

Dallas Memorial Day Service Set

Independence, Monmouth Patriotic Groups Will Cooperate

DALLAS—All patriotic organizations in Dallas, Independence and Monmouth will cooperate in the annual Memorial day services to be conducted on the west side of the court house at 10 a. m. Thursday, May 30. The program, which is being arranged by E. C. Bell, will include numbers and selections from the different organizations.

their color guards will start the program, followed by patriotic music by the band. Hugh Hanna, commander of the Independence American Legion post, will give an introductory reading followed by prayer by the VFW chaplain, William Coote. Obituaries of veterans who have died during the year will be read by representatives from the three posts after which there will be a vocal number. The Ladies of the GAR circle will present a number followed by "In Flanders Field" by Glenn Macomber of Independence.

Poppies will be placed on each cross representing a veteran who has passed away since the war by the Boy Scouts and the ladies of the auxiliary will place wreaths on the Gold Star Mothers' crosses. The Memorial day address will be given by Rev. Walter Duff, pastor of the Presbyterian church. The song, "God Bless America" will precede "Taps" by a bugler and the program will close with the firing squad from the national guard, company L, firing across the crosses.

10 From Salem Heights To Go to Conference

SALM HEIGHTS—Ten students will attend 4H summer school at Corvallis from Salem Heights. The students selected for best achievement in 4H work during the year, are Wilma Gordon, Dorothy Ann Saul, Dorothy Rathjen, Geraldine Nelson, Esther Lenburg, Gill Drawson, Bennett Nelson, Milton Burger, Veneta Peterson and Donna Kelly.

Amity Club Picnic Will Be June 21

AMITY—The Amity Study club met last Friday afternoon for the last regular meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Lynn Lancelotti with Mrs. Howard Stephens assisting hostess. During the business meeting it was voted that the annual club picnic and election of officers will be held at Lafayette Locks Friday, June 21.

After the business meeting Alice Clement, dean of music at Linfield college, the guest speaker, told interesting incidents of her recent trip to Europe. A flower arrangement contest was put on under the direction of Mrs. Chase Thomas. First and second prizes for the most artistic bouquet were now by Mrs. Lancelotti and Mrs. Breeding. The prize bouquets were given to Mrs. Effie Sheldon and Miss Clement.

Plan Summer Picnic

SILVERTON HILLS—Plans for the annual summer picnic of the Home Economics club were made at the last seasonal meeting of the year. The picnic will be held July 11 at the William Wilcox Mountain home.

Trophy Case Given

HUBBARD—The senior class of the Hubbard high school will present a trophy case as a gift to the high school. The case is finished in dark oak.

Salem Eagle Lodge Meets at Dallas

DALLAS—Members of the Salem Eagle lodge conducted their regular business meeting in the armory Tuesday night for the benefit of the Dallas members who belong to their organization in Salem. The worthy president of Salem, Warren Jones, was in charge of the business session.

A program of entertainment was arranged by the Dallas Eagles headed by Lee Hitt and Merritt Hart and consisted of a guitar duet and several vocal numbers by James Sampson and Walter Redekoop after which the girls trio from the junior high school sang several numbers with Lloyd Domaschofsky accompanying. The trio is composed of Delores Krewson, Helen McPetridge and Alice Wall. Vivian Richardson did a toe dance followed by a tap dance by Beverly Orusa after which Loren Agie did a toe tap dance. The drill team from Salem performed to conclude the program. There were about 85 present, 60 being from Salem and about 25 from Dallas.

3000 Cars at Park

SILVER FALLS STATE PARK—Hundreds of visitors, particularly school groups, have made use of the state park picnic facilities in the past few days. Almost three thousand cars parked during the past week, including Sunday when 1150 cars parked during the day.

Community Club To Talk School

SILVERTON HILLS—With election of officers and decisions on the location of a new schoolhouse to be made, Saturday night promises to be a busy one for the Silverton Hills Community club.

The mass meeting of the community has been called for the Silverton Hills club house, May 25, 8 p. m. Discussion will be held as to the type of schoolhouse to be built, the cost, whether of local or outside construction and location. The house will accommodate the four districts recently combined, Porter, Davis, Hullit and Mt. View.
