T. B. Endres, newly chosen chairman of the Flaxarian committee in charge of the va and Betty Williamson; piano festival, at the Business Men's solo, Betty Williamson; club luncheon at the Mt. Angel solo, Inez Kellogg; chorus; vocal hotel Monday noon,

Endres made the suggestion that the marching group wear that white suits associated with the Flaxarians for the past two years and that the older men and those not wishing to march resort to white trousers, dark coat and straw hat. He likewise suggested that each business man who does not wish to join the marching group choose some young man to represent him in the drill team. Plans are to have four squads with a captain for each squad. To induce the men to drill a competitive prize was auggested for the squad making the hest showing.

Father Alcuin, chairman of the band committee, announced that there would be a meeting Tuesday night. April 23 to reorganize the Mt. Angel band. Various plans and ideas were to be suggested with regard to uniforms, instruments and a bandmaster.

May 9, two dances will be held. an old-time dance and a modern one, and a card party will be in progress for those preferring cards to dancing. The orchestra from the Trocadero room of the Casa Del Ray cafe in Santa Cruz, Calif., will provide the music. The proceeds are to be used to finance the Boy Scout program, the grammar school athletic program, the CYO and softball.

By unanimous approval of the club it was decided to have a speaker connected with the Columbia Empire campaign at the next meeting of the club, Monday,

May 13. Visitors at the meeting Monday included Roy Campbell of Salem: Ivo Bauman, editor of the Pacific Star which last week was awarded the all-American rating by the Associated Collegiate Press, the MAC paper and the University of Oregon Emerald being the only two college papers in the northwest meriting the award; Tom Weiss of Woodburn who is the first president of the newly organited Associated Students of Mt. Angel college; and John Weisner of Salem, associate editor of the Pacific Star.

THAT a wonderful country the kitchen is! There are undiscovered possibilities in every mixing bowl, uncharted continents in the oven, and unfathomed seas in the flour bin.

Back of every single recipe, each new idea used in our Cooking School, there is the single thought - how can we make living more pleasant, more economical, more efficient. Time savers are life savers. Our Cooking School will give you many of these life saving, time saving methods; for in cookery success depends on your grasp of useful, practical ideas.

There are really thrills in the new ideas of simple modern cookery-step-savers that bring you out of the kitchen freshunflurried. Set aside the three afternoons. You'll want to hear every word, to see each recipe made with your own eyes. Won't you accept this invitation to make our Cooking School your Cooking School, too?
