Sewer Contract Let At Lebanon

Council Accepts $350.50 Bid of Lee Scott for Work

LEBANON — When the city council met Tuesday night it let the contract for the sewer on A street from between 4th and 5th to 7th streets to Lee Scott. His bid was $320.50. Other bids submitted were by Ed Kellenberger $397.38; Carl Jenkins, $410.40 and H. Den Herder, $412.

The school board sent a request to the council that rock taken out by the cleaning of Maple street be used to fill the slough west of the south grade school. No action was taken.

A letter from C. G. Hardy, refusing to resign, was read. He stated that as he had resigned his position of constable the reason for which the council had asked his resignation no longer existed. He said further that he did not recognize the authority of the council to discharge him.

A motion was passed that the Mountain States Power Co. be required to install a main of not less than 4 inches on River street from Grant. And it was also recommended that no more water mains be extended beyond the city limits.

Liquid from the paper mill is not being put on the streets now because of repairs on the tank at the mill being necessary.

LEBANON — John Olson was injured Tuesday when a tree was struck by another which was felled. Though he was standing at what was considered a safe distance, he was caught by the second tree and his right arm broken in two places and his right leg broken above the knee. David Looney Is Called, Jefferson

Funeral for Prominent Stockman Is Set for Saturday

JEFFERSON—David H. Looney, 90, pioneer farmer and stockman, died Thursday night at his farm home north of Jefferson. Funeral services will be Saturday at 2 p.m. at the home with Rev. W. C. Kantner of Salem officiating. Interment will be in the family cemetery. Fisher Funeral home will officiate.

Twice elected to the state legislature, Looney was active in public affairs until he became ill last fall. He was a member of the state board of agriculture for many years, serving as president of the board three years. A breeder of purebred stock, he exhibited at the state fair over 50 years. He was a member of the Jefferson Masonic lodge over 64 years and was a charter member of the Order of Eastern Star.

He was born December 10, 1849, on the donation land claim of his father, Jesse Looney, who took the claim in 1843. The farm is said to be the oldest in the northwest continuously owned by one family.

In 1885 he was married to Jessie K. Thompson, who preceded him in death. Two children, Addie Looney Huffman and Harold B. Looney, also died.

Surviving are his wife, Lona George Looney; one son, George Looney; grandson, David, all of Jefferson; two sisters, Mrs. Frances Cornell of Salem and Mrs. Addie Fairbanks of Willets, Calif.

Two Silverton Teachers Quit

SILVERTON—Silverton school board, at its Wednesday night meeting, accepted the resignation of Florence Wimber of Astoria and Lois Metcalf of Condon as teachers. Both plan to be married during the summer.

The board also voted to allow the recreational group to use the Washington Irving building for its summer classes.

The appointment of the judge and three clerks for the June 17 election completed the night's business. Bert Terry was chosen as judge with Mrs. Ross Winslow, Mrs. Clay Allen and Mrs. E. Z. Kaufman as clerks.

No teachers were hired although there are a number of vacancies on the Silverton faculty.

Nominating Group Named by Lodge

SILVERTON—At the Tuesday night meeting of the Lions' club the nominating committee composed of Byron Royce, George Cain and Paul Johnson reported. The committee's choice was for president, C. H.
