

McNary Lauded in Langlie Address

Hits at 5th Columnists Within; Charges They Have Been Coddled

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 15.—(AP)—An administration which will courageously meet the enemy within—those who... are what is known as the fifth column," was demanded tonight by Mayor Arthur B. Langlie of Seattle. The challenge of dictator nations can be met "only if the leadership of our government, state and national, can win the confidence and faith of the people," Langlie, republican candidate for the Washington gubernatorial nomination, told thousands of Oregon and southwest Washington residents at the Multnomah chapter, Oregon Republic club's annual picnic. Fifth columnists, Langlie declared, "have been coddled, pampered and petted for a period of seven years. It is time for us now to destroy these foreign-fans." The Seattle mayor assailed "machine control" of the democratic national convention and praised the republican nominees, Wendell Willkie and Senator Charles McNary. McNary was credited by Langlie with obtaining Bonnerville and

Grand Coulee dams for the Pacific northwest. "The vice-presidential candidate of the democratic party (Agriculture Secretary Wallace) is supposed to understand the problems of the farmer," Langlie said. "I am satisfied that the farmers of my state have more confidence in the distinguished senator from Oregon." "Now, if ever, is the time for our people to banish emotionalism, positivism and hysteria and face the future with a sober calm and an analytical mind."

Garment Company Has Small Strike

PORTLAND, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The Cohen Garment company opened negotiations with the International Garment Workers' union today after a strike of 27 workers. Spokesmen for the firm and the labor group said the employees demanded a union recognition. About 199 persons withdrew from the building after a short, orderly demonstration.
