

Woodburn Wedding Read

A lovely wedding was solemnized in Woodburn last night when Miss Jean Freeberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Freeberg, became the bride of Mr. George Koch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Koch of Woodburn. The ceremony was solemnized in the garden of the bride's home at 3 o'clock with Rev. George Cronely officiating.

Mr. Max Holland of Silverton sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me" preceding the service and Miss Vera Jean Huber played the accompaniments and wedding music.

The service was read before the grape arbor at one end of the garden, with a background of summer flowers and ferns. Bouquets of gladioli and light-colored flowers were arranged on either side of the improvised altar. Miss Lois Coulter and Miss Marjorie Faulconer lighted the candles before the wedding.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a frock of white net designed with a full skirt extending into a train. The shirred bodice was trimmed with orange blossoms around the waist and the round yolk of the neck. Her fingertip length hair fell in a crown of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of rosebuds, tulle and roses and bouvardia and her only ornament was a string of white pearls.

Miss Hazel Freeberg of Santa Ana was her sister's honor attendant. She wore a peach marquisette frock fashioned with puff sleeves, sweetheart neckline and full skirt. Pastel summer flowers were arranged in her hair and she carried a colonial bouquet of roses and carnations.

Louise Koch of Portland acted as best man for his brother, Mr. Ben Reeser and Mr. Raymond Freeberg served as ushers.

A reception in the gardens followed the wedding. Mrs. Carl Huber, the bride's cake and Mrs. Vernon Fronts presided at the punch bowl. Assisting in the serving were Miss Dorothy Koch, Mrs. Alvin Larsen, Miss Marjorie Faulconer, Miss Marjorie Jones, Miss Lois Coulter and Miss Isabelle Creech. Miss Vera Jean Huber was in charge of the guest book.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the bride was wearing a sky blue costume suit of tulle and tulle with a jacket and skirt trimmed with cross-hatched and with navy accessories and a corsage of tallies and roses.

The couple will make their home in Portland where Mr. Koch is with the Plylock Lumber Co. Mr. Koch has been employed at the county agent's office for several years and is a member of Junior Women's club.

Mrs. Drynan to Sing, Pageant

Among the talented Salem singers who will take solo parts in the Centennial pageant, is Mrs. Thomas Drynan, contralto. She will take the part of an Indian woman and will sing "By the Waters of the Minnetonka," by Cadman.

The singer has been soloist at the Episcopal church for several years, has been a member of the Salem MacDowell club and of the Madrigal club.

She studied under Professor Pratt for two years at Whitman college conservatory of music, took three years from Gertrude Hobart and three years from Paul Petre of Oregon State college.

Mrs. Drynan has appeared in lead parts in light opera groups on several occasions.

The Salem Chapter of American War Mothers met at the home of Mrs. Addie Curtis Tuesday afternoon. The Centennial theme was used throughout the meeting. Members of the Albany chapter were present.

Mrs. Mary Ayres was chairman of the committee arranging the program which consisted of several readings, patriotic songs, and an outline of early Oregon history.

Your work-a-day cotton frock may be both practical and becoming. Anne Adams proves this point with Pattern 4386—a gay style that's perfect to live in from sun-up to sundown. It's made in just a few pattern parts, with waistline seams omitted and smooth lines given by darting. The yoke "copy cats" the line of the neck—an effect that may be accentuated by ric-rac or ruffled edging. Use more of the trim for the smart optional pockets and on the puffed sleeves which may have pointed tabs. You might choose the cool, flaring sleeve style instead. For extra color, why not consider making yokes, pockets and sleeve tabs in fresh contrast?

Pattern 4386 is available in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50. Size 36 takes 3 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric and 3 1/4 yards ric-rac.
