

Six Votes Are Cast, Gervais

School Election Arouses Little Interest; Tie Is Result

GERVAIS—Little interest was shown in the election in school district No. 76 held Monday night.

There were six votes cast for director. J. C. Adams, the retiring chairman, received three votes and B. J. Brown, three. It is not yet decided which will be declared elected. B. B. Barner was re-elected clerk.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Manning attended a family reunion of her family held Wednesday at the home of her brother, Stanley Pillete at Gladstone. Those present were the mother, who lives in Portland, a brother, Herman of San Diego, Calif., a sister, Sister Dorothy Ann of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. E. Pillette of Newport and

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Pillette of Camas, Wash.

Mrs. F. H. Cannard, who was taken to a Portland hospital four weeks ago suffering with pneumonia in a severe form, has returned home and is recovering satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Wadsworth attended the state meeting of the Oregon Bankers association held at Gervais Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of this week. Wadsworth was re-elected president of the independent bankers at a breakfast held Tuesday morning.

Tuesday for San Francisco to visit for a month with her grandmother, Mrs. Mattie Kelso. The trip is a graduation present from her grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley DeJardin will return this week from their honeymoon trip and will give a dance for their friends Friday night at St. Luke's hall in Woodburn.

Erna DeJardin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. DeJardin, will be married to Hubert Saafield of Stayton Sunday morning, June 23, at Sacred Heart church.

DeSart, Armstrong Clan Picnic Set

MISSION BOTTOM—The DeSart and Armstrong clan will hold its 13th annual picnic Sunday, June 30, in the Knights of Pythias hall at Silverton.

The DeSart and Armstrong families crossed the plains in an ox team train in 1864, coming from Illinois and stopped at Oregon City, later moving to near Salem. There are about 115 living descendants of the George W. and Melissa DeSart family.

Fred Winters of Longview is president and Rosa Cole of Salem, secretary. Chairmen of committees are Chester Walling, Sam Morris and Delmer DeSart.

Has Operation on Leg

WOODBURN—Due to an operation on an injured leg, Frank Beck has been in the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland for the past two weeks. It is reported that he will be able to come home this week.

Two Directors Are Named at Monitor

MONITOR—At the meeting of board of the Monitor grammar school two directors were elected: I. Edland who was re-elected to that post and Mrs. Jessie Nelson. Henry Homan is the other director and E. Sorenson, clerk.

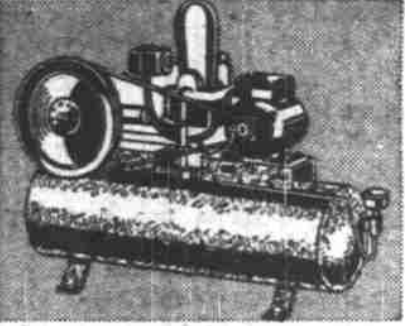

At the Elliott Prairie school board meeting W. Yoder was re-elected chairman and Mrs. Velma Burkert re-elected to the office of clerk.

The officers of the Oak Lawn school board who were re-elected are Carl Bremer as director and P. J. Schneider as clerk.

McKee, Grassy Pond Districts Elect

McKEE—Mrs. Florence Johnson was re-elected clerk of the McKee school board and Joseph Oberinsner elected director.

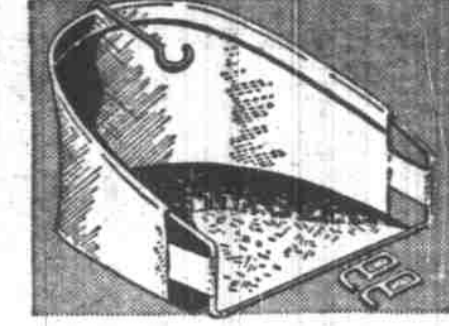

The Grassy Pond school board elected Leona Faulkner as director and J. D. Erston as its clerk.
