

REVEALS BETROTHAL—Miss Mary Yeager, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Yeager, who announced September 8 as her wedding date to Mr. Robert Pickens, at an at home last night at the K. H. Pickens residence. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Miss Mary Yeager to Marry Mr. Pickens September 8

Announcement parties continue to hold the social spotlight these days with September proving to be as popular a month for weddings as June. Guests who called at the charmingly arranged "at home" for which Mrs. Brewer Mills and Mrs. Chester Pickens were hostesses last night were told of the betrothal and forthcoming marriage of Miss Mary Yeager, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn M. Yeager, to Mr. Robert C. Pickens, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Pickens. The affair was held at the K. H. Pickens home on North 17th street.

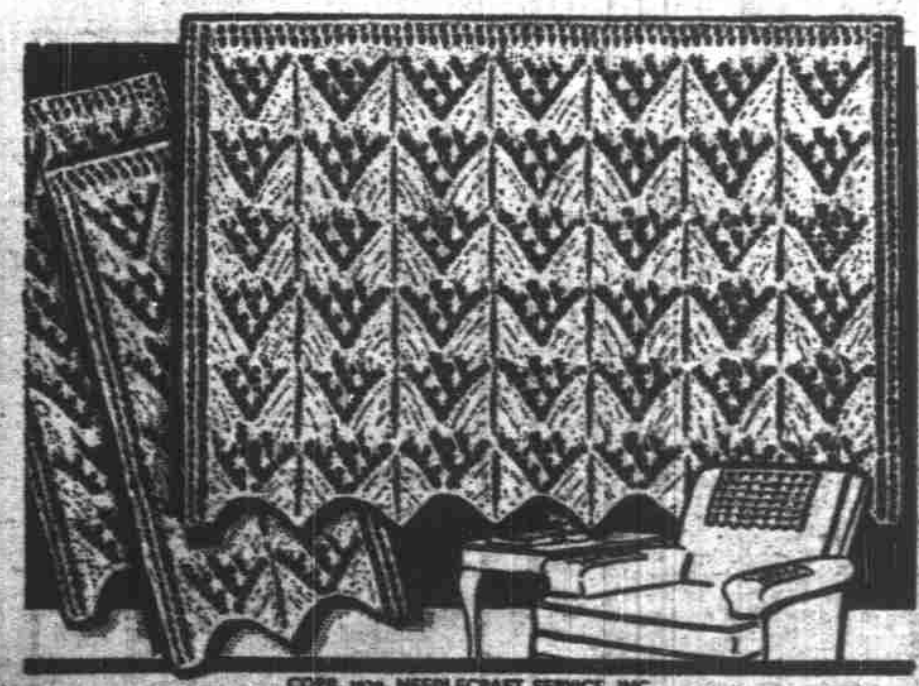

The wedding will be an event of Sunday, September 8, at St. Paul's Episcopal church. Miss Yeager, who is a popular member of the younger set, attended the University of Oregon and is a member of Phi Beta Phi sorority. Mr. Pickens, a member of a well known Salem family, attended the University of Oregon where he was a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. The past year Mr. Pickens has been attending Philadelphia Textile school and will return there in the fall where the couple will reside for the ensuing year.

The guests were greeted at the door by Miss Janice Jackson who passed out pastel colored booklets revealing the news. The hostesses and Miss Yeager received informally in the living room from 8 to 10 o'clock. Bouquets of gladiolus and other summer blooms were used about the guest rooms and the serving table was centered with a bouquet of mixed pastel flowers and white tapers in candelabras. Pouring the first hour were Mrs. Erceel Kay and Mrs. Wilbur Berry and presiding at the urns the last hour were Mrs. Glenn M. Yeager and Mrs. K. H. Pickens. Friends of the bride-elect assisting in the serving were Miss Pat Vandeneysde, Miss Barbara Pierce, Miss Peggy Thompson, Miss Peggy Minklewitz, Miss Dorothy McLeod and Mrs. John Marvin Ritchie.

Maccabee, 84D met at the Fraternal Temple Thursday night and five new members were elected. Memorial services were held for the late George J. Strang. There will be no meeting next Thursday but a covered dish dinner at Olinger park at 6:30 o'clock. Mr. Raymond Stryker, Mr. Thomas Rogers, Mrs. Vera Potter and Mrs. Blanche Gronke are on the committee in charge.

Mrs. W. MacPherson, Mrs. Opal Getman and Mrs. E. Otjen are on the committee planning the FOE auxiliary social club picnic at Olinger field Wednesday night at 6:30 o'clock.

In the Valley Social Realm

INDEPENDENCE—One of the largest affairs of the season was the historical tea given at the Methodist church this week by the woman's organization of Christian Service. Some 100 guests attended. Many pieces of old furniture, pictures, glass, silver and quilts were on display. A certificate of the first fire department in Independence, dated March 5, 1890, was of interest. A spinning wheel was operated by Cora Smith of Monmouth.

The tea table centered with flowers in old glass was presided over by Mrs. Garfield Byers and Mrs. Charles Irvine. Nosegays were presented to each lady in attendance by Norma Grace Moffitt.

Wanda Messenger opened the program by an organ prelude followed by: violin solo by Mrs. Lawrence Guderian; book review by Mrs. J. H. Turnbull of Salem; vocal solos by Mrs. C. W. Irvine; "History of Independence" by Jean Ellen Irvine; and a Cavalcade of Music by Rev. and Mrs. Guderian playing the violin and mandolin. They played numbers from the periods 1700 to 1940.

The committee in charge included Mrs. F. G. Hewett, Mrs. C. J. Irvine, Mrs. Garfield Byers, and Mrs. Ed Moffitt assisted by other members and Rev. and Mrs. Guderian. Many guests from Oak Grove, Dallas and Monmouth were there.

Style-Smiles - - - by Dotti

"That beauty treatment I had at your shop couldn't have been so good after all. My husband recognized me at once."

Of course, and the happy hubby was proud to recognize his own sweet darling because she is so beautifully dressed in a bloused silhouette adapted from Bruyere. The dress is of black net, trimmed with velvet, and typifies the trend toward street-length dresses formal enough for dining.

Facing Fall-Trends in Fashion

The fashion mood is quite far removed this fall from previous carefree years, when stylists turned to Paris for leadership. Chic comes from classicism, style from casual simplicity.

The well dressed woman turns to good fabrics and excellence in workmanship, harmony of accessories, and manages to look more beautiful, more feminine, than ever.

But there are to be distinctive trends in fashions just the same, for seriousness in international developments can't take a woman's mind completely off her clothes.

Facing the fall we find that the silhouette will be straight and narrow. Skirts will be straight hanging, there will appear a new side drape feature and coats will be straight and boxy and boyish, or they will have a restrained skirt flare. Look for a comeback of the dress and long, slim coat ensemble.

But there will also be a bloused bodice above a slim skirt, pleats hanging straight except for a flare when in action and moderate gored. Look again for the tunic or pinafore, grown up. Colors will be muted, subdued, subtle. Browns will be much used in the dark chocolates, soft and rich. There will be shades to beige.

Green is to be brown's favorite partner, appearing in olive and prominent green.

Mustard gold will complete a triple harmony. This color, like cardinal red, will be good in gloves, because such shades are smart when restricted to one note in the costume.

Blues, navy and gray are carrying over strongly from spring. Black remains as head in importance.

Accessories take two paths, either they are frivolous or they are prim. Classic alligator pumps and oxfords are to arrive, also the slightly historical now wood-on furniture heels.

Gloves will be whimsical or beautifully tailored.

Hats will be gay and foolish, or casual and even mannish. Fabrics will be tailorlike gabardines, twills tweeds. There will be jerseys in wool or rayon. Black satin for daytime is new, velveteen and corduroy are campus pets.

Practically everything with an aptitude for tailoring will be seen during this season of good fabrics and good lines, highlighted by smart accessories.

Eggs Mornay Are Luncheon Dish

If you've a set of those fancy egg shirrs you'll enjoy this recipe, if you haven't one, you'll still enjoy it. A good luncheon recipe:

EGGS MORNAV
Break eggs into buttered shirrer or individual baking dish, allowing 2 to each if necessary. Cover with white sauce, seasoned with grated cheese and paprika. Sprinkle with grated cheese and bake carefully.

Just One More Kiss—and She Got It, too!

Camerasman catches a very interesting sidelight as Fort Ontario, N. Y., for maneuvers. The girl wanted coast artillery men in New York City depart for | ed one more kiss—and she got it, too!

Today's Menu

The weekend menu will include pork and lamb, plenty of fresh vegetables and fruit in pie.

TODAY
Sliced egg salad
Pimiento mayonnaise
Pork chops with Fried apples
Harvard beets
Baked potatoes
Apricot, peach, plum pie.

SUNDAY
Baby carrot salad

Fresh vegetable plate
Cottage pudding
Fresh lemon sauce.

For the vegetable plate, arrange baby buttered carrots, fresh lima beans, baked stuffed potato and fresh cucumber strips for each serving.

CURRENT-MINT SAUCE
Separate half glass of fresh currant jelly into small pieces but don't break up too much. Add 1 1/2 tablespoons finely chopped fresh mint leaves, 1 tablespoon grated orange rind and mix lightly, serve with roast.

Ground Beef in Main Dish

Chopped raw beef becomes a dressy meat when it's prepared by this recipe:

SPAGHETTI AND BEEF
1/2 pound chopped raw beef
1 medium onion, chopped
1 small sweet red pepper
1/2 pound grated cheese
2 teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
2 cups strained tomato
1 package spaghetti, boiled
Cook pepper and onion in butter, add meat. Cook until browned then add other ingredients and cook slowly for 1 hour. Meat may be shaped in small balls.

Epicurean Sauce For Fish

Fish sauces are usually welcomed by the best of cooks who realize that half the pleasure of these finny treasures is in the accompaniments.

EPICUREAN SAUCE
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
2 tablespoons horseradish
1/2 cup heavy cream
1/2 teaspoon prepared mustard
1/2 teaspoon salt
Few grains cayenne
Beat the cream until stiff, cut and fold in remaining ingredients.

Ginger Provides Spicy Tang

Gingerale gives this beverage punch, mints adds extra flavor and attractive appearance.

GINGER-MINT JULEP
1 1/2 cups sugar
1/2 cup water
Juice of 6 lemons
1/2 cup fresh mint leaves
1 quart ginger ale
Boil sugar and water three minutes. Pour over lemon juice and crushed mint leaves. Let stand till cold. Add ice cold ginger ale and serve immediately with a sprig of mint in each tall glass.
