Silverton Couple to Receive Friends On 50th Wedding Anniversary Sunday

SILVERTON—Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Adams, who have made their home at Silverton for 35 years will observe their golden wedding anniversary Sunday when their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Adams will hold open house at their 201 McClaine street home from 2 to 6. The hosts report that no invitations are being issued and anyone who wishes may come to greet their parents on that day.

Edward R. Adams and Sara Johnson were married, June 24, 1896, at Portsmouth, Ohio. They continued to live there for three years with Adams as foreman of a shoe factory. In 1899, they moved to Cincinnati where Adams was foreman of the Selby shoe factory for almost ten years. Then they moved to Batesville, Ind., where they had their own factory for two years. Adams' health failed, and they came to Silverton to visit here.

For 16 years Adams was assistant cashier at the old Coolidge and McClaine bank at Silverton, and for nine years he was cashier at the First National bank at Silverton. For eight years now they have owned and managed the Silverton greenhouse.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Adams were born at Portsmouth and grew up living across the street from each other. Mrs. Adams was 70 last November, and Mr. Adams was 72 in February. All four children will be present at the Sunday anniversary party. Earl J. Adams, Ralph Adams, Mrs. Milton (Jean Adams) Thosrud, all of Silverton, Mrs. Fred Jensen (Eleanor Adams) of Bremerton.
