She was on her way to visit a sister in Shenandoah, Iowa. She passed away at Rochester, Minn., while being taken to the Mayo Brothers clinic in Rochester for a physical examination.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later when Mr. Crabtree returns with the body. Burial will be in the family plot in Lone Oak cemetery.

Those who survive are the widow, T. C. Crabtree, a sister, Miss Mary Tiner, Shenandoah, Iowa, and three stepchildren, Flora Crabtree and Mrs. John Sorehan, of Salem and Mildred McKay, Alexandria, Minn.

Red Cross Quota Exceeded in Polk

DALLAS—The Polk county chapter of the American Red Cross has exceeded the $300 quota to be raised for relief in the devastated areas of Europe. The total contributions received to date total $390.15, according to Dr. A. B. Starbuck, chapter chairman.

Additional funds are still expected from several sections of the county and any person wishing to contribute may send money in to any of the following persons: Laura J. Taylor, N. Monmouth; W. A. Barnum, Independence; Mrs. Fred Gibson, West Salem; Dr. A. B. Starbuck, Earle Richardson or Mrs. Charles N. Blyden of Dallas.

Production of garments for war refugees has already started with the greater portion of the quota taken by the women of the Rickreall grange and Rickreall Ladies' Aid. However, there is still a need for knitted garments, those needed being those men's sweaters, seven children's sweaters and four women's wool dresses. The yarn and material for these garments are furnished by the chapter and supplies may be obtained by contacting the chapter secretary, Mrs. Charles Blyden at Dallas.
