Calvary Baptist Church Has Rev. Elbert Paul as Guest Speaker

In the absence of Rev. Arno Q. Weniger, the pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, Rev. Elbert Paul, the pastor of the First Baptist church of Vancouver, BC, will be the guest speaker at the morning service of worship, bringing the annual Mother's day message.

Rev. Paul is ministering to the largest Baptist congregation in the province of British Co-lumbia. He is in Oregon to deliver the commencement address to the graduating class of the Western Baptist Theological Seminary in Portland, of which Rev. Weniger is a member of the board of trustees. Before coming to the Calvary church, Rev. Weniger was pastor of the Mt. Pleas-

The night worship which commences at 7:30 o'clock will be conducted by the men's council of the church under the direction of J. F. Svinth, the president, and Edward Schunke, chairman of the deputation commission. Assisting will be Doris Schunke at the organ, Eva Cochran at the plano, and Rouald Adams, trumpeter.

Leslie Church

The first annual church conference of the Leslie Methodist church since the union of the three Methodist bodies was held Thursday night.

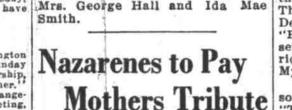

Reports from the various committees and organizations were given showing the church in a thriving condition. A new board set up under the united church is that of the church board of education which includes superintendents of adult, youth and children's work, representatives of the board of stewards, of women and of youth, and delegates at large. The superintendents of departments and the church school teachers will be elected by this board.

Rev. and Mrs. Dean C. Poindexter by a unanimous vote were invited to return to the church for a sixth year. Dr. J. Edgar Purdy, superintendent of the Salem district, presided at the session.

The following are the officers for the ensuing year: Trustees, J. S. Murray, S. M. Laws, Mason Bishop, John Bertelson, C. M. Will, E. A. Rhoten, J. E. Emerson, J. L. Ingrey, J. D.
