Miss Hunt Is Married in Church

One of the loviest weddings of the season was solemnized last night in the Calvary Baptist church when Miss Gwen Hunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hunt, became the bride of Mr. Verlin G. Coleman of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Coleman of Spokane. The wedding was read at 8 o'clock, with Rev. Arno Q. Weniger officiating.

White cathedral candles lighted the altar which was decorated with pink and white gladiolus. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white marquisette gown fashioned with a shirred bodice, full puffed sleeves, and a flared skirt with slight train. Her shoulder length veil was caught with a wreath of white blossoms. She carried a white prayer book with a cascade of lilies-of-the-valley and bouvardia.

Miss Carolyn Hunt, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and wore a pale blue marquisette frock made princess style and wore a fan of roses in the back of her hair. Her bouquet was of pink sweet peas tied with blue ribbon.

Mrs. R. W. Winston, wearing a pink marquisette dress similar to that of the maid of honor, lighted the candles, before the ceremony. She also wore a fan of roses in her hair.

Mr. Leal Grunke of Kansas City, Missouri acted as best man for Mr. Coleman. The ushers included: Mr. William Fry and Mr. Lee Hash both of Portland.

Preceding the wedding Miss Lexie Lou Barkhurst sang and Miss Doris Schunke played the wedding music.

The bride's mother wore a powder blue frock with a corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Coleman wore a black and white ensemble and a corsage of gardenias.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents on Myers street followed the ceremony. Mrs. Claybourne Dyer greeted guests at the door and the couple received informally. The bride's table was centered with a large wedding cake, guarded with low bouquets of white sweet peas and bouvardia and tall white tapers. Mrs. Chester Cox poured and Mrs. Al Pietila cut the wedding cake.

Assisting about the rooms were: Miss Frances Stewart of Silverton, Miss Helen Carlson of Eugene, Miss Mary Meredith and Mrs. William Fry, both of Portland, and Miss Marjorie Van De Walker.

Mrs. Coleman is a graduate of Willamette university and a member of Delta Phi sorority. Mr. Coleman attended Spokane schools and is a graduate of Walla Walla. Following a wedding trip to San Francisco they will live in Portland.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

The quickest way to your best beau's heart is to look disarmingly demure—in this new Anne Adams frock, Pattern 4469. That wide, squared neckline has quaint mid-Victorian charm, nicely accented by wide self-ruffling or by a ruff of frosty white. Have ruffles on the sleeves too, and you might add gay ric-rac edging and pert little bows. Another attractive version shows the neckline with simple edging and a bow at either side. The appealingly soft lines of the frock are held in smoothly by waist darts. A sash from the sides may tie in back, and tiny buttons may be marched down the center. Do get busy on this lovely frock right away!

Pattern 4469 is available in junior miss sizes 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17. Size 13 takes 4 yards 39 inch fabric and 4⅝ yards ric-rac.

Company Dessert Uses Coffee

Coffee gives fine flavor to a frozen dessert to serve to company.

COFFEE CHOCOLATE FLOAT

Frozen mixture
¼ cup ground coffee
2 cups milk
⅔ cup sugar
1 teaspoon cornstarch
¼ teaspoon salt
2 egg yolks
1 square chocolate
2 egg whites
1 cup heavy cream
4½ cups freshly made coffee

Add ground coffee to 1½ cups of the milk in top part of double boiler. Place over boiling water, cover and heat five minutes. Strain through cheese cloth, or fine strainer. Mix together sugar, cornstarch and salt, add remaining ½ cup of milk and slightly beaten egg yolks. Combine with coffee milk and return to double boiler; add chocolate. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened, and chocolate is melted; cover and cook 5 minutes longer. Cool. Beat egg whites until stiff, but not dry and fold into the mixture. Whip cream and fold in. Turn into tray of automatic refrigerator and freeze until firm.

To serve, fill tall glasses half full of the frozen mixture; add regular strength coffee chilled to fill glasses, stir and serve. Makes 6 servings.

Oatmeal Cookies Are Good

Crisp oatmeal cookies make good summer refreshments when served with a chilled beverage or fresh fruit and cream.

OATMEAL CRISPS

1 egg
½ cup granulated sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup rolled oats
1 tablespoon melted butter
¼ teaspoon vanilla extract

Beat the egg, then add the sugar and salt gradually while stirring. Next add the rolled oats, melted butter and vanilla and stir until well blended. Drop by heaping teaspoons onto a well buttered cookie sheet, then flatten into thin rounds with a spatula. Bake in a moderately hot oven of 375 degrees for 8-10 minutes. Makes 15 cookies. One half cupful of brown sugar, firmly packed, may be substituted for the granulated sugar in this recipe.
