

Local News Briefs

Church Kitchen Refinished—The Women's Association of the First Presbyterian church has concluded refinishing and improving the main kitchen. A committee consisting of Mrs. A. F. Marcus, Mrs. H. B. Galsayer and Mrs. Nettie Roberts have purchased a new gas range, complete with a canopy and electric fan to carry off the cooking fumes. A new floor covering has been installed and is being paid for by funds secured through magazine subscriptions. Mrs. Faye Millie is in charge of this project. Mrs. R. T. Boals has a committee which has bought dishes, silverware, table linen and special cooking utensils.

Wallet Stolen—Harrison C. Hartzell, 160 Division street, night man at the Hollywood service station, reported to police yesterday that his wallet was stolen by one of two men who came into the service station at 2 a. m. yesterday to buy second hand tires. Hartzell said he missed the wallet, containing about $12, after the men had gone. He remembered that one of them had gone around the side of the building while he was talking to the other one. Hartzell found the empty wallet hidden in a shrubbery at the side of the building.

4 Trial Dates Are Set Here

Objections Overruled in Suter Estates; Lee Complaint Denied

Circuit Judge L. G. Lewelling during a special motion day held yesterday testimony in two cases, set four causes for trial during the May term, and handed down decrees in six other cases.

After hearing testimony in the

Dentists to Meet—The Marion-Polk-Yamhill Dental society will meet tonight at the home of Dr. Henry K. Adams in Salem. Dr. Leo Boire, state president, will be in attendance.

disputed estate matter of Lewis H. and Jerusha A. Suter, the court overruled objections to the final account of Earl M. Pettecree, executor, and held that the cost of the proceedings should not be borne by the state. During the afternoon he heard additional testimony in the case of Fred E. Roberts vs. E. Beatrice Bollier, which has already been decided with respect to main parties.

Cases set for the May term include Mülgrin vs. Schlesinger, May 22-23; National Surety corporation vs. Guy O. Smith, May 24; Bedient vs. Anderson, May 27; and McKee vs. Hurley, May 29-31.

In decisions given, Judge Lewelling overruled objections to the final account in the H. D. Lee estate on the ground that a clause in a contract involving an electric sign constituted a penalty and not liquidated damages, and took similar action with respect to the Jacob F. Mollencop estate for the reason that an appeal from the decree of the county court was not taken within the statutory time allowed.

The court sustained a demurrer in the case of Doras vs. Associated Seed company, and ordered that the case of Cago vs. Stortz be transferred to department one. The case of Hanna vs. Davis, involving an accounting and plea for specific performance in connection with operation of a farm, was decided for the plaintiff.

Circuit Court—State Land board vs. McVey Sand and Gravel company; motion to amend by Interlineation. Ida Himmelwright, Infant, vs. Oscar E. Price; demurrer.

Chester A. Page vs. Thomas Kay Woolen Mills; answer alleges that contract alteration made in 1934 stated that no further bonus was to be paid and stated that plaintiff has received compensation in full.

Myrtle McKee vs. Olle Wallace McKee; divorce complaint alleging desertion and asking custody of four children; married Lubbock, Texas, Dec. 24, 1919.

Fred E. Broer vs. City of Salem and others; agrees quieting title. Prudential Insurance company vs. F. Gruchow and others; new foreclosure decree for $6,000 and other sums following vacation of old decree.

Probate Court—Boyd Eldon Brown and Wallace Millard Brown guardianship; sale of real property by Blanche M. Brown, guardian, authorized.

Mary H. Cleveland estate; final account of May E. Cleveland, executrix, approved, and distribution ordered.

Maxine Kathryn Toews guardianship; Katherine A. Toews made guardian ad litem and authorized to accept $700 settlement from Robert Hall for alleged damages suffered by ward in automobile accident.

Emma Michaels guardianship matter; petition of Andrew Michaels asks guardian be named; estate includes small parcel of property in Stayton and bank account.

Pauline B. Morris estate; order transferring claim to circuit court. Andrew Michaels estate; appraisal at $449.23 by Custer E. Ross, Ass. L. Lewelling and Margaret Ross.

William Paul King guardianship; George H. Riches authorized to sell real property.

Marriage Licenses—Richard L. Russell, 25, clerk, 701 North Church street, and Josephine Ferguson, 25, stenographer, 20 Donald way, both Salem.

Sample Ballots Out—First lot of sample ballots for the city ticket were delivered yesterday to City Recorder A. Warren Jones.

COOKING SCHOOL

Miss Barbara Miller Again in Charge

One of the red-letter events of the year for women is here! A cooking school it is, to be sure, but what a cooking school! This year's cooking is done in a kitchen much different from that of grandmother's day. There are hours and hours less time needed in cooking - there's less work and more fun. Today's kitchen is a real "Happy Kitchen," or ought to be. If your three-meals-a-day seem just a succession of toast and eggs and potatoes and roast beef and pie, our cooking school is made to order for you! And if you have already found the secret to pleasure and fascination in mixing dainty new dishes and dressing up the old stand-bys in colorful new fashions—you'll love the cooking school just as much.

There will be romance—mapping of uncharted seas of the kitchen—at the cooking school. Each session will glow with new ideas, appetite thrillers, the simple secrets that make cooking happier and easier. We invite you to hear dozens of practical suggestions that make kitchen hours more fun and more joy—to see demonstrated before your very eyes those inspired touches that raise the meal and its preparation to the realm of a happy adventure.
