Prediction: Give our Little Skipper one more good pitcher and some catching help and he'll have our Senators hammering on the tails of Yakima Pips by July 10. . . . At this stage of the baseball season, however, good pitchers and good catchers are about as plentiful as prairie dogs on Park Avenue. . . . The front office does have a lefthander in mind, though, and if he is available, and if Charley Petersen provides the necessary strength behind the plate, watch our Senators go!

Already, all around the loop, they're crying about the power on Senators have in the lineup, what with three double-A players patrolling the outfield and with Wild William Harris, definitely of double-A batting ability, hanging in that clean-up hole. . . . Right now that Wilson-Baer-Coscarart-Harris-Clabough-Lightner lineup in the batting order is the most formidable, six-man string any pitcher in the league has to face.

Harris, the nonchalant waddler who is currently pressing Yakima's Johnny S. in a peer for the league batting lead, started his organized baseball career in 1935 under Red Killefer at Indianapolis. . . . The Bucko began as a first baseman, switched to pitching when sent to the Cotton States, four-foot distance rightfield wall, one other was a skilled clown the wind helped over, and he hit another ball that all but went out of the park over the centerfield barrier.

"Funny thing," says Skipper Eddie Leishman of the Spokane Indians, "just as soon as we put out the word we were in the market for a pitcher or two all the pitchers already had in the fold start to show up. . . . Up to then we couldn't get any one out." . . . The Tribe currently has but one catcher, as young Lake is on the suspended list due to an injury, so have filled up the gap with another pitcher.

While Little Milton Cadinha of Mehama and exant Carl McConnell of Yakima are both quick enough, but Bucky Banding gives Spokane's Mike Budnick the nod for having the fastest ball in the Western International this year. . . . "But for his size," says Bucko, "that Cadinha gets 'em up there awfully quick."

"Bus Back" is the name of a highly contagious disease running through our Senator squad like a fever. . . . It is caused, say our Senators 100 percent strong, by spending nights on the road in what they term "Bubbin' Biddy Bishop's" bucket of bolts. . . . "You can't sit down, stand up or crawl," one of them growled, "and consequently you are a hunchback for hours after making one of our overnight jumps in that bouncing Betty."

More and better lights, a new public address system, painted stands and a reconditioned playing field will greet softball fans when the 10th annual under-the-arc season opens at 8 o'clock Tuesday night. . . . Happy Holiday Manager Gurnee Fleisher spent all last week in rushing preparations for the big opening.

Strongest softball club this year? It looks, at this writing, very much like Waita. . . . The Meateners, working in a few youngsters along with Veterans George Seales, Pete McCallery, George Roth, Jimmy Nicholson, Ernie Garbarino, Tommy Dragan, appear to have a base that is lacked by most of the other clubs. . . . With the exception of Square Deal, where Brother Hank Singer will be serving again, the rest of the league at this writing lines up a bit weak on the mound.

Waita grabbed the pennant last year, despite getting spanked every time they ran up against Singer and his Dealer mates, and they bid fair to repeat this season. . . . Should one or two of the other clubs get the pitching they expect, however, they'll be tough. . . . In this latter category fall the Pheasants and Papermakers, both of whom are after hurling talent.

One reason those Yakima continue to pace the league? They had 67 stolen bases up to last Tuesday, while their nearest competitor in that department was Wenatchee with 31. . . . Vancouver had 31, Salem 16, Tacoma 14 and Vancouver 13. . . . Those Pips dangle on the paths, moving men into scoring position whenever opportunity presents itself.

Many are the suggestions for assisting the drawing power of our Senators that have reached this desk since we last paid attention to marks a few days ago. . . . Several ask for more ladies nights, one lady remarks that there isn't enough ballyhoo, another says some home talent on the club would help and a gent who takes the situation straight to heart believes there are too many "deadheads," or people with passes, getting into the park.

"Give us time, date and who they (the Senators) are playing and keep it up," advises Mr. E. Iufer, whose idea is that more ballyhoo, as the terms it, should attend our Senators. . . . I. M. Wright is of the opinion home town talent would boom the gate, but does I. M. Wright know of any home talent with the ability to play the class of ball demanded in the Western International? If so, please notify Skipper Griffiths and "Bubbin' Biddy Bishop."

"As I have been at a majority of the games played," writes Lee R. Horsley, "I was interested myself in the attendance and made it a point to count as nearly as possible those that were there. I came to the conclusion that instead of 18,000 paid attendance there should have been around 27,000 had all persons paid." . . . Horsley says that laboring men who really enjoy baseball are glad to have the opportunity to pay their way in, are supporting the team but that business and professional men, who, for their own good should support it, are either going in on passes or are not supporting the team at all.

"A good baseball team is the best publicity a town can have," declares Horsley, who backed up his letter with a personal appearance at this desk, "and the sooner Salem merchants realize this the better off they'll be. . . . Whether or not Mr. Horsley is correct in his deductions, like many another laboring man he has the right spirit and is willing to back the Senators 100 percent."

PHILADELPHIA, June 5.—(AP)—You still have to keep the boys down on the farm if you expect them to become good baseball pitchers. . . . So believes old Chief Bender, the 56-year-old Chippewa Indian who pitched himself to fame back in the early 1900's and has been around in baseball for 40 years.

"Too many kids are going to the city these days," he lamented today. "And there they don't get that practice of throwing stones—or anything—to develop the muscles necessary to pitching and control."

A case in point, the chief said, is young Bob Feller, the Van Meter, Ia., farm boy, who has won eight—including no-hit, no run game—against two losses so far this season.

Bender, currently managing the Wilmington, Del., Interstate league club, a Philadelphia Athletics' farm, believes that trouble with most modern pitchers is lack of control.

"That's why 75 to 90 per cent of pitchers failed to find a career in the majors," he remarked. Morning practice, to improve the pitching and hitting of a team is one of the lost arts—unless some last-place club manager happens to think of it."

Back when he was pitching for Connie Mack, Bender said, "Connie used to send a boy out to steal the ball from me to get me to stop practicing. My advice to kids is to keep throwing every day. You've got to get control."

"Albert" to Connie and "Chief" to the fans, Bender won 206 major-league games for the A's from 1903-14 and for the Phillies in 1924 through 1927.

SANTIAGO, June 5.—(AP)—Quintin Romero, former Chilean heavyweight boxing champion, said today he wished his friends in the boxing federation had saved their money "to give me a real funeral much later."

Carrying a large wreath, a delegation came to his home yesterday after hearing that a young man posing as Romero's son was seeking funds "to bury his father."

But Romero, 46, wasn't even ill. He boxed in the United States from 1924 through 1927.

Gene Fenter, southpaw pitcher who was with Spokane early in the season and who hurried for the Portland Babes in the Oregon State league last year, was signed today as a member of the Salem Senators squad in the Western International baseball league.

Dick Bishop, catcher whose arm has been bothering him, was released, as was Johnny Linde, rookie pitcher-infielder who had previously been farmed out to the Salinas, Kansas, club.

Hullabaloo in Open Tourney

Sarazen, Little Tie for Playoff; Disqualify 6 to Cause Blow-up

By GAYLE TALBOT

CANTERBURY GOLF COURSE, Cleveland, June 8.—(AP)—Gene Sarazen, the dark, fast-striding little golfer veteran from Cincinnati, came out of nowhere late today through the rain and mud to tie Lawson Little for the National Open championship at 287 strokes and carry the former amateur king into the playoffs.

Winner of his first open championship in 1922 and a repeater in 1932, Sarazen struck for his third title so unexpectedly that it wasn't until the last three holes that the huge gallery swarmed around him.

Sensational Finish His finish was nearly as sensational as that of 1932 when he scored a final record breaking round of 66 at Fresh Meadow to snatch the title from Bobby Cruickshank and Phil Perkins.

Little, winner of the British and Amateur titles in 1934 and 1935, was in with what looked like the payoff money already had in the fold start on the nine, going two over par, and he needed an impossible 34 coming back to tie. The course was muddy and heavy from a soaking rain.

While Little sat in the press tent and watched the scoreboard with anguished eyes, Sarazen did it. The little guy not only picked up the two birdies he needed, but on the final hole, he nearly curled in a 45-foot putt that would have won him the title.

Six Disqualified There was a terrific hullabaloo because Ed Oliver, of Hornell, N.Y., had been disqualified along with five other players for having made an unorthodox start on his closing round.

Oliver had a total of 287, too, but it never was counted. His 71 in the afternoon was thrown out because the committee decided the 23-year-old star had broken one of golf's most sacred rules by teeing off some 30 minutes before his scheduled starting time and without a license reported to the official starter.

There was a strong movement afoot to force the NSGA to admit him to tomorrow's play-off. Both Sarazen and Little were willing.

But Tal Pierce, of Boston, president of the NSGA, said flatly "The matter is closed. We will not consider it further."

Little Complimented He complimented Little for having made a "sporting gesture" in asking that Oliver be included in the playoff. Sarazen, however, said "Shucks, let him play. I can beat both of them." The little man with the fighting heart was in fine fettle.

Oliver was crying in the clubhouse tonight. . . . His rounds were 72-69-73-73-287. Several times he looked like he was ready to blow the tournament. On the final four holes this morning, he went three strokes over par. But he came back fighting in the afternoon.

Sarazen had rounds of 71-74-70-72-287. He started the final two rounds a stroke behind Little and Sam Snead. He was two shots behind the veteran Frank Walsh, who led the field at the end of 54 holes with 213. But while Walsh headed for the clubhouse, Sarazen, entering the recognized world record of 22.6 set by Jesse Owens of Ohio State in 1935. He also was timed in 22.3 at the 200 meter mark, surpassing Owens' 22.8 record.

In the 120-highs, he was timed in 13.9. This bettered the meet record of 14.3 set by Sam Allen of Oklahoma Baptist in 1935, and also the recognized American record of 14 seconds flat established by R. D. Osgood of Michigan in 1937.

The University of Texas shuttles relay team of Douglas Jacques, Coleman Pack, Ralph Baggett and Boyce Gatewood turned in a grand performance in that event to make the Texans' day a smashing success. Matched against a classy Yale team, the Texans won 1-0, 15-6, which bettered any known time for the event. The best previous record was 59.8, set by USC in 1935.

Lee Orr of Washington State came through with a performance in the 440 yard run which bettered the meet record. The old mark of 47.1 was set by J. E. Luvalls of UCLA in 1935.

Starting the most remarkable spring of the day, Greg Rice of South Bend A.A. won the two-mile run in 8:02.4. This bettered his own collegiate mark of 8:02.6, for the last 200 he ran like a man, leaving Don Lash 15 yards in the rear.

Beaten in the Derby and overtaken in the Withers, the Froekner winner whipped both of his conquerors as well as three other candidates in the mile-and-a-half grind, before a crowd of 26,501. He proved his right to ranking as "headman" of his year by winning strictly on his own. He was a head galloper in the end, but he was half a length in front of the only two horses ever to beat Bimlich—Mrs. Ethel V. Mary's Derby winner, Gallahadion and Mrs. Whitney's Corydon.

Bimlich Proves Class in Taking Belmont Stakes

NEW YORK, June 8.—(AP)—Bimlich is still the "champ." His boast of greatness gone, Col. E. R. Bradley's flying colt overcame the handicap of a not-to-heavy ride by Freddie Smith today to drive in with victory in the Belmont Stakes and thereby mount the throne as king of the three-year-olds.

Story of Romero Death Overdrawn Ex-Fighter Avers

SANTIAGO, June 8.—(AP)—Quintin Romero, former Chilean heavyweight boxing champion, said today he wished his friends in the boxing federation had saved their money "to give me a real funeral much later."

Carrying a large wreath, a delegation came to his home yesterday after hearing that a young man posing as Romero's son was seeking funds "to bury his father."

But Romero, 46, wasn't even ill. He boxed in the United States from 1924 through 1927.

Gene Fenter Is Signed For Mound Staff; Bishop Released

Gene Fenter, southpaw pitcher who was with Spokane early in the season and who hurried for the Portland Babes in the Oregon State league last year, was signed today as a member of the Salem Senators squad in the Western International baseball league.

Dick Bishop, catcher whose arm has been bothering him, was released, as was Johnny Linde, rookie pitcher-infielder who had previously been farmed out to the Salinas, Kansas, club.

Ready for His 9th Season

Dutch Schnuelle, veteran of eight consecutive Salem softball seasons, will begin his ninth Tuesday night. The cagey Papermaker catcher started his softball career with Pades in 1931, played two seasons with the Man's Shop and has been with the Makers for the last five years.

S'Ball Opener Set For Tuesday Night

All the fixin's will attend Tuesday night's opening of the 10th annual Salem softball campaign under artificial lights.

Heralding the advent will be a parade, filled with Whiskerinos, softballers, the centennial's sheriff posse, the Cherrians, and sponsors of all the softball clubs—including the six major teams, junior teams and girls' teams.

Hurdle Mark Set By Wolcott, Rice

Wolcott skinned the 220-yard hurdle in 22.5 seconds, bettering the recognized world record of 22.6 set by Jesse Owens of Ohio State in 1935. He also was timed in 22.3 at the 200 meter mark, surpassing Owens' 22.8 record.

Shuttle Relay-Record Is Also Shattered; Orr Leads Pack, 440

Starting the most remarkable spring of the day, Greg Rice of South Bend A.A. won the two-mile run in 8:02.4. This bettered his own collegiate mark of 8:02.6, for the last 200 he ran like a man, leaving Don Lash 15 yards in the rear.

Finney Leads Way In American Loop

CHICAGO, June 8.—(AP)—Boston's pennant aspirant Red Sox had a hard time winning games during the last week, but you never would guess it from the individual batting records of American Leagueers.

They still had the league's No. 1 hitter, Lou Finney, Rog. Cramer and Ted Williams also remained among the high 10.

And despite the fact that through Friday the Red Sox had won only three of their last eight games, they managed to advance still another member to the select group—Jimmy Fox, who responded in reverse to the slump, boosting his average 20 points to .336.

Battle Royal Set For Armory Bouts

The women free sign is out at Salem's armory for Wednesday night's grappling bill, which features a six-man battle royal, announced Promoter Herb Owen yesterday.

"Come one, come all," in Owen's invitation to women fans, Prince Iakki, Bob Kruse and George Kitzmiller will form the bad man trio of the royal rumput.

With Ernie Pihano, Don Sigal and Herb Parks making up the triumvirate of lily whites.

First two tusslers to bite the dust will return for a five-fall.

Dempsey Ready To Mix, Says

Feud Fight With Grappler on, Perhaps; Jack not Signed yet, However

ATLANTA, June 8.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey, biggest drawing card in boxing history, today indicated his willingness to re-enter the ring here July 1 for a feud fight with a wrestler, Cowboy Luttrell.

The Atlanta constitution says that a ten round boxing bout has been arranged between the former heavyweight champ, now 45, and Luttrell, a former fighter, and that promoter Jim Downing is enroute to New York with formal papers for Dempsey to sign.

In New York Dempsey, when asked about the proposed match, said: "I may be an old man, but I'm willing to meet Luttrell any time, any place, for any number of rounds he desires."

A crack on the jaw from Dempsey first started the feud with Luttrell, who hails from Dallas, during a recent wrestling bout here. As referee, Dempsey questioned tactics Luttrell was using on his opponent Dave Rook.

The Cowboy bravely bucked his former champion, and a brief hail of blows ensued.

Luttrell is a former boxer who turned to wrestling and is widely known throughout this section.

Thad Holt, Atlanta Constitution sports writer, arranged for the ten round bout with regulation gloves, said part of the proceeds would go to the Red Cross.

The match is scheduled, Holt said, for the night of July 1 at the Atlanta baseball park.

Bud "Cocky" Brewer hurled 13 innings last night, winning himself one game and losing another as our Senators and the Spokane Indians split a Western International league doubleheader at George E. Waters park.

Brewer put his eighth victory of the season away in the full-length opener, 6-3, when the Senators clubbed home all six tallies in a big sixth inning, and he lost his fourth of the year in the nightcap, 6-2.

The divided double bill put the Indians one up on our Senators in the current six-game series that continues with a 2:15 game this afternoon and an 8:15 fray tonight.

Roy Helser and Del Oliver are scheduled for mound chores for the Senators, Oliver in the afternoon game and Helser tonight.

Griffiths Starts Rally Skipper Bunny Griffiths, who along with Eddie Wilson sparked the Senator play all night, opened the sixth inning with a single to right field—the first hit burly Murray O'Flynn had given up to them. Then the Senators teed-off—

Peterson safe on an error, Brewer walking, Wilson driving two home, Baer binging another in.

Harris walking and Clabough taking a pitched ball on his handside the way to bring a walk, Helser.

That was all for O'Flynn, who really showed some hurling to our Senators for five innings. Bob Kinnaman, his relief, was greeted by Lightner's single to score two more, but got by from there on out.

Brewer Scatters Six Hits Brewer scattered the six hits he gave in the first game over five innings. The Indians got two in the third, singles by O'Flynn and McGinnis, to score a pair. Brewer also walked in one. They scored again in the ninth on a hit batter and Aden's triple.

All told, Brewer struck out 10 for the night, walked 6, but 10 of which were intentional passes to Jolley. He was lifted for Pinch Hitter Roy Helser in the second game.

Tribe Counts in 1st Coscarart's error and Jolley's double scored the Indian's initial run in the first inning of the nightcap. They got two more off Brewer in the fourth, on Jolley's triple, Falconi's double and McCormack's single, and three in the sixth off Orrin Davis on Adams' inside-the-park homer, singles by McGinnis, Jolley and McNamee, and two walks.

Our Senators got their only two tallies off Major Serventi in the fourth frame, Griffiths opening the way by walking, Helser smacking a pinch double to score him and Wilson binging Helser home.

The second tilt was called at the end of five innings, the league halting on time catching up with the game there.

Jolley Top Hitter The Big Smudge was the best star of the night, collecting two singles, a double and a triple in five trips. Bobby Bauer, hitting safely four times in six official frames, topped the Senators.

Brewer attempted his iron man performance upon his own insistence and was doing a splendid job of it until taken out for a pinch hitter. O'Flynn, his opponent in game one, was making his first appearance for Spokane. The big fellow is from Buffalo of the International, where he was pitching 5.00 ball before sent to Spokane "on lock."

Tigers, Chiefs Split TACOMA, June 8.—(AP)—A pair of late-inning rallies enabled the Tacoma Tigers to come from being down and away to a 4-2 victory over the Wenatchee Chiefs in their Western International baseball league game here tonight. The win gave the Tigers a 2-1 edge in the current series, which ends with a Sunday afternoon doubleheader. Wenatchee won their first game 7 to 5.

The Chiefs' nipped young Mitt Cadinha for seven hits and three runs in the first three innings of the nightcap, but thereafter he was invincible, giving up only one base knock during the final six frames.

A sixth-inning uprising climaxed by Bill Brenner's homer accounted for four runs and gave the Tigers their winning margin. Wenatchee . . . 7 10 5

So Do Caps, Pippins VANCOUVER, B.C., June 5.—(CP)—Yakima Pippins' laid down a 15-hit barrage tonight to swamp Vancouver Caplans 12-1 and split their Saturday Western International baseball league double-header.

Three home runs aided the circuit with two on in the second inning and Danny Fernandez did the same in the seventh to account for six of the visitors' total. Younker slammed out a circuit-clout with the bases empty in the sixth.

Ralph Schumhammer saved Caplans from a whitewashing when he hit a four-bagger in the first inning.

Caplans nosed out an 8-7, 11-inning victory in the first game. Big Ed Stewart, first man up in the 11th, rapped out a home run to give Caps their margin after Pippins had scored two runs in their half of the ninth to force the game into extra innings.
