Clearing Plans Stated-Marion county will be obligated to remove snow from the North Santiam pass with its own equipment if it becomes too deep next winter to be handled by push plows without danger to the road surface, according to a letter forwarded to the county court by R. H. Baldock, state highway engineer, from W. H. Lynch, engineer for the federal bureau ofpublic roads. The federal department in the past has made arrangements with the county for the major part of snow clearance from the upper reaches of the pass, and it is not believed by court officials that the letter with respect to snow removal.

Hearing of arguments in the case of W. R. Osborne against Peter Zimmerman, involving a primary nominating election contest in Yamhill county, has been set by the state supreme court for September 10. Arthur S. Benson, clerk, announced yesterday.

Osborne, candidate for state senator from Yambill county at the last primary election, charged that he was deprived of the nomination over Zimmerman because of errors by the election boards in counting and tabulating the votes on tally sheets.

He said a recount of the votes in certain precincts would have shown that he won the nomination. The lower court held for Zimmerman whereupon Osborne appealed to the supreme court. Hearing of the case of C. N. Ravlin and others attacking the organization of the Hood River peoples utility district has been set for Wednesday, September 11.

Youth Movement Need of Campaign

"It's up to the Willkie-McNary forces to offer a constructive program for young men from 21 to 35 years of age if they expect to win," Dan Hay, executive manager of Associated Employers of Private land owners in the vi- Oregon, Inc., declared yesterday New York City and Washington,

Hay said his visits at industrial and mercantile establishments throughout the east and central states convinced him that "a Willkie youth movement is needed." Wartime industries are going "full blast" in the eastern states and their effects are showing up in improvement of business gen-
