First of August Private Crop Reports Shows Much Decrease

CHICAGO, July 31-(AP)-After advancing as much as % cent to the best level in three weeks, wheat prices tumbled more than a cent a bushel today and closed 16-14 cent lower than yesterday. Profit taking attracted by uncovering of new high quotations Spinach, Scattle, box Tematoes, lug since early in July were partially responsible for the reaction. Sluggish domestic trade, virtually demoralized international market conditions and increasing harvest activity in the spring wheat belt also accounted for some pressure. September wheat closed at 75%-76 and December

Wool in Boston

BOSTON, July 31—(AP)—(USDA)— The Boston wool market was a little quiet-er today. Sales of limited quantities of graded fine territory wools were reported in the range 82-85 cents, scoured basis, for wools of average to good French combing lengths. Graded half blood stable territory wool was offered around 88-85 cents scoured basis. Medium grades of wool received practically no demand. Members of the wool trade were giving careful attention to recent developments in the foreign wool situation.
