

Santiam Academy Reunion at Lebanon Is Planned for Sunday; Program Arranged

Many Visitors Are Expected

Dr. Booth to Give Address of Welcome for Alumni of Old School

LEBANON — Officers of the Santiam Academy association met at the Lebanon hotel Tuesday night and planned the program for the reunion which will be held on the high school campus Sunday, August 18. A basket dinner will be served. Elder George Simons will speak the invocation and Dr. J. C. Booth will make the address of welcome. There will be several musical selections and the recital of the time for informal reminiscences and visiting. Visitors from many parts of the state are expected. J. N. Donahue, J. C. Mayer, James Burtenshaw, Albert Wilson, John Steen, George Ross, Mary Kirkpatrick, Jessie Anderson and Anna Steen are making the arrangements.

Wednesday night the fire department answered a call to the Carol Whinery property on North Main street. It was a flue fire. Betty and Donald Thompson of Modesto, Calif., are visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ross O'Brien.

Several pieces of real estate have changed hands lately. J. E. Estep sold the Carol Whinery place to Mrs. Pearl Hughes and his own house on Grove and Shepley streets to Mrs. Lilly Weddle. Guy Parker reports the sale of 10 acres near Crabtree to Mrs. Lilly Weddle to O. L. Studley from Kilkittat, Wash. He also sold the Silver Grill in Brownsville to W. L. Swearingen.

Among recent visitors to Silver Creek falls from Lebanon were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hildebrand, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hellman, Mr. and Mrs. George Hellman, the John Olson family joined friends at the falls and the W. B. Holbrooks and the J. E. Estep went to the Silverton home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Plank and then all went to the park to spend Sunday. Mrs. Mary Lanning went with them.

Methodist Women Are Entertained

DALLAS — Members of circle two of the First Methodist church were entertained at the home of Mrs. George L. Hawkins, Wednesday afternoon. The meeting was held in the gardens of the Hawkins home. A no-host luncheon was served at noon.

Special guests of the circle included Mrs. J. W. Worrell of Portland and Mrs. W. P. Miller of Salem. Members present were Mrs. Peter Berg, Mrs. N. L. Guy, Mrs. P. J. Voth, Mrs. E. V. Voth, Mrs. T. G. Richmond, Mrs. Randall Buell, Mrs. George Greenwell, Mrs. Cora McBee.

Mrs. Charles Syron, Mrs. C. E. Shaw, Mrs. R. D. Brockway, Mrs. R. R. Livesay, Mrs. J. W. Hoover, Mrs. M. Katherine Knapp, Mrs. Martha Miller, Mrs. Rose Broadley, Mrs. H. F. Pemberton, Mrs. J. W. Hooser and the hostess, Mrs. Hawkins.

Dayton People Sell Drug Store

DAYTON — A deal was closed Wednesday whereby Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Budke of Corvallis became the owners of the Dayton drug store, owned and managed by Sam M. Bates for several years. Bates has moved to Vancouver, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Budke are both graduates of the Oregon State college school of pharmacy. They have one son, Paul, one year old. They are living in the Willert apartments.

Grangers' News

ROBERTS — Grange will meet tonight at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be short because of the busy season.

Mrs. Nels Tanning opened her home to the H. E. club Tuesday with a 1:30 o'clock luncheon. Covers were placed for 18 members. During the business meeting plans were made for the annual picnic at the beach Sunday, August 18, for anyone in the community and friends.

Roberts grange will sponsor a benefit dance Saturday night, August 24, at the ball.

The club will meet at the home of Mrs. Leonard Zielke in September.

Hoppickers DANCE TONIGHT

Jimmie Wheelmore's Orchestra

Lelah Landon, Vocalist

2 Miles North of Independence

Adm. Ladies 25c

Men 40c, Incl. Tax

KENTI

Townsend Picnic Set For Silverton Sunday

SILVERTON—Arrangements have been completed for the Townsend picnic at the Silverton park Sunday, August 18. All Townsend clubs of Marion county have been invited as guests of the Silverton clubs. Visiting club members are being asked to bring a picnic lunch and their own table service. G. E. Gillis of Salem and Mrs. Marion Nagel of Lacombe will be speakers. Music will be furnished by the Silverton Amateur Entertainers' club.

Mrs. Helmer Brokke, president of the Parent-Teacher association at Silverton, is announcing a meeting of her executive committee for the first Tuesday in September. At this time plans will be made for the program for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. English are reporting the birth of a son at the Silverton hospital Thursday.

Ed Rowe, 77, who submitted to a major operation at the local hospital this week, is reported as getting along very well.

Mrs. Charles Skiller of Woodburn underwent minor surgery at the local hospital Tuesday.

Bernice Haaland, niece of Mrs. Al Wattler has returned to her home at Pierpont, SD, after a visit here.

Barbara Coker of Salem paid a fine of $5 and costs in Silverton's justice court on a charge of operating a motor vehicle without an operator's license.

George Hubbs, city recorder, is expected home from a two weeks' visit in California this weekend.

Frame work of the Byberg Brothers plant is rapidly going up on North Water street. It is expected that the building will be ready by late September.

Olga Johnson, Silverton teacher, is spending a week vacationing at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Mary Hvidding of Canby.

The John Olson family joined friends at the falls and the W. B. Holbrooks and the J. E. Estep went to the Silverton home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Plank and then all went to the park to spend Sunday. Mrs. Mary Lanning went with them.

Mrs. S. J. Comstock, who has been very ill, is reported much improved this week. She is still confined to her bed but plans to be up the latter part of this week.

Scio Boy Killed In Hunt Accident

Donald Fleming, 15, Dies After Bullet Passes Through Head

SCIO—A gunshot wound accidentally inflicted by a hunting companion proved fatal to Donald Fleming, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Fleming, who died at the Lebanon hospital about 12 o'clock Thursday night.

Young Fleming was hunting near his home nine miles southeast of Scio Thursday about 5 p.m. with Warren Costello, Costello tripped and fell, causing his .22 rifle to discharge. The bullet passed entirely through Fleming's head.

Funeral services will be held at the Scio Baptist church at 2 p.m. Sunday with the H. C. Howe mortuary of Lebanon in charge. Surviving are the parents, one brother, LeRoy, and two sisters, Riletha and Wanda.

Leaves Bethany For Nebraska

BETHANY—C. F. Schmiedeknecht left this week for his home in Nebraska after receiving word that his mother is quite ill.

Charles Schmiedeknecht is building a new home on the Schmiedeknecht farm at the intersection of the Simmons highway and the Torvond road.

Mrs. Henry Torvond has been quite ill at her home this week. Mrs. Bertina Torvond of Santa Barbara, Calif., is visiting her three sons, Silas, Samuel and Henry Torvond.

Hans Johnson has returned to his home here after spending several weeks with relatives in Portland.

Expected Home From Institute

WALDO HILLS — Norma and Teddy Finlay, who have been attending the Epworth League institute at Falls City this week, are expected home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Klopfenstein and sons, Howard and Richard, have returned from a four weeks' trip which took them as far east as Michigan and as far south as Los Angeles and Pasadena.

Visits Grandparents At Fairview

FAIRVIEW — Shirley Keller of Dallas is a guest for a week of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cosel. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Keller, are building a modern five room one story residence to replace the home destroyed by fire last spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knoche spent one week at Yachats and enjoyed fishing and digging clams.

Lebanon Pastor Leaves Church

Presbyterian Minister Will Resume Study at Oberlin

LEBANON—The elders of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. O'Brien home and accepted the resignation of Rev. Gilbert Kilpatrick. Mr. and Mrs. Kilpatrick are going to Oberlin to continue their studies. The elders invited Rev. E. C. Coles of Albany to conduct services until a new pastor is found.

R. H. Johnson has leased the Standard Oil plant on the Lacombe road to east Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Cormier have been entertaining T. Frome of Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison Galloway of Billings, Mo., are visiting relatives in Lebanon. Mrs. Galloway is a niece of Mrs. Miles Horton. Mrs. Rebecca Owen, who is a cousin of Mrs. Floyd Claph, H. E. Owens, Bert and Jesse Williams and Luther Keith.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Owens and Eleanor Tunison attended the Missouri picnic in Corvallis Sunday. Miss Tunison of Portland is spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Owens. Born at the Lebanon hospital, Thursday, August 15, an 8-pound, 8-ounce son, Michael Allen, to Mr. and Mrs. Merle Groat of Albany.

L. E. Arnold of Lebanon has been named judge of poultry in the Linn county 4H and FFA fair to be held in July park in Albany August 29 and 30.

Lee Bilyeu was given the silver cup at the reunion of the Bilyeu clan in Albany Sunday. He will retain the cup until an older member of the family proves a claim to it.

Mr. and Mrs. William Isenbels of Kalama, Wash., have been visiting the Bilyeu and Ivan Ayres families.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Humphrey of Corvallis are in Lebanon while Mr. Humphrey takes the place of Gene Blacklock, manager of the Safeway store, while the latter is ill.

Peach growers of this vicinity are warning housewives that if they do not pick them up now, they will have to get them at once. The crop is practically all gathered, three weeks earlier than usual.

Recent admissions to the Lebanon hospital are Mrs. Hiram Groves, who has remained but a few days, and Mrs. Hammergren of Lebanon.

Minister's Wife Dies at Dallas

DALLAS—Mrs. Jennie Charlotte Cole, wife of Rev. C. J. Cole, pastor of the Dallas Seventh Day Adventist church, died Tuesday of this week. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the home of the deceased. Mrs. Cole was born near Stockholm, Sweden, February 19, 1875. She came to America with her parents in 1896, settling in Minneapolis, Minn., where she remained until she entered Union college at Lincoln, Neb. She taught school for a time following her graduation and in 1900 was married to C. J. Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole came to Dallas about 10 years ago.

Surviving are her husband, C. J. Cole, a brother, Richard Erickson of Salem, a sister, Mrs. Ellen Boman of Dallas, and one nephew and one niece.

Services Held For Mrs. Brown

DALLAS — Mrs. Harriett D. Brown, 86, passed away Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. Y. Allen, near Falls City.

Funeral services were held Friday at 3 o'clock at the Henkle and Bollman chapel at Dallas with interment at the Dallas IOOF cemetery.

Mrs. Brown was born in Pennsylvania June 15, 1854. She came to Oregon in 1882 and settled at Turner. She had lived near Salem since that time but during the past four years had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Isal Macomber, near Dallas.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. B. Y. Allen, Mrs. Isal Macomber and Mrs. Flora Berndt of Salem, and 14 grandchildren.

Gates News

GATES—Mrs. Irene Burgess, primary teacher for the grade school at Gates, has resigned to accept a position near Corvallis.

August 24 an ice cream social will be given at the club rooms in the Gates schoolhouse. The social is sponsored by the Improvement club.

Mrs. Delbert Heiley was entered into the Salem Deaconsess hospital Sunday morning where she received an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Birdie Osterhout, James Arthur and daughter Betty Mae of Spokane, Wash., are visiting with their sister, Mrs. Ruby Winters.

Farmers Union News

AUMSVILLE — The Farmers Union met at the Goddard hall Tuesday night. Plans for a float in the Aumsville Women's parade at the harvest festival were completed, with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sutton and Walter Hak acting on the committee.

New Farmers Union song books were purchased by the local and were enjoyed by the members at the meeting.

T. C. Mountain, chairman of the Farmers Union Mutual Benefit association, reported an increased membership.

The next meeting of the local will be August 27.

Turner WCTU Will Have County Meet

TURNER—The WCTU held a meeting Wednesday afternoon with good attendance at the home of Mrs. M. W. Madden. Arrangements were made to entertain the county WCTU convention Thursday, September 12, at the Christian church.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hill left Tuesday morning on a vacation trip, taking them as far east as Yellowstone national park.

Chet Stewart has opened a hot hog and soft drink place on Main street.

O. J. Hal who suffered a slight stroke six days ago returned from a Salem hospital Thursday.

Aumsville Folk Return From Bend

AUMSVILLE—Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Lamb have returned from Bend where he has been employed for the past year.

Fred Steiner reports that his large grape vineyard is beginning to ripen, and that the early grapes are of very good flavor, despite the dry weather. He will have varieties of grapes until freezing weather.

Tuesday, visitors at the T. C. Mountain home were his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. Mountain of Coberg.

Birthday Dinner Given at Gates

GATES — Albert Decker entertained Sunday with a dinner in honor of the birthday of Sherman A. Ball. Assisting was Mrs. Elton Brown. Guests were Sherman Ball, Ned Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Trask, Elton Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Horner, Everett Leighton, Linn Goodwin, Bob Trask, Wilbur Malmert, Johnnie Pruitt and the host, Albert Decker.

Jefferson Has Fire Ordinance

Regulation of Hazards Passed by Council; Hose Ordered

JEFFERSON—At the last meeting of the city council, 500 feet of hose for the fire department was ordered from the Eureka Fire Hose company. The recorder was instructed to convey a vote of thanks to the Albany fire department for its excellent service during the recent fire in Jefferson and ask it to present a bill for services. An ordinance was adopted pertaining to fire hazards, dangerous, dilapidated buildings and structures, or any hazard which might endanger the safety of any building in the city.

Cases that have come into justice court during the week include the following: Chris Farnham was fined $100, sentenced to 30 days in jail, and his license was taken up for a year for operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor; Freedom Barton was fined $10 for having no FUC permit; Robert Trotter was fined $5 and costs for driving without an operator's license; Thomas Felix Hogan was fined $10 and costs having no operator's license, this being his second offense; Elmer A. Behrend was brought into justice court for indecent exposure. His case was continued until August 23.

Mrs. S. H. Goin, who has been quite ill at her home near Greens Bridge, is reported to be much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Enos Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Thurston and daughter Mildred spent Sunday at Clear Lake.

Mrs. Mildred McDougal, formerly of Brownsville, has accepted a position as housekeeper for Dr. J. O. VanWinkle and son Richard.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fredericksen of Eugene were visitors at the home of Mrs. Lydia Hoyt and Mrs. Miller Grant of Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson, Mrs. Fred Erickson will be remembered as Mrs. Zona Eades. Other visitors at their home Tuesday was Mrs. Ella Martin (Ella Huddelson) of Oakland, Calif. She is a former Jefferson resident and will visit relatives and friends in Salem and Gates Creek. She plans to spend a month in Oregon.

Funeral Is Held For George Knight

HUBBARD — Funeral services for George William Knight, 66, city recorder, were held Wednesday afternoon from the Sam Miller funeral parlors at Aurora. Rev. John L. Green of the Hubbard Gospel church officiated.

George William Knight was born at Canby April 14, 1874, and died Monday night, August 12. He was married to Minnie Whitney in 1902. To this union four children were born. One child preceded the father in death.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Minnie Knight; two daughters, Helen and Anna; one son, Charles C. Knight; two sisters, Mrs. William Grant of Corvallis, Wash., and Mrs. John McMullen of Hermiston, and one brother, Albert Whitney of Portland.

He had lived at Hubbard since 1899 when he formed a partnership with Peter Subarner in the general merchandise business. After selling the merchandise business Knight became a traveling salesman for Wadams and Kerr and later was connected with the Crown Flour company. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge and of the IOOF lodge and the Benevolent Order of Elks. He served several terms on the city council and for the last six years was city recorder. Burial was in the Hubbard cemetery.

Turner WCTU Will Have County Meet

TURNER—The WCTU held a meeting Wednesday afternoon with good attendance at the home of Mrs. M. W. Madden. Arrangements were made to entertain the county WCTU convention Thursday, September 12, at the Christian church.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hill left Tuesday morning on a vacation trip, taking them as far east as Yellowstone national park.

Chet Stewart has opened a hot hog and soft drink place on Main street.

O. J. Hal who suffered a slight stroke six days ago returned from a Salem hospital Thursday.

Aumsville Folk Return From Bend

AUMSVILLE—Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Lamb have returned from Bend where he has been employed for the past year.

Fred Steiner reports that his large grape vineyard is beginning to ripen, and that the early grapes are of very good flavor, despite the dry weather. He will have varieties of grapes until freezing weather.

Tuesday, visitors at the T. C. Mountain home were his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. Mountain of Coberg.

Marion County Legion Meets at Aurora

AURORA—Aurora post No. 110 American Legion, entertained the Marion county council at Aurora Thursday night. The auxiliary met at the Knights of Pythias hall and the legion at the Aurora school gymnasium for a business meeting. Both later returned to the legion hall for entertainment. The Aurora post has been busy the last few weeks building a hamburger stand at the Clackamas county fairgrounds, at Canby.

Four Featherers In Technicolor

WITH RALPH RICHARDSON, C. AUBREY SMITH, JUNE DUREZ

Plus!

Vivien Leigh

"FIRE OVER ENGLAND"

Coming WEDNESDAY

2 MORE KORDA HITS

"Drums" and "Things to Come"

Mill City School District Will Buy Bus to Carry Lyons, Mehama Students

MILL CITY—Purchase of a school bus was authorized by a vote of 29 to 2 at a special school meeting this week. The bus will be necessary to transport high school students from Lyons and Mehama. S. G. Higdon, Clarence Mason and Professor Beck were asked to purchase the bus for the school district.

Marian Hall of Sebo has been hired to fill the vacancy in the grade school at Mill City and a new teacher at the high school, caused by the resignation of Louise Grate, who will teach in the Oswego school.

Joanna Davis has a broken arm caused by a fall while playing in a swing.

A joint meeting of Santiam Rebekah lodge of Mill City and Faith Rebekah of Lyons was held in IOOF hall in Mill City Wednesday night at which time they entertained the president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, Mrs. Verna L. Newberry of Amity.

Pictures Shown At Townsend Meet

BROOKS — Charles W. Wettersman was the principal speaker at the Townsend meeting Thursday night. He also showed his "I am Machine" pictures. Others who gave short talks were Rev. Fred Erickson, pastor of the Methodist church here, C. B. Gillis and Fred D. Delano of Salem. The refreshment committee, M. F. Day and John Hunt, served ice cream and cake. They were assisted by Martha and Ada Hutto and Betty Brown.

The next meeting will be held the second Thursday night in September, with Mrs. Clyde Phillips and Mrs. Martha Cottew as hostesses.

Mrs. Martin Benson, Mrs. Ellisworth Hubbard and Mrs. Orval Otto were hostesses at the regular meeting of the Brooks Ladies Aid society Wednesday at the church. The aid will not meet again until Wednesday afternoon, October 3.

October 3, the ladies were served by the hostess committee to Mrs. A. G. Streeter, Mrs. Willa Vinard, Mrs. Jennie Gilbert, Mrs. Iselle Watts, Mrs. M. F. Day, Mrs. H. H. Bosch, Mrs. Ellsworth Hubbard, Mrs. A. M. Dunlavy, Mrs. Martin Benson, Mrs. Orval Otto and children, Edward, Maxine and Harold. Mrs. Bessie Tapp of Tacoma was a visitor.

Rebekah Lodges Honor President

LYONS—Faith Rebekah lodge 168 was joint hostess with Santiam Rebekah lodge 166 at Mill City Wednesday night, when Mrs. Vernishia Newby of Amity, president of the Rebekah assembly, paid her official visit. After the business meeting, a social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Theresa Crabtree, Mrs. Rosa Berry and Mrs. Mildred Carr from Faith helped serve. Those making the trip from Lyons were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lewis and daughter Beulah, Mrs. A. B. Baker, Mrs. Theresa Crabtree, Mrs. Mabel Bass, Mrs. Inez Ring, Mrs. Mabel Spa, Mrs. Maude Wise, Mrs. Rosa Berry, Mrs. Mildred Carr, Mrs. Anna B. Julian and Mrs. Gladie Ranbo who is a member at Glendale.

Leland Mannix, a Statesman carrier at Lyons who entered the paper contest and earned a trip to Jantzen beach, attended the annual Jantzen beach contest held there Tuesday. There were 27 carriers present.

Mrs. E. Crabtree spent Tuesday in Portland with her daughter JoAnn who is employed there. Miss Crabtree is coming home soon to spend the rest of her vacation at the home of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Martin of Cutler City spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Lyons visiting relatives and friends. Martin is a brother of Bane Martin, Mrs. Albert King and Mrs. Dick Brown, and Mrs. Martin is a sister of Mrs. Bert Lyons and Clyde Lewis. The Martins are former residents of Lyons.

Constance Bodeker of Salem spent Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bodeker. She had as her guest Florence Embark of Penstemon. The girls were college roommates.

Mr. and Mrs. John Caldwell of Lebanon visited friends in Lyons Thursday. The Caldwells are former residents here, having lived in both Lyons and Fox Valley.

Nebraska People Are Entertained

Monitor Families Hosts for Many Summer Visitors

MONITOR — The Liebarts entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Walter and family of Chambers, Neb., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Arja of Liberal, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Pomeroy and children, Claude and Grover, and Doris Pomeroy at a dinner party this week. The Walters and the Arja in great surprise recognized each other as one time Nebraska neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kittrow are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Lenon, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Tread, Mrs. Calvin, Miss Edith Calvin, Mr. and Mrs. John Tweed of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kollin and daughter Norma of Silverton went to Newkwin Sunday. The Lenons, Tweeds and Kollins bought a cabin while there.

Reserve Naval Officer Called

WOODBURN — L. C. Austin, a reserve officer in the navy, has been ordered to report to the navy yard at Bremerton by the end of this month. Mrs. Austin and three sons, Carl, Bob and Bill, will remain in Woodburn.

A roof is being built to cover the low concrete structure that houses the city's new pumping plant. Library square, it is to be made of sheet iron. A concrete walk has been built all around the structure, and benches will be attached to the walls on three sides.

Martha Black presided over the Presbyterian Ladies Aid society which met Wednesday afternoon in the church. Devotions were led by Mrs. Henry Layman. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. George Cole, Miss Rowena Cole and Miss Julia Layman.

Mamie Winkler Dies at Silverton

SILVERTON — Mamie Winkler, 75, died at the home of her sister, Anna Dunn, at 401 South First street Thursday afternoon. The body, in care of Larson & Son, will be shipped to Davenport, Iowa, for funeral services and burial. Mrs. Winkler was born September 2, 1865, in Davis county, Ill. Besides the sister, her widower, P. G. Winkler, survives.

Aumsville Man Dies

AUMSVILLE — Arthur Miz, 61, a resident of Aumsville for 19 years, died at 11 a. m. Friday. The funeral has been set for Sunday at 2 p. m. at the Bethel church at Aumsville. Rev. Henry Aarhus of the Wesleyan Methodist church here will officiate.

Training School Principal Quits

Teacher Elected Accepts Position in Missouri, Vacancy Left

INDEPENDENCE — Dr. C. A. Howard, president of the Oregon College of Education, has received word that Viola Brandt, who was elected to the position of principal of the Independence training school, had accepted a position in Missouri and would not be here this fall. Dr. Howard met with the Independence school board last Saturday noon here and while no action was taken on the election of a new principal it is understood that Dr. Howard and the board have a man in mind for the position. Mrs. W. F. McBee, who has been principal for the past nine years, resigned last spring but will continue as one of the teachers.

The vacancy caused by the resignation of Gordon Finlay as instructor of orchestra in the training school and also as leader of the Independence band has not been filled, but applications have been received and it is expected that a choice will soon be made. William Boydstun of Dallas is directing the band during this month.

Mrs. C. H. Harwood, teacher of home economics at the Independence high school for the past three years, has resigned and Mrs. James Sullivan of Corvallis has been elected to the position.

The house on Grand and Log Cabin streets in North Independence, belonging to the J. F. Miller estate, was completely demolished by fire at 7:15 Wednesday morning. The house has been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. George Kiser and family who were at home at the time of the fire. The cause of the fire has not been determined. The furniture and personal effects of the Kiser family was a total loss. The Independence fire department responded to a call but the flames had too much of a start before they arrived.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Newton and children from Yakima are spending two weeks' vacation with relatives in the city. Also Marjorie Bell and Jack Newton from Ashland, children of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Newton, are visiting relatives. The group is enjoying a week at the Sloper cottage at the beach with Mrs. C. C. Sloper.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dunkel returned Tuesday night from an extended trip covering 10,000 miles over the United States. This is Mr. Dunkel's first extended vacation in 30 years.

Cactus Garden Being Started At Unionvale

UNIONVALE — Mr. and Mrs. George Westfall have prepared a 3 by 6 feet flower bed and set out 24 varieties of interesting cactus. All are thriving in the local summer heat. The plants were started three years ago from tiny starts presented to them by their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Monroe of Los Angeles, Calif., who secured them in the Mojave desert.

Raymond Palmer is assisting in pouring cement for a sidewalk and foundation for a porch in front of the George Westfall new residence.

AUGUST 17 - 23 ALEXANDER KORDA (The Frank Capra of England) WEEK

And We Are Proud to Bring Back These Great Korda Hits

Starts Today! More Blazing Thrills than Any Screen Has Ever Held

FOUR FEATHERERS IN TECHNICOLOR

WITH RALPH RICHARDSON, C. AUBREY SMITH, JUNE DUREZ

Plus!

Vivien Leigh

"FIRE OVER ENGLAND"

Coming WEDNESDAY

2 MORE KORDA HITS

"Drums" and "Things to Come"

Grangers' News

ROBERTS — Grange will meet tonight at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be short because of the busy season.

Mrs. Nels Tanning opened her home to the H. E. club Tuesday with a 1:30 o'clock luncheon. Covers were placed for 18 members. During the business meeting plans were made for the annual picnic at the beach Sunday, August 18, for anyone in the community and friends.

Roberts grange will sponsor a benefit dance Saturday night, August 24, at the ball.

The club will meet at the home of Mrs. Leonard Zielke in September.

Dayton People Sell Drug Store

DAYTON — A deal was closed Wednesday whereby Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Budke of Corvallis became the owners of the Dayton drug store, owned and managed by Sam M. Bates for several years. Bates has moved to Vancouver, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Budke are both graduates of the Oregon State college school of pharmacy. They have one son, Paul, one year old. They are living in the Willert apartments.

Grangers' News

ROBERTS — Grange will meet tonight at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be short because of the busy season.

Mrs. Nels Tanning opened her home to the H. E. club Tuesday with a 1:30 o'clock luncheon. Covers were placed for 18 members. During the business meeting plans were made for the annual picnic at the beach Sunday, August 18, for anyone in the community and friends.

Roberts grange will sponsor a benefit dance Saturday night, August 24, at the ball.

The club will meet at the home of Mrs. Leonard Zielke in September.

Grangers' News

ROBERTS — Grange will meet tonight at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be short because of the busy season.

Mrs. Nels Tanning opened her home to the H. E. club Tuesday with a 1:30 o'clock luncheon. Covers were placed for 18 members. During the business meeting plans were made for the annual picnic at the beach Sunday, August 18, for anyone in the community and friends.

Roberts grange will sponsor a benefit dance Saturday night, August 24, at the ball.

The club will meet at the home of Mrs. Leonard Zielke in September.

Grangers' News

ROBERTS — Grange will meet tonight at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be short because of the busy season.

Mrs. Nels Tanning opened her home to the H. E. club Tuesday with a 1:30 o'clock luncheon. Covers were placed for 18 members. During the business meeting plans were made for the annual picnic at the beach Sunday, August 18, for anyone in the community and friends.

Roberts grange will sponsor a benefit dance Saturday night, August 24, at the ball.

The club will meet at the home of Mrs. Leonard Zielke in September.