

Woodburn Graduating Class Is Largest in School's History

72 Seniors Are Listed

Class Play, Annual Prom Scheduled as Closing School Events

WOODBURN—The high school graduation commencement will be held Thursday night, May 23, in the high school gym. Lester F. Beck, professor of psychology at the University of Oregon, will be the speaker.

Seventy-two students will graduate this year, making this the largest graduating class in the school's history. The students are: Ione B. Anderson, Dagny E. Ashland, Thelma Laurine Asper, Leona Ballweber, Karen J. Benson, Charles Robert Bellamy, Billie B. Brown, Mabel H. Burkhardt, Leonard F. Coleman, Katherine F. Cowan, Virginia H. Cushing, John Cummings, Frances A. Copeland, Ellen Irene Dowd, Fern H. Dyer, Wilmont S. Echout, Raymond Erb.

Warren E. Feller, Gladys Fletcher, Mary Katherine Fobert, Eugene K. Fryer, Charles F. Gieswein, Raymond Gilles, Edwin Charles Gurney, Vivian Ruth Haas, Hazel Haugen, Paul C. Halter, Iona Hermanson, Charles Richard Howe, Victor Jacar's, Lorraine O. Jones, Leonard Leavy, Lois Jeanne Lee, Genevieve Gleney Letcher, Florence E. Lemery, Thomas R. Losey.

Eula Fern Matthews, Floyd C. Mattson, Kenneth T. Miller, Viola Mills, Helen R. Moeding, Geraldine Murrell, Betty McLaughlin, Robert W. Nelson, Mavis G. Olson, Eldora Archie Olson, Arlo Morris Olson, Jesse C. Owe, Edwin P. Pardy, Edith Virginia Pelt, Pauline May Phares, Gall Polly, Doris Faye Pomeroy, Richard E. Racette, Ada Claire Ridd, Robert E. Play is Friday.

The senior class will sponsor the annual play, "Charley's Aunt," Friday night, May 3, beginning at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

Donald Warring as Francotter Babberly, has the leading part in the play. The play is based on a college life and is a three-act farce. The play was written by Brandon Thomas in 1892. It ran for four steady years in London when it was first published. For 47 years "Charley's Aunt" has been an ideal play and still is a favorite play of high school students.

The junior class of Woodburn high school is preparing for its annual junior-senior prom to be held Friday, May 17, in the high school gym. The prom is to be in "night club" style, decorated in the color scheme of blue and silver, and the theme song will be "My Blue Heaven." The music will be furnished by Ray Tyson and his orchestra.

A vote will be taken up to elect a king and queen from the senior class.
