Short Council Meeting Held

Silverton Session Monday Concerned Chiefly With Water Board

SILVERTON - Only a short council meeting was held Monday night with Carol Rhyne, employed in offices of George W. Hubbs, recorder, serving as recorder. Mr. Hubbs had gone to San Francisco. The water committee of the city council was asked to take care of the insurance that expired on the water department truck and to arange for carrying proper bonds for the department. Rentals on Silverton's roller were reported received. A notice was read reporting on the expiration of the lease of the Silverton nirport as of June 30.

Rex Albright reported on the council committee meeting of Saturday afternoon, saying that the council had hoped to clean up the water department disputes by offering the commission the protective bonds that its members had asked. Mr. Albright, who is the city attorney, called attention to the statements that had been made to the effect that the water commission gave the city council one week in which to procure the bond, whereas the letter requesting the bond had stated "within reasonable length of time."

C. B. Anderson, president of the council, said that the whole thing was regrettable.

"It is the privilege of any citizen to contest the legality of the recent election," Mr. Anderson stated, "but the water commission should have accepted the surety bonds they asked for their protection so that the affairs of the water department could be properly transferred and then, if the members of the commission wished to contest the legality of the election they had a perfect right to do so but it is a different thing to do so with the people's money.' It was explained that the commission, in the suit it filed against the city Saturday, had also requested $500 attorney's fees. Appearance on the summons filed against the city must be made within 10 days, Mr. Albright also stated. Family Picnic Is
