

Jefferson City Council Calls Special Election for May 17

Charter Change To Be Voted on

Exceeding Debt Limitation for Water, Cemetery Is Proposal

JEFFERSON—At a special meeting of the city council Monday night a special election was called for May 17, to vote on a proposed amendment to the city charter empowering the council to exceed the $2500 general debt limitation for the city water system and city cemetery purposes. Of this $500 would be for the water system and $1000 to the cemetery.

At the election on May 17, city officers will be elected including mayor, recorder, treasurer and three councilmen. The election board includes L. L. Shields, Mrs. George C. Mason, Mrs. Grace Thurston, Mrs. S. A. Pease and Mrs. Maud Epley.

JEFFERSON—Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Martin, proprietors of the Vel-Va-Tea lunch room near the north city limits are taking over the service station operated by Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Hamill, which they have operated for many years. Because of ill health of both Mr. and Mrs. Hamill, they were unable to look after both service station and camp cabins; however they are retaining the camp cabins. Margaret Hamill came from Portland, recently to remain with her parents indefinitely, and assist in taking care of the cabins.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McKee spent Tuesday in Portland visiting at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Benninghoff and family. Little Paul Benninghoff is having the whooping cough, and Joe Carroll has the measles.

W. H. Sherman who lives in the southeast part of Jefferson, suffered a paralytic stroke Monday. He is 92 years old, and because of his advanced age, little hope is held for his recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ricks are the parents of a seven-month son born to them Sunday, April 28. The baby has been named Delford Edgar.

Santiam Lodge Registers 6550 Winter Skiers

LEBANON—A total of 6,550 persons were counted at the Santiam winter sports area this season, according to the report of R. C. Burgin, district ranger, though it was an unusually mild winter with small snowfall.

The ski clubs of Albany, Corvallis, Lebanon and Sweet Home organized a ski patrol of 20 members which was called upon to help in 26 cases. It is said that none of the accidents were serious though six were fractures. The other 20 were sprains. Of the victims, 15 were men and 11 were women. The patrol was made up of volunteers who were unpaid.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Scott have closed their lodge but the place may be used by clubs who make application to the forest service.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott have gone to Clear Lake, the resort of the Santiam Fish and Game association.
