

Cheering Reports Heard by Willkie

Landon Says He's Caught Popular Imagination; Candidate Rests

By WILLIAM B. ARDERY
COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., July 11—(AP)—Wendell L. Willkie, republican presidential nominee, received a letter today from Alf M. Landon, 1936 republican candidate, saying that he had "caught the imagination" of the people.

Landon's letter, which carried a "Dear Wendell" greeting, came to Willkie, vacationing in Colorado's mountain area, while the nominee was making plans to talk next week with republican leaders.

Strong in Missouri

In his letter, Landon said that he had talked with a traveling salesman "on whom I have depended a great deal for the last 12 years for reports on public sentiment in this section."

"He has just told me," the letter continued, "that out of 118 interviews in the democratic section of Missouri, 82 per cent were favorable to you, and that 'There is no doubt that you have caught the imagination of the American people.'"

Willkie spent today resting. He told reporters that he was "trying deliberately to be lazy," and that "I feel a lot better already" as a result of his take-it-easy program.

Backs Hatch Bill

Willkie said that it was "fine" that the house had approved the
