The ball appeared to be turning on a springy blade of grass. The tournament com-mittee ruled the putt, one of three feet, valid under an interpretation of the rule which stipulates when a player's ball lies on the putting greens it shall not be played until the opponent's ball is at rest.

When the putt dropped in, it gave Miss Fine a one up victory over Mrs. Fred G. Davis of Providence and sent her into the finals against Helen Waterhouse, also of Providence.

It's ladies night at Waters park tonight as our Senators return home for a four-game series with the Vancouver Capilanos that includes games of tonight, Saturday night and a doubleheader beginning at 6:15 p. m. Sunday.

SPOKANE, July 11.—(AP)—The Salem Senators, twice spanked this week by the Spokane Indians, evened their four-game series with the Western International league leaders tonight by winning both games of a baseball double bill, 10 to 3 and 5 to 1.

The second place Senators broke up a tight mound duel between Major Serventi and their own Roy Helser in the opener with scoring outbursts ino the last two innings. Four singles, a wild pitch and two Spokane errors accounted for three Salem runs in the eighth and four more were marked up in the ninth on three singles and Williams' double. Williams led the hitting with three safe blows. Harris homered in the second to give Salem its start in the abbreviated afterpiece, and the winners put the game on ice with a four-run surge in the fifth, sending Budnick of Spokane to the showers.
