

Stuffed Hamburgers on Proudest Tables; Guests Like Them, Too

The 'burger is one of America's best-liked meats, if one may believe in signs along highways and main streets. Hamburgers are popular for eating out; they are loudly cheered at family and informal party dinners. Although inexpensive and easily made, filled hamburgers may grace the proudest table without apology.

STUFFED HAMBURGERS
2 pounds hamburger
1 teaspoon onion
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 egg
Mix thoroughly. Press meat mixture to a depth of 1 inch in greased custard cups. Put in a layer of stuffing. Cover with remaining meat mixture. Set custard cups in pan of warm water and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 45 minutes. Yield: 8 servings.

STUFFING
2 cups fine dry bread crumbs.
2 tablespoons minced onion.
1/4 cup melted fat.
1 teaspoon poultry seasoning
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons hot water
Mix together in order given, and blend well.

Scio City Hall to Be Moved Across Street

SCIO—Definite date for moving the Scio city hall from its present site facing east on McKinney street across that street to face south on Mill street has not been set, according to Homer S. Wall of Salem, office engineer for WPA, which will assist in the project.

The lot on which the hall now stands has been purchased by the Scio school district to enlarge grounds surrounding the new high school building completed in May 1939.

Technical difficulties have been encountered in purchasing the lot to which the city hall will be moved. The ground is owned by heirs of the late Charles Wesley.

Concrete foundation will be placed for the building on its new site, and removal will comprise several days, according to estimates of engineers. The hall is of frame construction, built about 40 years ago.

SCIO—Father Oldrich Neid, who was resident priest of the Scio Catholic parish for several years prior to his return to Pennsylvania, is reported planning relocation in Oregon, probably at Hubbard, within a few months, according to word received by Scio friends.

Large number of old-timers and others interested attended the reunion Sunday at Providence Baptist church seven miles southeast of Scio. The parish was founded in 1853 by John Powell, early day circuit rider.

EUGENE

and the University of Oregon

Here is a beautiful city of 23,000 people, not counting the University of Oregon's more than 3,000 students, a veritable city within a city. Perhaps nowhere in the Northwest will you find greater diversity of crops or of industries; nowhere more stability; nowhere better living conditions or greater cultural resources than here.

Here are railroad divisional headquarters with an annual payroll of $1,400,000; wooden mills with $100,000 payrolls and a $300,000 a year business; a large fruit "co-op" handling 18,000 tons of produce with annual gross sales of $1,830,000, mostly in vegetables... the largest canner of vegetables in the northwest; the largest canner of green beans in the world; and the world's greatest varieties of products canned in one plant. Eugene, Lane County, you contribute generously to Oregon's wealth. Your newest "fellow Oregonian," a $1,500,000 a year sugar industry, acclaims and salutes you!
