They've long been known to be crazy, those Brooklyn Dodgers, but not even the Giants thought them crazy enough to win nine straight ball games (did they win the 10th? I haven't had the nerve to look yet) or to come up with a referee from the minors capable of pitching a no-hit game.

Ootzy goofiest of the Flatbush Flier is the chief, the Flatbush Flier, whom John Lardner describes as an up-and-comer, a modern water fitter, a Schopenhauer and Polyanne rolled into one.

Lardner's word picture of the Dodger major-domo comes from MacPhail's habit of boosting his boys to the sky in one breath and in the very next, sans halloos, blowing a frigid sentence that don't give his boys a chance once the league levels off on the flag chase.

He of the split personality is in the depths of despair at thoughts of any one of such sons of Flatbush as Cookie Lavagetto, Pee Wee Reese, Brother Pete Coscarat or Dolph Camilla should be shelled by injuries, but bounces right back into high gear to declare they're all as sturdy as oaks, that no other team in the senior loop has a chance with these durable Dodgers, and that they are definitely on their way to the pennant.

Lardner's deduction is, simply, that yes the Dodgers are on their way. Both ways. Going 90 miles an hour.

Brother Pete Poles One.

Not the least paley of the Bronx band is Lippy Leo Durocher, pilot of the Flatbush Flier. "He must be crazy," they said last year, in Lippy's first fling in handling managerial reins, "or he couldn't have landed that misfit outfit in third place."

Now that Lippy has the Dodgers blazing along in front of the pack without a defeat, despite the fact his lineup is dotted with such supposedly washed-up 30-year-olds as Dixie Walker, and Joe Vosmik, they know blessed well he chases butterflies in his spare time. Screw it or not, the Brooklyn are winning ball games (or were up to yesterday and I still haven't found the nerve to look), and that is what they pay off on when it comes time to hand out that senior loop rag.

Assisting the Flatbushers mightily is Pete Coscarat, younger brother of our Senators' Steve. Brother Pete poled for the circuit with two on to give Tex Carleton his 3-0 no-hitter over Cincinnati Tuesday. In two years with Portland, 1936 and 1937, Brother Pete wasn't much shucks as a homer hitter, incidentally. He clubbed but five in two seasons.

Rain Costs $3000.

It is safe to say that the Salem ball club lost about $3000 when Tuesday's heavy dew cancelled the opener. For lost was the gate, which would have hit, conservatively, somewhere around the $2,500 mark, lost was the $75 guarantee and lost was the club payroll for the day.

Coupled with the bad weather breaks the club encountered on the road at Spokane and Wenatchee, the rained out opener has given the Senator financial department a stiff jolt from which it can never fully (Continued on Page 18)

It was a game productive of everything in baseball that Salem's Senators took 11 to 10, from the Yakima Pippins last night as Waters field was dedicated before Salem's all-time largest sports crowd. Official paid attendance was 4865.

A one-base knock by Second Baseman Buddy Baer in the last of the ninth with all bases covered gave our Senators their home inaugural contest. Bud Brewer, fourth flinger to toe the rubber for Salem, was credited with the win.

The Pippins took a four-run lead in their half of the ninth, on Ernie Springer's home run over the right field barrier with the bases full, but Salem came back to score five on three hits, three walks and two errors.

Wenatchee Chiefs Hit in Pinches to Take Opening Game of the Western International Baseball League 6-2 from Vancouver Capitanos here tonight.

The 1939 champs took advantage of a pair of Vancouver errors in the fifth to drive in two early runs. Second Baseman Pat O'Shea supplied the telling blow. Four hits in the seventh inning gave the Chiefs another pair of runs and Wayne McCue, third sacker, touched off the rally.

The two teams will play here again tomorrow.

Homer Gives Victory

TACOMA, May 1—(AP)—Henry Martiner spoiled Tacoma's Western International league inaugural tonight with an eighth-inning homer that gave the Spokane Indians a 3-2 victory over the Tigers before a crowd in excess of 4000.

The Indian Shortstop's circuit clout which came with the bases empty, broke up a tight mound duel between Spokane's Joe Budnick and Tacoma's Earl Porter.

Budnick aided his own cause by driving in Spokane's first two runs. Martiner, with a single in addition to his homer, shared hitting honors with Marvin Rickert and Pat O'Brien, who collected all of Tacoma's bingles between them. Rickert hit a triple and a double.

Gifford Gives Viks Victory

Chemawa Defeated, 6 to 4; Sophomore Pitcher's 1st Showing Good

Sophomore Ben Gifford, in the first mound start of his prep school career, yesterday afternoon at Chemawa pitched the Salem high Vikings to a 6 to 4 win over the Chiefs.

Gifford scattered seven Chemawa hits, allowed the Chiefs but one earned run, banded out a pair of singles in two trips and scored once himself.

The Vikings, who meet Eugene high at 3 p. m. today on Waters field, scored once in the first inning, thrice in the third and once in each of the sixth and seventh frames. George Hochstetler drove in a pair with a lusty double.

Chemawa's chief batsman was Catcher Youngman, who poled a pair of bingles and one double in three trips.

CINCINNATI, May 1—(AP)—The sensational nine-game winning streak of the Brooklyn Dodgers crashed today on the rocks of a 9 to 2 victory by the Cincinnati Reds, who batted around in the fourth inning for eight of their runs.

The denouement was as sudden as it was complete.

For the first three innings Hugh Casey continued the no-hit spell which Tex Carleton cast over the Red Sox last week. But when Bill Werber finally smashed a double against the centerfield fence in the fourth, the rout was on.

Lombardi Homers

Lonnie Frey bunted safely down the first base line to move Werber to third and the wind blew from the goodman's pop fly out of Peewee Reese's reach for a single and a run. Frank McCormick waited out a base on balls to load the bases and Ernie Lombardi immediately cleared them with a home run, his second of the season.

Harry Croft grounded for Cincinnati's first out, but Mike McCormick was hit by a pitched ball and after Eddie Joost filed to center, Bucky Walters doubled to right to score McCormick and Werber on his second time at the plate homered over the leftfield wall. Frey popped up to end the inning.

Barlund, Porter Signed by Vets

The Veterans of Foreign Wars boxing club announced yesterday they had signed Sig Barlund of Marshfield to meet Lew Porter of Boise, Idaho, over the eight round route in one half of a double main event at the armory, May 9th.

The veteran matchmaker said the other feature bout would probably see Al Spina, against the best opponent available.

Porter, a new face in north-west boxing circles, has met some of the best middleweights in and around the middle west. Low has boxed Billy Pryor, Dallas Bennett, Midnight Bell and Johnny Shumway. He is a good boxer and appears to carry a hefty punch in Portland workouts.

Barlund seems to be getting himself into better condition and claims he would like nothing better than to get another crack at Leo "The Lion" Turner, or give Tony Kahut a chance to even the score.

The heavy hitting Finn is not much on the albis, but from inside information, he was unable to train a day for the Kahut match, due to a badly cut lip, and had to sit in the steam box for over two and a half hours to take off weight so he would not be over 160 pounds for Kahut.

The Veterans matchmaker will announce the opponent for Spina inside of the next few days. A six round added attraction and two four round bouts will be signed at the same time.

Merchandise Trap Shoot Is Sunday

A crab shoot, first of the season, has been set by the Salem Trappers' club for Sunday of this week.

Four events are scheduled, including a 50-targets merchandise shoot, a 50-targets handicap, a team event and a backer ups event.

The club will be host to a luncheon for the shoot, free to entrants. The ground fee is $1 a couple.

Scalzo Declared Feather Titlist

WASHINGTON, May 1—(AP)—Petey Scalzo, of New York, was recognized by the National Boxing association today as featherweight champion of the world.

The N.B.A. said President Harvey L. Miller, "subscribes to the theory that titles are won in the ring, but Scalzo's case presented the peculiar picture of various leading featherweights declining to box him in a title match."

Last month the N.B.A. withdrew its recognition of Joey Archibald as the featherweight champion.

Wenatchee Buys Volpi, Released From Acorns

OAKLAND, Calif., May 1—(AP)—The Oakland baseball club purchased its list of veterans to the 15-player limit today by selling Frank Volpi, catcher, to Wenatchee of the Western International league. The Oaks also have five rookies, two under the number permitted to be carried.

Volpi, from San Jose, served with the Coast league club three years. He had to be waived out of the circuit.

Husky Track Men Set for Orange

SEATTLE, May 1—(AP)—University of Washington track and field athletes worked out "in the dark" today as Coach Hec Edmundson announced he would not pick his squad until just before the Oregon State college dual meet here Saturday.

Both schools are undefeated to date. Washington having won a northern division meet from Oregon, while Oregon State was training Idaho last week.

The Husky coach said he was worried about the prowess of Oregon State's Ed Woodcock, who high jumped six feet, 5 1/2 inches against Idaho—just a quarter inch under the northern division record set by Bill Vandermay of Washington in 1937.

4 Grid Coaches Sign for Movies

HOLLYWOOD, May 1—(AP)—Four top-flight college football coaches are going into the movies.

The quartette—Howard Jones, Glenn "Pop" Warner, Amos Alonzo Stagg and William H. Spaulding—were signed today to act in a sequence in the forthcoming picture, "The Life of Knute Rockne."

They will reenact a real episode in the great Notre Dame coach's life—a scene where a committee of coaches asked Rockne to represent them in an interview with educators who were seeking to eliminate football from college sports.

Newsome Tops PCL Pitchers, 6 Wins

LOS ANGELES, May 1—(AP)—Dick Newsome, ace hurler for the San Diego Padres, continued to set the pace for Pacific Coast league pitchers in a game played through Tuesday with a record of six games won and none lost.

Trailing behind among the regular pitchers was Wayne Osborne of Hollywood, with six wins and one defeat.

A crowd of only 1500 saw the right-hander turn in his first victory over the year and snap the A's three-game losing streak.

Rookie Ray Mack scored the Indians' only run in the third when he connected with one of Potter's screwballs and sent it sailing into the stands. Only two Indians got on base after the fifth inning.

Philadelphia came back in the fourth when Benny McCoy doubled and came home on Bob Johnson's single and Dick Siebert's fly to tie the score.

High Bowler

TACOMA, May 1—(AP)—Ted Tadich, Tacoma's top-ranking bowler, lived up to expectations in the northwestern international bowling congress tournament today when he moved into the open all-events lead and rolled the single high game to date—280.

A split in the second frame of his singles first single game prevented Tadich from hitting the perfect 300. He threw a strike, the spare and then ten straight strikes. He coupled it with 204-180 for a 664 singles total, 29 pins behind Barney Kahn of Bremerton.

Tadich's all-events total of 1784 gave him the lead in that event, dropping Loren Kitchen of Salem, Ore., into second place with 1773. Tadich coupled his 664 singles with 588 for doubles and 524 for the five-man event.

A re-capitulation of scores moved Kitchen into the open all-events lead this morning. Tacoma's It's the Water Squad also was placed first in commercial five-man competition with 2751.

led by Gearhart, captured first place in all events except one. University scored 18 points and Eugene 12.
