

Woodburn Hotel Leased by Owners

Wayne Dobson Will Take Over Management on July 15

WOODBURN—Wayne Dobson will rent the Woodburn hotel owned by Mary Mattley and Esther Hettinger, both owners having accepted positions as teachers for the coming school year. Mr. and Mrs. Dobson have had previous experience in the restaurant business. The transaction will go into effect July 15. Dobson has been in the employ of the Enos & Hammett grocery for the past two years. Miss Mattley has accepted a position in the Woodburn high school and Mrs. Hettinger in the Pendleton school system.

Pastor Transferred
WOODBURN—Rev. W. C. Cronk, pastor of the Woodburn Methodist church for the past 12 months, is transferred to Talbot to take over the Methodist pastorate there. He is replaced here by Rev. R. E. Smith. Rev. Smith moved here last week from Dufur, where he has served for three years. Since the Fourth of July is Thursday, the regular Woodburn Ladies' day golf play will be on Wednesday. Mrs. Gerald H. Smith of Woodburn extended an invitation to the Woodburn Golf club to visit her at her beach home for golf on July 9.

Home Economics Club Picnic Planned

SILVERTON HILLS—The Silverton Hills Home Economics club will hold its annual picnic Thursday, July 11 at the William Wilcox home at Zetisbury camp. Mrs. W. J. McGill is president and Mrs. Leon Tarenoff secretary. Besides the picnic, the regular business meeting will be held during the afternoon.

As Thousands Watched Sunday Fire

An "all-out" fire that threatened the Marion hotel and the Salem brewery attracted thousands of Salem residents early Sunday night to the 200 block on South Commercial street to watch firemen battle a severe blaze in the T. L. Kuhns service station equipment store and the Stevenson Tire company shop. Flames shot as high as the hotel roof for a few minutes before eight hose lines were laid in to drench the fire in short order. Interiors of the two adjoining shops were badly damaged.—Statesman staff photos. (Story on page 1).

Masons Celebrate 86th Anniversary

DALLAS—The 86th anniversary of the founding of the Jennings lodge No. 9, AF&AM, was held Friday night. The meeting was the annual somecoming. A dinner was served at 6:30 at the chamber of commerce rooms in the new city hall followed by the regular lodge meeting in the Masonic hall. During the dinner hour Earl Snell of Salem, grand master of the Masonic lodge of Oregon, and Walter Duff of Oregon, were present. He was introduced by William A. Boydston, master of the local lodge.

Pioneers, Descendants Gather Sunday At Annual Gates Homecoming Picnic; Ephraim Henness, 91, Oldest Present

GATES—The annual pioneer homecoming picnic took place here Sunday. A large crowd of old-timers and their descendants filled the auditorium of the high school. The oldest family present, the three Henness brothers, Ephraim, 91, Theodore, 86, and Lincoln, 77, recalled that their father homesteaded a quarter section on Kings Prairie in 1864. During the exercises after the picnic lunch the secretary, Ed Davis, read a history of the vicinity and early days of Gates, with a description of the various schoolhouses in the district. E. C. Neal recalled that he taught in the third schoolhouse of the district, a hewn-log house on Kings prairie in 1893, with an attendance of 63 scholars in the one room. Neal served as county recorder of Linn county for the term of 1898 to 1900. Ephraim Henness was awarded a prize for oldest man pioneer and T. Henness second oldest. Mrs. Lily Matheny won the prize for oldest woman pioneer and Dora Pierce Melch second oldest. Nora Robertson Goodman won the prize for the most descendants represented. Prizes for pioneers coming the longest distance were won by Beryl McCarty Westcott of Kellogg, Idaho, and P. D. McCarty of Kellogg, Idaho. The prize for the couple married the longest was won by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Collins, and the prize for the most recently married was won by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilbert of Salem, the bride being the former Pearl Smith. A prize for the youngest pioneer was won by Baby Ferril Melsinger of Salem.

Funeral Is Held For Eliza Schuler

LEBANON—Monday at 3 o'clock funeral services were held in the Howe Funeral home for Mrs. Eliza Schuler, who died at the Lebanon hospital Saturday morning. Interment was in the Masonic cemetery. As Mrs. Schuler was a member of the Seventh Day Adventist church, Rev. J. K. Fish officiated. Born in Switzerland 75 years ago, Mrs. Schuler had lived in this country 46 years ago. For the past 22 years she lived on a farm northeast of town. Four sons, Frank of Medford, Albert Paul and Samuel of Lebanon and three daughters, Mrs. Ross Bustin of Pendleton and Mary and Martha Schuler of Lebanon survive. She had seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

State Park Popular

SILVER FALLS STATE PARK—The state park has been the mecca of picnickers in increasing numbers during the week. Two recent groups included 16 employees of the J. C. Penney store at Silverton, headed by J. W. Jordan and 60 county school superintendents.

A program was given following the lodge meeting and included numbers by the Dallas high school girls, Mrs. Margaret Livessy, Viola Hiebert and Leona Severson accompanied by Margaret Pemberton; numbers by LaRay Martin of Portland, whistler, accompanied by Mrs. Zelma Rusan; electrical demonstration by Rev. Walter Duff, Jr., pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Dallas. In addition to Secretary of State Earl Snell a number of other distinguished guests were present for the meeting and gave short talks.

Lebanon Musical Pupils in Recital

LEBANON—Mrs. C. I. Leavenworth presented her pupils in recital at her home. The opening number was by Margery Quamme, Ruth McClain, Betty Brow and Clarnell Bryant playing on two pianos. The concluding number was also played on two pianos by Dorothy Powell, Lee Ann Haek, Lorraine Rose and Mrs. Leavenworth. Several selections were played by two students, one at each piano, and some duets by two students at one instrument. The others played alone. During an interlude, Leo Ann Haek gave a humorous reading and Marilyn Baume of Mills college played on the Hawaiian and steel guitars. Other students who appeared were Henrietta Prieuer, Henrietta Schouf, B. A. on a Edwards, Mary Jane Long, Deloris Miller, Dean Ward, Dean Spires, Richard Cox, Veloris Mitchell and Mrs. Mitchell, Dorothy Brown, Gloria Fintell and Margaret Hardy.

Keizer Club Sends Congratulations

KEIZER—The Keizer community club has sent a message to Senator Charles L. McNary congratulating him upon his nomination for vice-president of the United States. Senator McNary comes of pioneer ancestors, his grandparents having crossed the plains from Kentucky in 1862, arriving in Salem October 12 of that year. The senator grew up in this vicinity and attended school in the old schoolhouse erected in 1878. He is a member of the Keizer club. His home at "Fir Cone" is located near where he was born. The Keizer band plans to give Senator and Mrs. McNary an ovation upon the senator's return to his home here.
