

TRAINING BUCCY FOR AIR CADETS—At Uncle Sam's "West Point of the Air," Randolph field in Texas, this is training plane used. The ship, BT-14, is equipped with complete blind flying instruments, radio gear and controllable pitch propeller.

SOME FUN, THIS SUN—The nation's youngest "quads," the Badgetts in Galveston, turned "glamor girl," posing in their first swim suits. They are Joyce, Jeannette, Jeraldine, Joan Badgett.

TO DETROIT—Here's Bill Hapac, 22, outfielder, and former U. of Illinois baseball star, who has just signed with the Detroit Tigers. He's 6'2" and weighs 195 pounds.

WONDER-FUL—Maybe Penelope Shoo as a female scarecrow doesn't show away many crows at the N. Y. world's fair when field but chances are she doesn't show away male visitors (especially bakers) either. Costume was by Hattie Carnegie.

HE'LL TAKE A WALK—Sen. David I. Walsh, Massachusetts Democrat who told the senate he'd resign his office rather than vote to put U. S. in war, discusses his stand with Sen. Hiram Johnson (left), veteran "isolationist" from California.

WILLIE HAS WINNING WAYS—Bessie, the cat, seems charmed with the graces of Willie, the frog. Both are pets of Jose Fernandez in San Juan, Puerto Rico, and play together often.

NOMINEE—No comment but plenty of grins would Col. Frank Knox, Chicago publisher, give newsmen greeting him on his way to Manchester, N. H., for several days rest. His nomination, by F.D.R., as secretary of navy, provoked a storm.

LONDON LASS—Wool is fashion news in war-worried London where this printed wool quilted evening jacket was recently shown—despite Hitler's "blitzkrieg." On a white background, floral design reminds one of an old-fashioned chintz.

ASSOCIATED PRESS PICTURE NEWS

SPURNS CAKE FOR CANDLES—No cake-eater is "Barnegat Pete," that strong-willed deer whose amiable disposition and eating habits have made history for Barnegat, N. J. Pete's master, Raymond Beckett, arranged the party, complete with cake, for the deer's fifth birthday. Pete preferred the candles to cake. He's also been known to eat ice cream cones and carbon paper.

CHAMP—OF OPERATIONS—When Jimmie Ford of Quincy, Mass., is old enough to talk he'll be able to tell plenty about his operations. Now seven weeks old, soon after birth Jimmie had his upside-down stomach righted, his heart removed from the right side to proper location, a misplaced lung collapsed. Sister Patricia helps with above operation—on a milk bottle.

MILITARY TRAINING—Registration of 40,000,000 Americans for some form of defense service is proposed in a bill introduced by Sen. Edward R. Burke, Nebraska Democrat, shown with Vice President Garner (right). Ages would be 18 to 65.

PARKS BOSS—Director of the world's largest tourist business is Newton B. Drury (above) of San Francisco. He's new director of the national park system. Some 16,000,000 tourists passed through these parks during last year.

THUMBS UP!—Two young British school children give the "thumbs up" gesture which the war has popularized in England to signify hope and faith that things will be all right—or OK (in American slang). They're heading for country.

TYPING TOPS—At a Chicago contest Stella Palmas, 18, of Cleveland, set a world's record by transcribing on a typewriter from a dictating machine at rate of 166 words a minute. Margaret Hanna (rear), 54, of Brooklyn, won service contest.

TEACHER WITH CLASS—After battling two hours, 50 minutes, Joseph Weiss, a teacher, brought this giant to gaff—the largest fish caught at Oceanide, Cal., to date. It's a black sea bass weighing 301 pounds, measuring 6 feet 4 inches.

PALS—One of Chinatown's most law-abiding citizens, Bow Lun Lee, got chummy with Police Commissioner Lewis J. Valentine during Chinese Play day in New York. The boy unwittingly gives the "thumbs up" gesture of hope, in England.