

Junior Parade Will Be Sunday

Many Prizes to Be Given Children Marching at Mt. Angel

MT. ANGEL—Leonard Fisher, chairman for the annual flax festival children's parade which will be held at 1:30 p. m., Sunday, August 11, announced Monday that there will be three sections in the parade in both junior and senior divisions. Age groups are from three to seven years for the juniors and 8 to 15 for the seniors, with divisions for decorated floats and bicycles, character and pets. Prizes will be awarded first, second and third place winners in each of the six divisions, with a trophy for the sweepstakes winner.

It is expected that there will be large crowds in town for the Sunday program, and indications are that this year's junior parade will include more entries than ever before. Vic Kelly and a fellow member from the Marion county sheriff's mounted posse are scheduled to lead the parade and the local boy scout troop will act as marshals.

A number of out-of-town folks who are well known locally will be present on the reviewing stand to watch the children's day features and take part in other festivities. Among those expected guests are Dr. P. O. Riley and Senator and Mrs. Douglas McKay from Salem. Judges for the junior parade will be mayors from surrounding cities.

Mr. Fisher will be assisted by Joseph I. Wachter and Dr. E. C. Corcoran. Entry blanks should be in the hands of Mr. Fisher by Saturday, August 10.

Asks Setting Aside of Will

Administrator Avers Late Sylvania Burkhardt of Unsound Mind

ALBANY—Frank B. Hale, administrator of the estate of Jessie Hale Bartlett, has filed a petition in probate court in behalf of the Bartlett heirs asking that the will of the late Sylvania Burkhardt be set aside. Named as defendants are Thomas E. Swan as executor of the will of Mrs. Burkhardt, Laura Burkhardt also known as Mrs. F. G. Burkhardt, and Grant Hale.

Mrs. Sylvania Burkhardt died in November of 1939, in Salem, and left an estate in excess of $90,000. The will was signed on September 5, 1939, the petition sets forth, at which time it also avers the deceased was of unsound mind. It also alleges that Laura Burkhardt assumed to control the mind of Mrs. Sylvania Burkhardt and compelled her to perform acts desired by the sister. The Bartlett heirs are Fred B. and Elizabeth Bartlett, Jessie Hale Bartlett died intestate in Boise, Idaho, in March, 1940, leaving an estate in Lin county of which her husband, Frank B. Hale, was appointed administrator.

The petition asks for an order revoking and setting aside the will signed by Sylvania Burkhardt on September 5, 1939, and appointing as administrator of the estate of Mrs. Sylvania Burkhardt as it was witnessed by L. E. Swan of Albany and Frances Mahlum of Salem. It also asks that Mrs. Burkhardt be adjudged to have been incompetent to make the will on that date, and further asks for an order adjusting and decreeing that Sylvania Burkhardt died intestate.
