

Seniors Elect Girl President

OCE Groups Pick Leaders; Service Awards Made to 10 Students

MONMOUTH—Lillian Dahl of Monmouth was elected president of the senior class of Oregon College of Education for the school year of 1940-41 at a meeting of the junior class this week. She is the first girl to be honored as president of the seniors for several years. Other officers: Earl Tuthill, Portland, vice president; Betty Siestrum, Hauser, secretary; Annamae Holverson, Coquille, Alma Penrod, Klamath Falls, Joe Hall, The Dalles, and Bill Stryker, Independence, council representatives.

Joe Hall, The Dalles, was elected president of Theta Delta Phi, men's national scholastic honorary, at Oregon College of Education. He succeeds Ronald Foss, Milwaukie, June graduate. Other officers: Virgil Hayden, Brownsville, vice president; Robert Hayden, Brownsville, secretary-treasurer; Carl Bond, Monmouth, was reelected historian. O. C. Christensen and Dr. V. V. Caldwell were retained as corresponding secretary and faculty adviser, respectively.

A joint student-faculty committee has selected 10 Oregon College of Education students to receive the annual service award given each year to those students who are thought by the committee to merit such award for work done for the school and the student body during the school year. Students chosen to receive awards this year are: Harvey Williams, Parkdale, president of the Associated Students; Juanita Harrington, editor of the "Grove," college annual; Ross Graham, St. Helens, business manager of the "Grove"; Joe Hall, The Dalles, editor of the Lamron, student weekly publication; Jean Appleberry, secretary-treasurer of the Associated Students; Virginia Craven, president of the Associated Women Students; Lenore Jensen, president of Staff and Key, women's service club; Dexter McCarty, Boring, vice president of the Associated Students; Ed Miller, St. Helens, president of the W. L. F. Knights; and Ray Williamson, Halsey, senior council representative.

Last War's Hero Honored in new War's Midst

Albany Service Honors War Dead

ALBANY — Rev. Orville Mick, pastor of the First Christian church of Albany, gave an inspiring address Thursday morning when several hundred citizens gathered at Takenah park for the annual Memorial service, presented under the auspices of Camp Phillips, United Spanish War veterans. Taking part in the exercises were the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion and their auxiliaries, Ladies of the G. A. R., Daughters of Civil War Veterans, and the high school band of the American Legion, the War Mothers and the auxiliary members of Camp Phillips.

With Captain Frank Finch acting as marshal of the day, the parade started from the armory at 10 o'clock and covered the downtown business section, disbanding at the park. Marching were local national guard battery, delegations of the various patriotic organizations, Boy Scouts, and the high school band. The program closed with the three gun salute by a firing squad from the local battery troop, and the sounding of taps by Sergeant Henry Scott. B. E. Lee was chairman of the general committee and was assisted by Lee Hurst and L. R. Reynolds.

Among the speakers will be Dr. X. DeDonato, '00, of Seattle, tilton Bassett, '24, Portland attorney, and Rev. Alexander Williams, '35, assistant pastor of St. Lawrence parish and secretary to Archbishop Howard.

Rev. James Koessler, rector of MAC, announced that he expects more than 100 old students to be present.

Polk Groups Join For Memorial Day

DALLAS — The annual Memorial day services by veterans' organizations throughout the county were held Thursday on the courthouse lawn. A field of white crosses each marked with the name of a deceased veteran and a large gold cross was placed on the lawn and the program took place around them.

The Dallas band played several numbers while the colors of the posts of Independence, Monmouth and Dallas and their color guard marched into position. The introductory reading was given by Wayne Hannah of Independence, after which S. E. Whitworth, Carl B. Fenton post chaplain, gave the prayer. Obituaries of the deceased veterans within the past year were then given by Whitworth.

"In Flanders Fields," a poem, was given by Gienna Macomber of Independence, followed by the placing of poppies on each cross by the local Boy Scouts. Members of the Legion auxiliary placed wreaths on the Gold Star Mother's cross. Rev. Walter Duff, Jr., gave a Memorial day address, followed by a solo by Margaret Lively. Taps and a salute to the soldier dead by the Company L bugler and firing squad completed the program.
