

Zielinski Clan Reunion Is Set

Descendants of Pioneers Will Meet Sunday for Annual Affair

HAZEL GREEN—The Zielinski clan, the descendants of Andrew Zielinski and his wife, Caroline Wentland, will meet at the Hazel Green park July 21 for annual picnic. Joseph Zielinski is president and Mrs. Charles Zielinski, jr., is secretary.

The Labish Garden club of southwest Hazel Green will meet with Mrs. Edward Cook of Mill City. Mrs. Cook moved recently. A noon luncheon will be served. Mrs. George Larnie is president.

Betty Jo, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lamb, is recovering nicely from a mastoid operation.

The T. M. Miles family have moved from Labish gardens to a farm rented in the Scio community.

The Japanese church has changed the time of the service for adults from Sunday morning to night during the busy season. Billie Black of Los Angeles is spending the summer at the Maurice Dunigan home. Black is a nephew of Mrs. Dunigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rosen and Edward Miller all of Chicago and Mr. Sipes of Stockton, Calif., are guests of Mrs. May McGrew and daughter of Labish gardens.

Mrs. Ramsey of Lincoln, Neb., was a guest at the Z. A. Gregg home.

Mrs. Hattie Van Cleave and grandson, Darryl Van Cleave, have returned from Corning, Calif. Grace Warmoth, Mrs. Van Cleave's sister, returned with them for a short visit. Miss Warmoth will sail from San Francisco for Shanghai, where she is an instructor in a British school.

Mary Lou Johnson of Los Angeles, who was a guest at the Maurice Dunigan home has returned home.

W. H. Truenbach and daughter, Miss Wilmet, of Portland, visited in the community. Truenbach owned the Edward Dunigan farm before moving to Portland.

Driver Uninjured When Wood Truck Is Turned Over

LIBERTY—Frank Judd, local wood dealer, and his truck had a narrow escape Friday when the truck turned over on a steep wood road in Turner. Three cords of wood was on the truck at the time. Judd came out of the cab unhurt.

A car and block and tackle was used to set the truck right side up again. No damage was done to the truck except the wooden rack; even the glass in the windshield and doors was not broken.

Too high a load for a side hill road was held to be the reason for the tip over.

Camp Fire Group Divided in Two

SALEM HEIGHTS—The Campfire Girls organization has increased in size so that it has become necessary to divide it. The smaller girls under Mrs. E. A. Carleton has chosen the Indian name of Lyopka, meaning "to make progress." The older group will keep the name Kanuka.

The Lyopka group elected officers as follows: Gail Haugen, president; Beverly Matlock, vice president; Barbara Dotson, secretary; Elsie Douglas, treasurer; Shirley Kelly, song leader; Delores Peterson, scribe. Mrs. D. D. Detson will be guardian of the older group with Dorothy Graham assisting.

At the last meeting it was decided to enter the contest given by the Sunday school and church where a prize of $4 will be given to the group who puts on the best program at the Sunday school for one Sunday this summer.

Fair Building Near Finish

Polk County Grounds Will Be Completed Before Event in August

MONMOUTH—Work is expected to be started soon on completion of buildings and grounds plans for the Polk county fairgrounds here. The barn will be roofed, grandstand roof finished, electric wiring installed and the enclosing fence completed, according to H. W. Morlan local chairman.

A big program of free entertainment is being prepared for the fair to be held August 23 and 24, with a feature attraction of vaudeville to be presented in front of the grandstand each afternoon and night.

A schedule of races and contests for children and adults will be held each afternoon with award of suitable prizes.

Several local organizations are planning to sponsor booths at the fair, as has been the custom in recent years. The WCTU will enter a booth, the committee in charge being Mrs. Alice Taylor, Mrs. James Riddell, Mrs. A. B. Morlan, Mrs. J. H. Sady and Mrs. N. A. Nelson.

MONMOUTH—Etta Millett, formerly an employee for several years of the Monmouth and Independence telephone offices, is now in Cottage Grove where she is a full time operator. She visited Mrs. Sue Hout, Emma Kramer and other friends in Monmouth over the week-end.

A son was born July 5 at the Dallas hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Riddell. This is their second son, and the second grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. James Riddell and Mr. and Mrs. Laird Lindeman.

Mrs. H. E. Guthrie has returned from a visit at Harrisburg with relatives. She visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grimes and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dempsey, also three nieces in Harrisburg. Mrs. Guthrie accompanied another niece, Mrs. Adams and son other niece, Mrs. Mary Adams and son Leland of Rickreall.

Annual Hutchens Clan Affair Held

DAYTON—Twenty-five members of the pioneer descendants of the Hutchens' clan attended the annual reunion held Sunday in the Dayton park. Mrs. Della Hutchens, 72, of Heppner was the eldest member present. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hutchens of Baker came the farthest to be present.

Officers were reelected; president, Dr. Orr C. Goodrich; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Archie Abdill. The 1941 reunion will be held jointly with the Dayton annual home-coming picnic the last Sunday in July.

Silverton Summer Project Popular

SILVERTON—With the first half of the summer recreational project, sponsored locally by the Parent-Teacher association, completed, reports show that, besides swimming classes, average daily attendance includes arts and crafts, 54; playground sports, 48; woodwork, 37; softball, 48; Latin lessons, 8; golf, 6; bowling (Thursday nights) 27; Pony Boy Allen, (entertainment) 58; piano lessons, 19; Rotary's down hill derby, 12. The cost of each pupil per day has been less than 3 cents. Ray Goates, director, states that the cost of operation for the coming month will be approximately one half of that of the past month because of supplies on hand. Special thanks have been extended by the program committee to O. E. Lee and Glenn Price for donation of materials.
